"Windy Jim" Discourses

"It was gittin' teu be 'bout fly time out at Forest Grove," said "Windy Jim" as he slapped one of these pesky critters which had the nerve to alight on his hand. "An' I was workin' on a dairy ranch a milkin' cows." "The flies was a gittin' purty numerous everywhere."

"The hired gurl was purty fly an' the boss was beginin' teu get fly an' a lot of fellers camped along the creek was about the flyest bunch I ever struck an' you bet I struck some of em' purty hard 'till won feller laid me out with a fish pole."

"There was green flies, an' horse flies, an' house flies, an' cattle flies, an' my how the time flies its most supper time already." "Well the boss got some dope an' ketched a lot of flies; it was sticky stuff an' when we went fishin' we fished with flies, they was all sticky with the dope so we stuck 'em on teu the hooks an' when the fish bit they just closed on them hooks an' thar they were stuck plum fast, only none of 'em bit so we didn't ketch any fish." "But the muskeetos bit alright an' so did the flies which was so blamed thick that the sun couldn't shine through em."

"Well, the boss an' me we got teu shooin' the flies off of won of the neighbors calves till the flies got so thick an' big that we couldn't tell which was the calf an' shoood it away by mistake." "When it landed up in our field it was in such a condition that it had teu be made into veal an' sold teu the butcher shop." "I got six dollers outen it an' the boss got three years board an' logein' which I didn't consider a fair division so I quit the job an' aint gone back yit."

Announcement of Geo. G. Hancock

To the voters of Washington County, Oregon: I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Washington County, subject to the endorsement of the primary election, to be held on September 24th, 1910.

If I am nominated and elected I will during my term of office, faithfully and impartially discharge the duties thereof, and give to the people of this county an efficient and at the same time an economical administration.

I further state that I will give the business of that office my personal attention, with courtesy and fair treatment to all.

GEO. G. HANCOCK.
