

Live Items of Local Interest

Compiled by the Hustling, Bustling, Rustling
Local Reporters of the Press

Phil. Kinzer was in Portland on business Saturday.

FOR SALE—40 stands of bees. F.A. Everest, Gaston, Ore. 41-6t

Charles Dixon of Gaston, was a business visitor in the Grove Tuesday.

For scientific shoeing go to Harris & Markham. They guarantee the results. tf

Sheriff George Hancock was up from Hillsboro on official business Sunday.

Manche Langley, Forest Grove's lady lawyer, was a county seat business visitor Saturday.

Victor Brown, the Wilson river rancher, was a business visitor in the Grove Saturday.

John Ireland, a prosperous farmer of Greenville, was a business visitor in the Grove Saturday.

Sam Todd came home from Newport Monday evening, where he has been for the past three months.

Now is the time to purchase that range you want. The best bargains made can be had at Hinman's. tf

Austin Buxton and C.E. Campbell, farmers of the Watt's district, were attending to business in town Saturday.

J. W. H. Adkins, a rancher and justice of the peace in the Greenwood section, visited the Grove on business matters Saturday.

FALL 1910 OPENING Sept. 16th and 17, the newest ideas in Hats and Millinery goods at Mrs. A. E. Dixons, Main St. Forest Grove. 44-2t.

Miss Eva Fletcher, who has been visiting for several weeks with friends in Vale, Eastern Oregon, has returned to her home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Maury, of near Lewiston, Montana, are visiting the former's parents, F. H. Maury, at Dilley. Claude is foreman on a large Montana ranch.

Miss Katherine Myers spent the early part of the week at the Myers home in this city. Miss Myers expects to leave next week for Los Angeles where she will continue her course in Osteopathy

Discriminating People

BUY THEIR DRY GOODS
HERE

Our Stock Is Complete!

Our Service Is Perfect!

Our Prices Are Right!

Hoffman and Allen Company
The Progressive Store
Forest Grove, Ore.

A new line of women's and children's at Anderson's.

Miss Nellie Hall visited over Sunday with friends in Portland.

Mrs. N. L. Atkins of Portland visited Sunday at the Cronin home.

Hinman has the best tents in the city. You want to look them over before you buy. tf

Miss Margaret Hinman visited with friends in Portland the early part of the week.

Will Bellinger was a Rose City visitor Saturday, going down to witness a game of league ball.

J. D. Mckle, the well-known dairyman of Hillside, was a business visitor to the Grove Saturday.

Sunday Subjects at the Christian church, 11 a. m. "Wanted—A Worker." 7.30 p. m. "A Victory Won."

George James, who formerly lived here and attended Pacific University, was a visitor in the Grove this week.

W. R. Douglas, a farmer of the Gales Creek section, was a business visitor in Forest Grove and Hillsboro Saturday.

John Taylor, who has been conducting a confectionery store at Clatsop beach this summer, has returned to his home in this city.

Dr. Semones, Homeopathic Physician and Oculist. Does no surgery. Office at residence, 319 North A street. Ind. Phone 3625. tf

Fred Lyda, of upper Gales creek, has sold his 120 acre farm to M. F. Heesacker, who has been living on the Ira Purdin farm North of town.

Notice to Farmers—Bring in your chickens, eggs and butter to W. F. Schultz and get cash in exchange. Produce of all kinds wanted. tf

F. N. Butterfield of this city had as guests the fore-part of the week, Charles Newt, wife and daughter, of Eugene. Mrs. Newt is the daughter of Mr. Butterfield.

Charlie Fields, formerly making his home in this city, now farming in the Banks section, was a Grove visitor Sunday. Charley reports a big time at the dance at Banks Saturday night.

Rollie and Charlie Walker and Walter Sears, who have been conducting a dancing pavilion at Newport during the summer will close for the season next week, and return to their homes in this city.

Forest Grove Order of Eastern Star, held the first meeting after summer vacation, Monday evening. After the closing of Chapter, water-melon was served and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed.

Dwinell Clapp who has been in Eastern Oregon the past Summer, in the interests of a book publishing concern, was visiting friends in this city the past week. He will re-enter Pacific University this Fall.

