

ALL AROUND THE TOWN

Bring your eggs to Schultz and get 27¢ the dozen. tf

J. W. H. Adkins, of the Glenwood section, was doing business in the Grove Monday.

If you want to know the styles in mens wear for fall and winter ask Anderson THE LEADING CLOTHIER.

Jacob Mauss, a prosperous farmer of the Banks section, was transacting business in the Grove Tuesday.

For scientific shoeing go to Harris & Markham. They guarantee the results. tf

Miss Alma Clark has returned from a months vacation spent with friends at Gearhart, and has been since employed at Prickett's confectionery.

Now is your opportunity to replenish your silver chest. 20% off on all silverware at Arthur Shearer's for the next ten days. 40-2t

J. S. Loynes and family, Jack Davis and Miss Orma Finley left Monday morning for a ten days camping trip in the Wilson river country.

Dr. Knox, formerly a practicing veterinary surgeon of this city, but who has since taken up the study of dentistry in Portland was calling on Grove friends Monday.

After 52 days of continuous sunshine, the next to the longest drouth in the history of the Oregon weather bureau was broken Monday, the rain coming down in torrents for a few minutes.

An unusual number of teams were tied to the hitching chain on Main street, Monday, and a stranger in town might have thought a convention was on the boards that day. Saturday is usually the big day for the farmers in town.

Hinman has the best tents in the city. You want to look them over before you buy. tf

Fred Watrous made a trip to Eugene Friday, going up to adjust a fire loss covered by the Pacific Home Mutual Fire Insurance Company, with headquarters in this city. The matter was amicably settled, and Fred returned home Tuesday.

H. G. King, of this city, who formerly lived at Stronghurst, Illinois, has received a copy of the Stronghurst Graphic, published in his old home town, which had received notice of his nomination by the assembly republicans for county treasurer, and the paper predicts that King will win in a canter.

FOR SALE—40 stands of bees. F. A. Everest, Gaston, Ore. 41-6t

Miss Forbis was in from the Forbis ranch in the Oakhill section, Monday, riding in on horseback.

Mt. Hood Ice Cream at Shearer's. Special prices on quantities for parties, picnics, etc. tf

Frank Fletcher, with the United Railways surveying crew in the Glenwood section, was in the city Monday visiting friends.

Now is the time to purchase that range you want. The best that are made can be had at Hinman's. tf

L. L. Hollinger, former councilman of this city, now living at Cornelius, was looking after business matters in the Grove Monday.

Dr. Semones, Homeopathic Physician and Oculist. Does no surgery. Office at residence. 319 North A street. Ind. Phone 3625. tf

Mrs. E. G. Mills and her father A. H. Needham, with the mother of Mr. Mills, went to Banks Friday to visit with friends in that growing little city.

Frank Fletcher will visit for some weeks with his parents in this city before going to Garfield, Washington where he will be principal of the High school.

FARMERS—Schultz Market, Pacific Ave., Forest Grove, pays highest market price in cash for eggs and produce. Bring them in. 39-4t

Gordon Brown returned to his home in this city Monday, the surveying crew of the United Railways with which he was connected having their work in the Reeher section on the Wilson river completed. Gordon will attend O. A. C. the coming year.

Rev. and Mrs. Philip Bauer of Salem, are visiting this week at the home of Mrs. Bauer's parents, Professor and Mrs. J. N. Garrison, in this city. Rev. and Mrs. Bauer are both graduates of Pacific University, and the former is now pastor of the Congregational church in the capital city.

J. B. Matthews wishes to show you the new "Union" jack; for lifting, setting tires, stretching fence and many other uses. Always handy. tf

A horse belonging to Bob Johnson, and kept by a local livery stable in an inclosure near the city jail, got tangled in the fire bell rope Monday night. The bell gave a clarion call in answer to a tug on the rope, and the fire-laddies were startled from their sleep for an instant, but soon realized it was a false alarm.

Any article of summer millinery at Miss Kirkwood's Millinery Parlors will be sold at a great reduction for the next three weeks. 39-3t

Homer, the young son of J. A. Brown, the livery man, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, is still confined to his home but is reported as improving.

