

Live Items of Local Interest

Compiled by the Hustling, Bustling, Rustling

Local Reporters of the Press

Miss Dean was in Portland Sunday.

Go to Andersons for the mid-summer suit of clothes.

Miss Grace Dickison spent Sunday in Portland visiting friends.

Frank Smith, of Portland, visited Miss Anna Cornelius over Sunday.

R. M. Stevens, of Blackrock, Washington, is spending a few days in town.

Victor Cropp, of the Verboort section, was a business visitor to this city Saturday.

Hinman has the best tents in the city. You want to look them over before you buy. tf

C. O. Roe and wife, visited with C. N. Johnson and family, at Spring Hill farm Sunday.

Philip Kinzer and wife, and Wilber McEldowney and wife, spent the week-end at Newport.

FOR SALE—Jersey cow, giving four gallons milk per day. S. A. Moulton, Forest Grove. 33-2t

Mrs. L. C. Walker, Miss Elda Walker and Mrs. J. F. Griswold, are now located in a cottage on Pine Avenue, Seaside, for the summer season.

Charles Smith, the painter, who was raised in this city, came out from Portland, accompanied by his family, Friday, for a short visit with relatives in the Grove. Charley is getting tired of Portland and may locate at Banks or Buxton.

A. G. Hoffman was doing business in Portland Friday.

A. B. Caples is assisting Harry Giltner in the store this week.

George NeGee, brother of Mrs. J. T. Shannon Sundayed, in Portland.

Miss Julia Stroeder, of Portland visited with Miss Grace Dickison Monday evening.

Miss Kathrine Shannon spent Sunday in Hillsboro, with her sister, Mrs. E. B. Tongue.

Bill Baker, ranching in the Kansas City neighborhood, was a Grove visitor Saturday.

All work done in Dr. Booth's Optical Parlors guaranteed. With Booth Jewelry Co. tf

Horses sent for and delivered to any part of the City. Ind Phone No. 322. Harris & Markham. tf

N. L. Atkins came out Saturday night and went to the Cronin ranch on Scoggin creek for a few days outing.

Sumner Bryant, of Clatskine, spent Sunday in Portland, on his way to Sheridan where he will work with a surveying party.

Sam Lawrence, this year's graduate of the Washington University law school, and an alumnus of Pacific University, went to Portland Tuesday, where he will probably make arrangements to enter into partnership with some lawyer already established in the legal profession.

You should try a glass of that delicious soda, all flavors, at Shearer's. It will quench your thirst. tf

Dick Raycraft and wife, formerly of this city, now living at Hillsboro, were visitors to the Grove Sunday.

Benonia Wells, of Merna, Nebraska, was in town Friday, visiting the families of A. G. Hoffman and M. S. Allen.

Col. S. C. Spencer, of Portland, who is spending the week at his farm near Gaston, drove into town Friday in his auto.

Miss Laura Luce, who is spending the summer on a farm near Sholls, visited at her mother's home in this city Sunday.

Mrs. Dr. Higgs and daughter, Lillian, and Ethel Repass, of Portland, visited over Sunday with the family of A. G. Hoffman.

Mrs. R. W. Lancefield, formerly of this city, but now living on their Yamhill county farm, spent several days the past week at Seaside.

Ben Dooley, of Banks, a mighty hunter of big game when that thriving town was yet wild, was a business visitor to the Grove Saturday.

Mrs. John Wilson Macrum will entertain the Fluere-de-Lis Club and gentlemen friends this evening, at the home of her mother, Mrs. L. Watt.

State Game Warden Robert O. Stevenson and daughter, Miss Stevenson, were visitors at the Langley Camp on Rhoderick creek Sunday. We do not understand that Warden "Bob" was making the visit in his official capacity, as Judge Langley has been killing nothing but time.

Miss Margaret Hinman went to Portland Saturday to visit for several days with relatives and friends.

John Wilson Macrum and wife, went to Amity on Thursday of last week, to visit with Mrs. Macrum's brother, and thence to Newport where they spent the week-end with Mrs. Willis Goff.

Dr. Tucker and family, M. S. Allen and family, Wm. Westen and family, Mr. Kolpitz and family, and Mrs. Wright and daughter, made up a jolly crowd of picnickers on Gales creek Sunday.

Mrs. Jesse R. Caples, of Portland, daughter of A. B. Thomas and wife of this city, with her son and daughter, is occupying a cottage at Seaside during the summer months. Jesse goes up from Portland each week-end and spends Sunday with them.

WANTED—Position as book-keeper by a young man of excellent ability and reputation. References given. Address, Book-keeper, Box 137, Forest Grove.

Fire Chief Joe Lenneville went to Portland last week and purchased a new nozzle for the fire hose. The new nozzle is flexible, and can be bent in any direction or shape. When a fire laddie is in close quarters when fighting a blaze, he can bend the nozzle and direct the stream where he listeth.

Joe and Robert Knox, young sons of J. Knox, living at the northwest edge of town, each suffered an accident to the foot during the past week; Joe stepping on a piece of glass, which almost severed one of his toes, and Robert getting a toe tangled in the spokes of a bicycle wheel, which tore the member badly.

THROUGH TICKETS EAST

ON SALE DAILY VIA

OREGON ELECTRIC RAIL'Y

AND CHOICE OF ROUTE
BEYOND PORTLAND

Low Round-Trip Excursion Fares

to
St. Paul
St. Louis
Chicago
Denver
Boston
New York
And Other Eastern Points

On Sale ----- August 3rd., 1910

For rates, sleeper reservations, and full information address

A. L. Ruff, A. G. F. & P. A.
Oregon Electric Railway
Portland, Ore.

J. E. Farmer, Agent
Ore. Elec. Ry.
Forest Grove, Ore.

MILLER

THE CUT RATE

DRUGGIST

Buys A Heap — Sells Cheap

Keeps Forever At It