Hunters Play Joke

A good joke was played upon Roy Watkins on the occasion of his recent hunt after deer in company with Harry Giltner and Earl Buxton. Each hunter carried a pack, and after going about a mile Roy's became unaccountably heavy. Investigation revealed about twenty-five pounds of rocks concealed in the pack. Art Caples was responsible for the joke, in which Roy failed to see any humor.

Merry Crowd on Picnic

A merry croud of young people to the number of fifteen, chaperoned by the Misses Belle and Dee Darling, spent Saturday in the Oak Grove Park on the Oregon Electric railway. This park possesses many features for the enjoyment of those on pleasure bent, such as swimming and boating facilities, seats placed in shady romantic nooks for a moment's rest, etc., which were taken full advantage of by the Grove young people. A bounteous luncheon was served at noon on the green sward.

Talented Musician-Priest Visits Forest Grove

Father Buck of this city had as house guest the past week, Cha'ott, of Tillamook; Father Daum, of Roy, and Father Placius, teacher of music and dramatics in St. Martins college, Lacey, Washington. Father Placius is a musician of brilliant attainments, and has written a musical drama which was very favorably received in prominent colleges in Europe. Father Placius is a native of Belgium, and gave an address to his countrymen at the Seattle Exposition.

OLD VET, WIFE, SERENADED

A number of old "boys in blue" tramping to the music of fife and drum and bearing aloft the stars and stripes, marched down upon the home of their old comrade in arms, Stephen Morgan, Tuesday night, and gave him a serenade in compliment of his recent marriage to Miss Margaret Stillwell. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan invited the old veterans in, and a happy hour was spent in social conversation. Besides the old soldiers about fifteen neighbors were numbered among the serenaders.

A good cook looks as closely after her temper as she does after her kettles, and neither are allowed to boil over.

Some women seem to think that the lobe of the ear was made as a receptacle for powder—a sort of rouge back stot, so to speak.
