

Live Items of Local Interest

Compiled by the Hustling, Bustling, Rustling
Local Reporters of the Press

A new arrival in trousers at Anderson's.

Mrs. Gerald Volk was a Portland visitor Friday.

Geo. Ringle of Hillsboro was visiting his parents in this city Saturday.

Henry Bamford, of Hillside, was a business visitor to the Grove Saturday.

Dick Halscher, a grape raiser of the Watts section was doing business in town Friday.

All work done in Dr. Booth's Optical Parlors guaranteed. With Booth Jewelry Co. tf

John Bernards, a farmer of the Verboort section, was a business visitor in town yesterday.

FOR SALE—Jersey cow, giving four gallons milk per day, S.A. Moulton, Forest Grove. 38-2t

Earnest Keuter, the vinarist of David's Hill section, was a business visitor in town Friday.

Scoggs, the Cornelius jeweler, formerly doing business in this city, was a business visitor Monday.

You should try a glass of that delicious soda, all flavors, at Shearer's. It will quench your thirst. tf

Alec Fipps, a pioneer farmer of the Banks neighborhood, was in the City Saturday, transacting business.

Bob Weathered, of Hillsboro, former Pacific University student, was up from the county seat, Monday.

School Director Maury of Dilley was up Saturday, shaking hands and discussing crop prospects with his friends.

George Reynolds of Cornelius was doing the town Sunday, and Guy Morley was visiting friends the self same day.

Miss Kathryn Shannon and her uncle, Geo. NeGee, have returned from a pleasant outing in the Nehalem country.

Lee Sparks, the contractor, made a business trip to McMinnville Friday, going up for a supply of finishing lumber.

Harry Bradley, ranching in the Banks section, and an old schoolmate of the PRESS man, was a business visitor in town on Saturday.

Henry Haney, the teamster, has been limping around the past week, the cause of the impediment to his walk being reumatiz in the ankle.

Mr. E. Beagle of Centerville, was in town Saturday.

O. M. Gardner was doing business in the metropolis, Friday.

Mrs. H. Patmore spent the week-end with friends in the Rose city.

C. E. Morrison was registered at Locksley hall, Seaside, the past week.

Mrs. Austin Buxton of the Watts neighborhood was shopping in town Monday.

Hinman has the best tents in the city. You want to look them over before you buy. tf

Mrs. Eff. Schefflin, of Centerville, was in town Saturday making the rounds of the stores.

Mrs. E. E. Williams went to Newport Monday and will spend two weeks by the sounding sea.

D. D. Sage, a prosperous farmer of the Oakhill section, was a business visitor in town Friday.

Rev. Hiram Gould, pastor of the local Methodist Church, was a week-end visitor to the Rose City.

Horses sent for and delivered to any part of the City. Ind Phone No. 322. Harris & Markham. tf

Miss Cora Davidson went to Portland Saturday and visited until Monday with friends in the Rose city.

Hon. B. F. Purdy, a prominent farmer of Patton valley, was in town Saturday, shaking hands with his many Grove friends.

Col. and Mrs. McNutt, of Cornelius, drove up to the Grove in the cool of the evening Saturday and made short calls on friends.

S. L. Hollinger, former councilman of this city, now living at Cornelius, was up to hear Stewart, the prohi orator, Friday evening.

Mrs. W. H. Hollis, Mrs. H. J. Goff and son, and William Watts, were registered from the Grove at the Irwin house, Newport, the past week.

Emmett Hover, now living at Dilley, but a school-mate of the PRESS man at Banks in the old days, was transacting business in town Saturday.

The Oregonian, in last Sunday's edition, gave a write-up of the schools and colleges of the West, and classes Pacific University as one of the foremost institutions of learning in the United States.

W. K. Newell, farmer and orchardist of the Dilley section and president of the State Horticulture board, was attending to business matters in the Grove Tuesday.

Claud Smith has returned to the city after several days spent at McNamer's camp on the Wilson river, helping to get things in condition to meet the summer travel to the coast.

Lloyd Moore, employed by the Forest Grove planing mill company, injured his left hand quite badly last Thursday while in the performance of his duties, and has been unable to work since.

We still have left a number of high priced hats, also some of medium price, which we are closing out at less than cost for the next three weeks. Miss Kirkwood's Millinery Parlors. 39-2t.

C. Huntington employed by the United Railway in surveying on their Tillamook line, was confined to his rooms in this city for two days, the fore part of the week, but has recovered from his illness.

Glen Giltner finished his four years in the U. S. Navy, Sunday, and will likely be home in a few days. Glen has been on the battleship Nebraska and was with the fleet in its trip around the world.

John Vanderzanden, a prosperous farmer of Verboort, whose boys were schoolmates of the PRESS man at Banks, when that thriving little city consisted of one dwelling house, was a Friday visitor to the Grove.

Holbrook Lodge No. 30, A. F. and A. M. Stated Communication this Saturday evening, Aug. 6, at 8 p. m. sharp. Regular business and work in the E. A. degree. Visiting brethren welcome. EDWIN ALLEN, W. M. A. BEN KORI, Secretary.

Miss Anna Johnson, of Forest Grove and Springhill farm, is spending part of the season with her grandmother, Mrs. M. C. Bowles, of Portland, at Seaside. They are occupying the Bowles cottage, the Virginia.

Prof. Mary Farnham, of Pacific University, was registered the past week at Cloud Cap Inn, on the Mt. Hood road. This resort is becoming a favorite place for vacationists to spend a few days during the hot season.

