MAN ALWAYS GIVING ADVICE

is Effectually Squelched by Tattered Hobo in Most Characteristic Manner.

The man who is always giving advice sauntered up the street and found the tattered hobo sitting on the curb.
 "My good man," began the former, "why are you idling away your time like this? Don't you know the world owes you a living?"
 "That so?" responded the hobo, nonchalantly. "Well, I guess I better call up a collection agency and get dem to collect it for me."
 "But this is serious, my man. You deserve something in this world."
 "Sure, boss, the last judge I ran up against said I deserved six months."
 "Tut! Tut! Don't be facetious. Why, you could rise up in the world and wear broadcloth."
 "Thanks, but I am wearing dat now, boss. Dis suit is so broad it is three sizes too big for me."
 "Well, what in the dickens are you sitting on the curb for, anyway?"
 "To curb my temper, boss. To curb my temper when such smart alecks as you ask foolish questions."

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Taking the Usual Course.
 "I see your next door neighbor is sprinkling his lawn during forbidden hours. Are you going to do anything to stop him?"
 "Yes; I'm going to write an indignant protest and have it printed in one of the papers."

Perversity of Animate Things.
 "What have you got that hole under your back yard fence for?"
 "To let my neighbor's chickens through into my garden."
 "Why, you were complaining the other day about their flying over the fence."
 "That was because I couldn't catch 'em and wring their necks. I made that hole so I could stand over it and swat the blamed hens as they came through."
 "Well, do they come through it?"
 "No!"

Distressing.
 "Yes," said Miss Overton, "I've suffered a great deal from insomnia during the past few weeks."
 "Indeed!" rejoined her friend.
 "Can't you do anything to relieve it?"
 "No," was the reply. "I can't request the girl next door to take her beau in the house instead of keeping him out on the front porch every night."

Currant Borer.
 Look for the currant borer at this time. When the leaves start, affected canes commence to wither and die. Cut out the affected canes below the black center and burn at once.

Locating the Villain.
 "And who will be the principal villain of your production?" asked the friend.
 "Oh, the first-night critic, I suppose," replied the manager, wearily.—Washington Star.

Gentle Protest.
 Barber (on train)—Yes, this is a great road, sir. Let me describe it to you as I work.
 Man in Chair—Er—yes, but don't put the curves in my cheeks with that razor.

It's Size.
 "The theme failed as a book and now it fails as a play. Yet the central idea is good."
 "Quite right. I think you could boll it down into an anecdote and get ten dollars for it."

A Life Position.
 Annette—Ethel is about to accept a lifetime job of 24 hours a day.
 Florence—Indeed!
 Annette—Yes. She is going to marry a man to reform him

At the Resort Grocery.
 "But you are charging just as much for your garden truck as they charge in the city," said the man to the summer resort grocer.
 "Sh," said the grocer, "I know it, but it tickles the city folks to think they're getting it cheaper."

The Mighty Mite.
 "Isn't New York the most densely populated area you have ever seen?"
 "Not by a jump! You ought to see me just after I have been rammaging around in my chicken house."

Enterprise.

PARKER DENOUNCES COOK.

Photographs Believed to Be Those of Smaller Peaks Nearby.

Seward, Alaska — The Parker-Browne Mount McKinley expedition passed through Seward, sailing on the steamship Portland for Seattle. The party was unsuccessful in its efforts to scale the peak. Members of the expedition assert that they have conclusive evidence that Dr. Cook did not reach the summit.

The members of the Parker-Browne party corroborate the statements made by C. E. Rusk, who recently led an unsuccessful expedition, that the peak climbed by Dr. Cook and used in his photographs as Mount McKinley is a smaller peak, easy of access and 10 miles away from the real summit.

Professor Herschel Parker, who is at the head of the expedition that just returned, took photographs of the lower peak. He says these will prove that Dr. Cook's statement that he climbed Mount McKinley are not true.

Professor Parker places no credence in the statement made by Tom Lloyd, of Fairbanks, and his associates that they climbed the mountain from the Fairbanks side.

Those in the party which returned are: Professor Herschel Parker, of Columbia University; Belmore Browne, of Tacoma; Professor J. H. Cuntz, of Stevens Institute, Hoboken, N. J.; Herman L. Tucker, of Newton, Mass.; Waldemar Grassie, of Columbia University, and Merle Leroy, an Alaskan packer.

ACCUSED MEN PROMINENT.

System of Graft Makes Political Crooked Work Look Pale.

Chicago—The first blow in the $5,000,000 Illinois Central graft scandal has fallen, and three officials of the road were landed in jail, although but for a few minutes. It was a full confession from an official of the Blue Island Car & Equipment company, declared to involve not only these, but numerous other of the road's former officials, that finally resulted in the arrests.

The men arrested were: Frank H. Harriman, former general manager of the Illinois Central, released on bond of $40,000; John M. Taylor, former general storekeeper at Burnside, released on bond of $40,000; Charles L. Ewing, former general superintendent of the Illinois Central lines north of the Ohio river.

In each case the prisoner was charged with conspiracy to commit an illegal act and obtaining money by means of a confidence game. In each instance the prisoner stoutly maintained his innocence and declared that if a conspiracy existed it was on the part of the road to prosecute them. The warrants were sworn to by President Harahan, of the railroad concerned.

OFFICIALS HAMPER STATE FOOD FIGHT

Washington—Asserting that he had been hampered in every possible way in his efforts to uphold the laws of his state against the sale of food containing benzoate of soda and announcing that he would appeal to President Taft, Attorney General Bingham, of Indiana, denounced the department of agriculture officials.

The scoring occurred in the hearing held here in connection with the case of Williams Brothers and others against the board of health of Indiana. Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry, and a sworn enemy of benzoate of soda as a food preservative, was under cross-examination at the time.

Scramble for Plates On.

Chicago — Although invitations to the Hamilton club banquet to Theodore Roosevelt on September 8 have been out only 24 hours and plates are quoted at $7.50 each, 400 reservations have been made and the entertainment committee began figuring on larger quarters for the event, as the present quarters accommodate only 575 guests.

It was before the Hamilton club that the "strenuous life" was launched and the "big stick" became a symbol of the Roosevelt policies.

Castro Family is Ousted.

Washington—The entire Castro family, apparently, has been ousted from Venezuela. A dispatch to the State department from the American legation at Caracas states that 36 relatives of ex-President Castro have been expelled from Venezuela and sailed for Porto Rico.

Detroit Census 465,766.
 Washington—The population of Detroit, Mich., is 465,766, an increase of 180,062 or 63 per cent, as compared with 285,704 in 1900.

DRINK DOLE'S
 Pure Hawaiian Pineapple Juice

Drink it Pure The Drink Delightful!

All the bouquet of the ripe pineapple field, all the snappy acid tang, with none of the rude "bite" you are accustomed to in the unripe fruit-store product you have known; all that's good and nothing that's in the least unwholesome; all that's delicious; all that's satisfying—all this is yours in Dole's Pure Hawaiian Pineapple Juice. Non-alcoholic, of course. The Dole process of refining the juice of the Hawaiian Pineapple adds no water, no sugar, absolutely nothing to the pure juice. Serve it cold—the colder the better; cracked ice in the glass is a help. An olive, a saltine, a cheese straw, a Welsh-rabbit emphasizes the flavor. It adds interest to any afternoon or evening entertainment, at home or at the club.

Every bottle of Dole's Pure Hawaiian Pineapple Juice has the signature of  in red ink across the label. At Druggists and Grocers
