

Live Items of Local Interest

Compiled by the Hustling, Bustling, Rustling
Local Reporters of the Press

Herb Smith of the Hillside neighborhood, drove in behind his prancing sorrels Saturday.

Miss Eva Fletcher has gone to Vale, Oregon, where she will visit with friends for some time.

Ed Martin of Timber, Oregon, visited with his parents Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Martin, the past week.

Teamsters passed through town with a 40-foot smoke stack and boiler for Mr. McCann's sawmill near Gales City, Friday.

Attorney L. L. Langley and wife came out from Portland Saturday and went out to the Langley camp on Gales Creek for an over the Fourth visit.

Miss Mabel Drorbaugh was Goddess of Liberty for the three days' celebration held at Ranier. Miss Drorbaugh is the grand daughter of Mrs. Fanny Friday of Banks.

Contractor Lee Sparks has two of the dwelling houses he is erecting for Banker Sholes at Cornelius, nearly ready for occupancy, and work is progressing rapidly on the third building.

Clay Dooley, one of the well-known ball players of Banks, who was signed to play in the Washington state league, was injured early in the season and compelled to give up league ball for this year. He will probably play on the local team later on.

Kenneth and Ruth Holloway came in from Gales Creek to spend the Fourth.

Lou Lawrence and wife of Portland, spent Friday and Saturday with relatives in this city.

Will Thornburg, a prosperous farmer of the Banks section, was a business visitor to the city Friday.

Mrs. Frank Miller and little daughter of Klamath, Washington, were guests the past week of Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. Arthur Shearer, in this city.

Mrs. J. F. Thomson and little daughter Marjorie, of San Jose, Cal., are guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Martin, in this city.

Ed Leach, deputy game warden of Tillamook, and Mr. Lucy, connected with the police force of the same town, were Forest Grove visitors the latter part of last week.

Herman Cook, logging on Deep River, Washington, paid this office a pleasant call Saturday. He reports the camps in that vicinity as running full blast, and all lines of business active.

Mrs. N. J. Walker has left this city for an extended visit with her son, Wilson Brock, at Milton, Oregon. Mrs. Walker has not fully recovered from the fatigue incident to the care of her late husband, Newton J. Walker, during his long illness, and feels the need of a change.

Alfred Wheelock, an attorney of Portland, was a caller at the home of his aunt, Mrs. S. J. Sparks in this city, last Saturday.

Attorney John Henry Stevenson and wife of Portland, celebrated the Fourth at Cornelius with John's father, State Game Warden Stevenson.

A Mr. McGrear, a wealthy sheep raiser of Eastern Oregon, has moved to this city with his family, and will erect an expensive dwelling on the Stokes addition east of the campus.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Voss and Pigeon St. Clair of Portland, came out Saturday for an over the Fourth visit with Mrs. Voss' parents Mr. and Mrs. Almorán Porter, living on Pacific avenue.

The Misses Amie and Alma Hollingworth of Portland, were callers at the home of Charles A. Littler in this city, last Friday. The former has been engaged to teach in our public schools the coming year.

R. N. Varley, who at one time conducted the farmers' feed shed in this city, afterwards moving to a farm at Varley, on the Oregon Electric railway, and now living at Buxton, was in town Friday. Mr. Varley will move to Forest Grove in case his wife, who is in feeble health, recovers.

"Uncle" Eli Smith, who wore the blue, and is now farming in the Glenwood neighborhood, passed through this city Friday on his way to the soldiers' encampment at Cornelius. Mr. Smith reports the grain in his section as growing rapidly and states that his field of oats is shoulder high and heading out.

Banker Begg and wife of Beaverton, were Monday callers in this city.

"Curley" Fields, a former Forest Grove boy, now of anywhere, was in the city Tuesday.

J. F. Woods, one-time newspaper man of this city, but now doing business in Portland, called on Forest Grove friends Monday.

S. Levy of Portland, who formerly conducted a butcher shop in this city, together with his wife and daughter, was a visitor to the Grove Monday.

DeWitt Perry who has been with a surveying party in the Wilson river country for some time, spent Sunday in town under the parental roof-tree.

Chester Johnson of Portland, spent the week end with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Carstens of above Banks, were shopping in Forest Grove Saturday.

Hon. Ira Purdin now living in Portland, but formerly on a large farm near Thatcher, spent the week end in this city.

Attorney W. B. Shively and wife of Portland, visited over the Fourth with Mrs. Shively's parent's, Mayor M. Peterson and wife.

If you get a vacation you will need a suit-case, summer hat, a khaki or some other suit and comfortable underwear and you will find them all at Anderson's.

The Success Crude Oil Burner

for cooking and heating

Saves from 50% to 75%
in cost of fuel

Free Demonstration

Pacific Avenue
Next Door to Press Office

Clark & Griffith, Agents

MILLER

THE CUT RATE

DRUGGIST

Buys A Heap — Sells Cheap

Keeps Forever At It