

Additional Local Items of General Interest

Miller, the druggist, prices cut. 36-2t

Ed. Seymour was a visitor to the Rose City Friday.

Hinman has the best tents in the city. You want to look them over before you buy. tf

Henry Smith, a farmer lad of the Mountindale section, was a Grove visitor Saturday.

Horses sent for and delivered to any part of the City. Ind. Phone No. 322. Harris & Markham. tf

Earnest Reuter and Bill David, of the David's Hill section, were business callers in town Saturday.

Joe Wirtz, a Forest Grove boy many years ago, was out from Portland Saturday to visit his brothers in this city and look over old scenes.

Invitations are out to the marriage of Miss Bertha Leabo to Glenn W. Morley, which will take place at the home of Miss Leabo Wednesday, July 27.

Wm. M. Harris, who lives three miles west of town, sold his thirty acre farm to Samuel Taylor of Washington. Mr. Harris contemplates a trip into the Coos Bay country, where he may settle.

A. C. Allen, former Pacific University student and orator, and a this year's graduate of the law department of the University of Washington, called on Forest Grove friends Saturday. A. C. is making his headquarters in Seattle at present.

Remember Summer Underwear, all kinds at Anderson's.

C. F. Miller was in Hillsboro on business Friday.

Capt. Geo. Auld, who is now in business at Portland, was a Grove visitor Monday.

Dan Deaville and wife of Cornelius left Saturday for Newport for a few days outing at the beach.

You should try a glass of that delicious soda, all flavors, at Shearer's. It will quench your thirst. tf

Will Timmerman, a prominent farmer of the Gales creek section, was down from his Mountain home Saturday, shaking hands with friends and transacting business.

Mrs. Chas. Hines and son, Willis, returned Saturday from a several weeks visit with Mrs. Hines' parents at Jacksonville.

Chas. R. Macy returned Saturday from a trip into Coos County, and he says that Washington county is the best ever.

Jeff Hayden, formerly in the butcher business in this city, now ranching in the Glenwood section, was a business caller in town Monday.

"Uncle" John Baldwin returned Sunday from a week's visit in Portland. Mrs. Baldwin has been visiting friends in the Rose City for some time, and will remain some weeks longer.

H. C. McCoy, this year graduate of Pacific University, and working with the United Railways surveying crew at Wilson, is reported to have injured his leg and gone to his home in Portland to recuperate.

Anderson's is headquarters for men's vacation outfits.

H. Herrington, of Centerville, was a business visitor to this city Saturday.

Kodaks to sell or rent at the Forest Grove Pharmacy.

Miss Nena King spent Sunday at the home of her uncle, H. Forney, near Hillsboro.

Good clean oat hay, also oat and wheat hay for sale. J. T. Haynie Phone, Ind. 10-x. 36-2t

Miss Elsie Scott has returned from several days visit with friends at McMinnville.

Miss Anna Dean, book keeper of the First National, will leave the bank soon for a vacation of several weeks.

Earl Schultz, of Albany, is visiting his cousins, the Schultz boys, in this city. Earl will remain several weeks.

Miss Cora Davidson, Ed. and Lou Davidson, and the wife of the latter, all of Grants Pass, are visiting at the home of their mother, Mrs. Prosper La Frene, living on Fifth street, in this city.

A farm house owned by Schultz and Verhoven of this city, in Yamhill county, and occupied by Jesse West, formerly in the shoe repairing business next door to the PRESS office, was burned Saturday, Mr. West losing all his household goods.

W. F. Johnson, formerly in the post office at Glencoe, has been named by T. J. Monahan, newly appointed post master at St. Johns, Oregon, as his assistant. Mr. Johnson formerly lived at St. Johns, and had been connected with the Glencoe office 18 months.

Arsenate of Lead at the Forest Grove Pharmacy.

Con McNamer and Will Bellinger visited the County Seat Friday.

All work done in Dr. Booth's Optical Parlors guaranteed. With Booth Jewelry Co. tf

L. Y. Moffett, prominent farmer of Gaston, was a business visitor to this city Saturday.

Grant Hughes and wife, and C. O. Roe and wife, made an auto trip to Upper Nehalem Sunday.

Mrs. Butler, of Hillsboro, visited at the W. H. McEldowney home in Forest Grove Thursday and Friday.

Geo. Schoch, scientific farmer of above the Watt's section, was shaking hands with friends in the Grove Friday.

Hugh W. Sparks, cartoonist and chalk-talker, accompanied by Edgar Meresse, a local newspaper man, attended the Gladstone Chautauqua Saturday, going down to see Ross Crane, the cartoonist, who was on the boards that evening.

Clement Scott, a business man of VanCouver, Washington, was calling on the publisher of the PBESS Saturday, they having been old friends in New York. Mr. Scott is a native of Scotland, and has traveled in all parts of the civilized world.

NOTICE — The undersigned will pay $20 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any party or parties committing a misdemeanor or destroying property at the City Park. Such information will be treated as confidential.

J. N. Hoffman. tf

The white owl on the side of Hoffman & Allen's store, with its background of red, looms up like six bits on a foggy morning.

NEWSY GASTON ITEMS

Baleing and thrashing is on in full force up this way and bumper crops are being put away for winter.

A. Porter and family went to Cornelius four days last week visiting with Mr. Porter's brother, W. A. Bates. They made the trip in their Maxwell Car.

Chas. Hall has shipped his last box of cherries for this season. He reports an extra good crop this year, which, by the way, is exceptional for some districts.

WEEKLY NEWS OF WATTS

(Crowded out last week.)

George Trageser left last week for the harvest fields of eastern Washington.

The approach to the Gales creek bridge, which was washed out last week, has been repaired.

J. O. McCale and wife were called to Portland recently by the serious illness of the former's mother.

Mr. Buxton and wife entertained Rev. Frank, the evangelist, who conducted services at the Watts church Sunday.

Mr. Taylor of Cle Elum, Wash. has purchased the W. M. Harris farm. Mr. Harris' family have lived here but a few years, coming from Eastern Oregon and while we regret their moving away, we extend a welcome to the new neighbors.

MILLER
THE CUT RATE
DRUGGIST

Buys A Heap — Sells Cheap

Keeps Forever At It