Why burn $4 wood when you can buy a ton of Mendota coal for $7.50, delivered. Little soot and little ash. Keeps an even fire. No splitting, no sawing, equals two cords of wood. Give it a trial Roswurm and Moulton, Forest Grove. tf

A new line of women's skirts at Anderson's.

Don Giltner and family are spending a two weeks vacation out at the Porter hop yard, living in a tent and picking hops for recreation.

Miss Manche Langley has been appointed Acting Secretary of Forest Chapter, O. E. S., to take the place of Mrs. Richardson who has left the city.

J. B. Matthews wishes to show you the new "Union" jack; for lifting, setting tires, stretching fence and many other uses. Always handy. tf

O. Wray Humphrey has as a guest this week, his aunt, Mrs. Mathews, of Portland. William Mathews, her son, visited with the Humphreys over Sunday.

Rev. Daniel Staver, formerly pastor of the Congregational church in this city, now living the simple life on a farm in the Gales Creek section, was a caller in the Grove Saturday.

Monday's Oregonian printed first page pictures of three of Oregon's delegates to the conservation congress that meets at St. Paul, among them being Homer C. Atwell, of this city.

Judge J. W. Goodin was a Grove visitor Monday and paid the PRESS office a pleasant call. The Judge will be a candidate for re-election and his announcement will be found elsewhere in this paper.

Robert Wirtz, deputy game warden, of this city, owns a chinese pheasant hen which has hatched a brood of nine chicks. It is very unusual for a bird of this breed to set in captivity, and the cases of its occurrence are rare.

Call at Hotel Laughlin Thursday, Sept. 15, and have Dr. Lowe show you the new Fused Tonic Bifocals with which you can see all distances. Also the latest eye glass that will fit most any nose and will not cause cancer.

Dutch Ledford, who drives the McNamer stage on the Tillamook route, took a lay off Saturday, and Claud Smith handled the ribbons for him. Claud would rather drive the Wilson river stage than on any other route. He enjoys the beautiful scenery, probably.

W. F. Schultz, who has the A. Hinman farm on the east edge of town rented, thrashed a field of spring wheat which ran forty-eight bushels to the acre, machine measure. This is an exceptionally good yield, and proves the fertility of the soil of this locality.

Labor Day was observed by the workers in this city last Monday in various ways. Several knocked off work and went to Portland to attend the big doings of the labor organizations in that city, which consisted of parades and speeches, etc. A number of stores closed for part of the day, while the proprietors of others stood behind the counters and sold goods to their customers with little thought of its being a legal holiday. Most of the clerks, however, got a half-day off.

FINAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that M. E. Dilley, the Administrator of the estate of W. P. Via, has filed his final report and Monday, October 10th, 1910 at 10 o'clock a. m. has been set for the hearing of any objections to said report, after which date, if no objections appear, said estate will be closed of record. M. E. Dilley Administrator of the estate of W. P. Via, deceased.

Manche Langley, Att'y for estate. 44-5t.

Abraham's

4th. Annual Sale 4th.
Sample Underwear & Sweaters

WE HAVE something exceedingly good to offer you at this sale. The goods were bought at two-thirds of regular price and will be sold at the same rate. 250 garments, no two alike. All grades are represented.

every one of them a genuine bargain and they are worthy of your consideration. Be sure to see them before buying your winter underwear. The sale begins

Thursday morning
the 15th of Sept. at

Corner Store Abraham's Corner Store

Call or Telephone Your Orders to

Schultz Market & Grocery

For Fresh, Salt and Smoked Meats,
Fish and Vegetables of All Kinds

An Especially Neat Stock of Monopole Canned
Goods and Groceries

Free Delivery to All Parts of the City

Both Phones Pacific Avenue Forest Grove

The best stock of

Perfumes, Talcum Powder
and Toilet Creams in Town

Kodaks and Camera Supplies

Prices Right

Dr. Hines' Drug Store

HINMAN'S

FOR
TENTS, HAY ROPE and HAYING TOOLS
of the very best

McCormick HARVESTERS and MOWERS

are second to none and cost
no more than the inferior article. Call and examine them and be convinced of their sterling worth

We Carry A Full Line

Gasolene and Oil Stoves
two and three burner
Safe, Reliable and Odorless

Charter Oak --Ranges-- Real Estate

None better made, and at prices that are reasonable

HINMAN'S HARDWARE STORE