Oliver Corl has sold his bicycle repairing business to his father L.R. Corl, and will devote his time hereafter to the automobile business. Mr. Corl, Senior, will conduct the bicycle business at the old stand on Pacific Avenue.

F. H. Hartley and family returned to this city Friday, after two months visit in Oakland, Cal. John is well pleased with the orange-growing state, but says the weather was most too hot, especially in the interior. The Hartley's returned by way of the Coos Bay country.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Matthews, of Oakwood, Oklahoma, are visiting at the home of W. J. Good in this city, being cousins of the Goods. Mr. Matthews is assistant cashier in a bank in his home town. This is their first visit to Forest Grove, and they express themselves as being well pleased with the city.

Uncle John Baldwin, drummer boy with Sherman on his march to the sea, last week raised, with the assistance of several friends, a forty foot flag pole on his property in South Park. After the flag pole was firmly imbedded in the ground, Uncle John ran a handsome flag to the top, and as the folds of old glory fluttered to the breeze, the old patriot shouted what a neighbor interpreted as "Oregon dry, 1910!"

Miss Minnie Buxton of Portland was the guest of her sister Mrs. George O. Sloan at her pretty home west of town, last week.

NEWSY GASTON ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Moshier are camping at Newport for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Everest are camping on the upper Tualatin this week.

Rev. N. W. Phelps preached to an appreciative audience Sunday evening in the Evangelical Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan are camping on the Tualatin while Mr. Morgan attends to the quarry on Mr. Purdy's ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Orr are camping at the Quarrie during the running season. The Crusher expects to wind up its work shortly.

Miss Maudie Thomas gave a birthday party this week to her young friends it being the occasion of her sixth birthday.

Chas. Adkins of Galescreek and J. H. Wescott are expecting to leave for Trask country some time this week on an extended cougar hunt.

A number of the young people gave a pleasant surprise party to the Misses Scott and Duffy and three of their Portland friends Friday the last. Refreshments and games consumed the all too short hours. A very enjoyable evening was the verdict of all.

The Accented Syllable

When many fiction writers try
Their thoughts to give us hot,
We get e-rot-ic novels, with
The accent on the rot.
—Lippincotts.

When some hair-dressers seek to give
Us hair to fit the hat,
We get er-rat-it coiffures, with
The accent on the rat.
—Boston Traveler.

And when the fisher leaves the pool
And gladly home does hie,
We get some li-kely stories, with
The accent on the lie.
—Topeka Capital.

Methought, when fair Salome took
The bald-head row by storm,
Her dance was quite in-form-al, with
The accent on the form.
—Birmingham Age-Herald.

And when a needy friend drops in—
A busted pal or such—
He tells a touch-ing story, with
The accent on the touch.
—Nashville Tennessean.

We print these little verses from
Full many a poet's quill,
And feel quite phil-an-thro-pic, with
The accent on the fill.
—New York Mail.

We came in later than you did
And got more. We feel great!
In fact we feel e-lat-ed, with
The accent on the late.
—Houston, Texas, Post.

We, too, are late to enter
But we thought it would be well
To add our little heliogram
With the accent on the—O. M.L.

The PRESS wants correspondents.

If you can write for publication, get in touch with this office. We have an offer which will positively prove interesting. Drop a postal or call in person.

What Will YOU Do At 50?

Have you ever thought what will become of you when your earning capacity is waning? At 50 will you still be working for a low wage or enjoying a good income?

That depends upon what you are doing NOW to secure the training that will steadily advance you in position and salary during the coming years. Only training will put you in the income class.

To learn how you can receive this training without giving up your present occupation, let the International Correspondence Schools advise you. All you have to do is to mark the coupon as directed and mail it today. There is no charge for this advice. No matter who you are or what your present occupation is, the I. C. S. has a way of helping you. It is an institution of experts—experts in helping poorly paid men succeed. Only your spare time in your own home is required. You do not lose an hour of work or a dollar of pay. This coupon is the greatest opportunity in the world for you to secure a happy, prosperous, and successful life, for it is an opportunity offered by an institution backed with a capital of six million dollars, whose sole business for 17 years has been to provide ambitious men and women with salary raising training.

Don't neglect practical opportunities for promotion. Mark and mail the coupon NOW.

INTERNATIONAL CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOLS

Please explain, without further obligation on my part, how I can qualify for a larger salary and advancement to the position before which I have marked X.

Ad Writer	Architectural Drafts.
Show-Card Writer	Structural Engineer
Window Trimmer	Structural Draftsman
Civil Service Exams.	Contractor & Builder
Ornamental Designer	Foreman Plumber
Mechanical Engineer	Civil Engineer
Mechanical Draftsman	R. R. Construct. Eng.
Foreman Machinist	Banking Expert
Electrical Engineer	Mining Engineer
Electrician	Chemist
Tower-Station Supt.	Bookkeeper
Architect	Stenographer

Name _____
St. & No. _____
City _____ State _____

THROUGH TICKETS EAST

ON SALE DAILY VIA

OREGON ELECTRIC RAIL'Y

AND CHOICE OF ROUTE
BEYOND PORTLAND

Low Round-Trip Excursion Fares

to
St. Paul
St. Louis
Chicago
to Denver
Boston
New York

And Other Eastern Points

On Sale - Sept. 8 and 22, 1910

For rates, sleeper reservations, and full information address

A. L. Ruff, A. G. F. & P. A.
Oregon Electric Railway
Portland, Ore.

J. E. Farmer, Agent
Ore. Elec. Ry.
Forest Grove, Ore.

H. DEVITT
207 MARQUAM BUILDING
PORTLAND, OREGON