Why burn $4 wood when you can buy a ton of Mendota coal for $7.50, delivered. Little soot and little ash. Keeps an even fire. No splitting, no sawing, equals two cords of wood. Give it a trial Roswurm and Moulton, Forest Grove. tf

Miss Manche Langley entertained a few friends Friday evening at cards, refreshments were served, and the evening was a pleasant occasion for all present. Mrs. Charles Hines won the prize for the highest score at Five Hundred.

Several Forest Grove people were present at the big clam bake held at Newport Sunday. Over five thousand people were fed with the sea delicacies. More than a thousand excursionists went to Newport especially to enjoy the clam bake.

The Misses Kirkwood, Newman, Greer and Swanson, returned Saturday from a delightful camping trip of two weeks in the Wilson river country. Miss Kirkwood left for Portland Monday, where she will spend the balance of August selecting her fall millinery stock.

Henry Wolf, section foreman on the Southern Pacific railway, at Dilley, while removing a building at Beaverton, which he is cutting into sections for the purpose of shipping, had the misfortune to run a nail through his right wrist. The wound is very painful, and Mr. Wolf will be unable to resume his work for some days.

William Pitman, of Hillsboro, foreman in the Palmer and Son's sawmill at Estacada, Oregon, was struck on the head by a chocker block, Monday, which rendered him unconscious. He had just fastened the chain to a log to be pulled by the donkey engine, and when the slack was taken up, the hook became detached and swung around, striking him with great force. He was removed to a Portland hospital.

Resolutions of Condolence

In as much as it has pleased Divine Providence to remove from our midst, by death, our well beloved brother, Orville Tennis, and whereas, the death of brother Tennis came so unexpectedly and without a moments warning, therefore be it

Resolved: that while we mourn with the sisters of brother Tennis, who will miss the assistance and kindly advice of a good and kind brother, that we, as Odd Fellows, likewise miss the presence and assistance of brother Tennis in our midst, and be it further

Resolved: that while we shall as Odd Fellows cherish a fond recollection of brother Orville Tennis' many virtues as an Odd Fellow and a useful citizen, that we shall endeavor to imitate the example of a young man, who was beloved by all who knew him, and be it further

Resolved: that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our lodge and a copy be furnished each of our city news papers for publication and a copy sent to the sisters of our deceased brother.

Committee { E. W. Haines
S. A. Walker
R. M. Taylor

The Corner Store

Abraham's

The Corner Store

Shoes

Groceries Dry Goods

Right Goods - Right Prices
Courteous Service

Cor ner Store Abraham's Corner Store

Call or Telephone Your Orders to

Schultz Market & Grocery

For Fresh, Salt and Smoked Meats,
Fish and Vegetables of All Kinds

An Especially Neat Stock of Monopole Canned
Goods and Groceries

Free Delivery to All Parts of the City

Both Phones Pacific Avenue Forest Grove

Security Lice Killer.

Dr. Robert's Veterinary Remedies.

Wakelee's Squirrel and Gopher Poison.

To trade with us means to save you money

Dr. Hines' Drug Store

HINMAN'S

FOR
TENTS, HAY ROPE and HAYING TOOLS
of the very best

McCormick
HARVESTERS and MOWERS

are second to none and cost
no more than the inferior article. Call and examine them and be convinced of their sterling worth

We Carry A Full Line

Gasolene and Oil Stoves
two and three burner
Safe, Reliable and Odorless

Charter Oak --Ranges-- Real Estate
None better made, and at prices that are reasonable

HINMAN'S HARDWARE STORE

Booth Jewelry Co.

Diamonds; Watches, Solid Gold and Gold Filled
Fobs, Chains, Locketts and Bracelets; Clocks.

Silverware Watch Repairing Rings for the Cut Glass Our Specialty Old & Young

Hand Painted China; Fancy Vases; Novelties and Anything and Everything in Jewelry.

The Big Store
Pacific Avenue Forest Grove, Ore.