

Supplement, June 30, 1910

FOREST GROVE PRESS

Additional Local Items of General Interest

Mrs. Will Pollock went to Eugene this week for an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Dr. Sheets attended the graduating exercises of the Portland school of chiropractic Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Pierson, of Washington state, is visiting at the home of her father, F. M. Starrett, living east of town.

Mrs. Chester Johnson and young son of Portland, are visiting this week at the home of H. B. Johnson in this city.

Charles and Rolla Walker have gone to Newport, where they will conduct a dancing pavilion during the summer months.

Dick Baker, a forest Grove boy now connected with the Arnold Amusement company, called on friends in this city Tuesday.

Mildred Carlyle returned Tuesday from a visit with her aunt Mrs. Holloway and family living nine miles northwest of town.

B. C. Suit, local editor of this paper, is all in, down and out, this week, and the PRESS pencil is being pushed by E. S. Sparks.

Miss Goodrich went to Washougal, Wash, last Friday to visit at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Clapp, formerly of this city.

J. B. Ward, living on Fourth street, is improving the looks of his bungalow by painting the roof the color that angered the b-l.

Mrs. F. S. Barnes is very sick at her home on First avenue south, and has been under the care of a physician for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, who recently disposed of their grocery store on Pacific avenue to Jackson and sons, were Portland visitors this week.

A dinner under the beautiful trees was given last Sunday at the Brown stock ranch in Patton Valley, which was one of the pleasantest affairs of the season.

Rev. Father Buck is entertaining his brother and family who are on their way back to Fargo, North Dak., their home. They have been at Long Beach, Cal., during the winter.

At the Congregational church next Sunday, the pastor Rev. Thomas, will speak at 11 a. m. on "Captivity." In the evening the sermon will be of a patriotic nature, the subject being "Freedom."

Douglas Reed and family of Crystal City, Minn., are guests at the home of Mr. Ogden. The Reeds are very favorably impressed with the Oregon scenery and climate, and think Forest Grove is the prettiest little city ever.

Hubert Bernards, ex-state representative, who has extensive farm holdings in Washington and Yamhill counties, was in town yesterday from McMinnville. Mr. Bernards spends most of his time in Yamhill county but still claims Verboort as his home.

In the suit of George Jockson vs. the Pacific Coast Condensed Milk company, the plaintiff was awarded $218.19.

Rev. Harry Kreider, formerly pastor of the local Free Methodist church, visited this week with friends and relatives in this city. Harry made Forest Grove his home until entering the ministry some years ago. He is now pastor of the churches at Springfield and Eugene.

Rev. Father Ambrose, O. S. B., director of Mt. Angel College, was in our city the first of the week and Rev. Father Thomas, O. S. B., who was ordained a short time ago came for Sunday evening. He gave Benediction and the sermon in St. Anthony's chapel and afterwards blessed the entire congregation. This was a privilege never before enjoyed in Forest Grove. A reception was tendered him later.

"Catholic Day," July 2, will be a memorable one for Cornelius from all indications. There will be a picnic at noon in the park preceded by games and music, and in the afternoon a splendid program has been arranged including the Archbishop of Oregon as speaker of the day. This will indeed be a treat as everyone who has heard His Grace will testify. Afterwards Father Donnelly, an old soldier priest, will entertain his comrades with stories of the sixties, and all together it promises to be an eventful occasion.

Another Score for Cupid

A pretty wedding occurred in this city yesterday evening at the home of Rev. D. W. Cook, when his daughter, Ethel, became the bride of Mr. Edwin W. Hight, W. N. Coffee of Portland, officiating, the ceremony being witnessed by friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride graduated from the Seattle Seminary in 1907, and has taught in that institution since that time. The groom graduated from the same school June 8 of this year. Mr. and Mrs. Hight are both members of the student volunteer movement for foreign missions. They will make their home for the present at Montavilla, but may later enter the foreign missionary field. Rev. Cook, father of the bride, is pastor of the local Free Methodist church.

Roselair Case Before the Supreme Court

The case of John D. Roselair who was convicted in the circuit court at Hillsboro of brutally murdering his wife at their lonely mountain home in the timber above Buxtoh in May, 1909, was up before the supreme court Tuesday. Roselair was convicted of murder in the first degree by the trial jury, and sentenced to be hung, but his attorneys appealed the case, and base their plea on the score that Roselair was insane, and therefore not responsible for the deed.

After murdering his wife the man went to Hillsboro and confessed to Sheriff Hancock. For a time there were threats of lynching made by the aroused and indignant citizens, cooler counsel prevailed, and Roselair was given a fair trial.

LAURELWOOD NOTES

Crops are looking well and haying has commenced.

A small tie mill has lately been established in the upper part of the valley.

Some of the neighbors are brightening up their buildings with new coats of paint. Others would do well to follow suit.

Mr. Rippey of Malaga, Wash., has purchased fifteen acres of this beautiful valley, intending to establish a permanent home.

Mr. Bidgood of Dallas, spent Sunday with friends in the valley and was well pleased with the looks of this small corner of the world.

NEWSY GASTON ITEMS

Calvin Thomas is starting his two machines this week in the baling business.

Thos. Sain and D. Fish and others from the valley were transacting business here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Story attended the funeral services of Mrs. Ehrmler who passed away last Sunday at Cornelius.

The Christian Endeavor society will hold a social and business meeting next Saturday evening, July 2, at the E. X. Harding residence.

E. A. Underwood from Yamhill, has bought property in Gaston and expects to make his home here. Mr. Underwood has a splendid patronage in his barber shop.

The ball game between Gaston and Wapato teams Sunday was well attended, the Wapato team being the winners. Next Sunday Gaston will be arrayed against itself, young men playing against the married men.

ROY HAPPENINGS

Floyd Brown of Hillsboro was a guest of Royites Sunday.

John Woods was transacting business in Hillsboro Monday.

The lumber is being placed on the ground for the new church.

Jack Roy of Hillsboro is spending the week with his brother Louis.

Quite a number attended the S. S. convention at the Grove this week.

M. King and wife were business visitors in Portland the middle of the week.

Miss Elsie Dennis, of Gaston, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Ryals, this week.

Mont Griffin and Martin Rainwater expect to leave Monday for Curry county.

Mrs. W. W. Ryals spent the fore-part of the week at her home in Scoggins valley.

Mrs. Woods and daughters, Margaret and Minerva, attended services at Mountindale Sunday.

Mrs. Giggear, our efficient teacher returned from Portland Saturday last after an extended visit with relatives and friends.