

F. H. Maury, of Dilley, was in the Grove Saturday.

Don't get glasses from the inexperienced street fakir. See Dr. Booth who has had 18 years experience and guarantees his work.

That Porch Furniture

You require for the hot days of July and August should be purchased now.

A complete line of hammocks porch swings, rattan chairs, etc. are here for your inspection.

We have a nice assortment of these essentials to coolness and you will find them most inviting.

Our experience tells us that we may safely trust the people to pick out the good points of anything in this line.

ROE & COMPANY

"NECTAR OF THE GODS"

Doesn't compare with our

SODA WATER

Come in and try it
ALL FLAVORS

Office Shearer

Main Street Forest Grove

WHEN you take photographs, increase the certainty of getting best results by having your camera loaded with

"ANSCO" FILM

Then print or let us print your negatives with Cyko Paper and you will have clearer, softer, deeper, more artistic photographs.

Splendid assortment of cameras, pure chemicals, all photographic supplies.

The Forest Grove Pharmacy
Up-to-date suggestions
Both Phones

The PRESS wants correspondents.

If you can write for publication, get in touch with this office. We have an offer which will positively prove interesting. Drop a postal or call in person.

ALL AROUND THE TOWN

Will trade one seated buggy for cow. Enquire PRESS office.

Wayne Gibbs, of Portland, visited over Sunday with Grove friends.

Miss Stella Boscow, of Portland, visited Sunday with Miss Manche Langley.

Connie Caples, of Portland, visited over Sunday with his parents in this city.

Nina King, who has been at Collins Springs for a months vacation, has returned to her work here.

John Vandehey, ranching six miles South of this city, was transacting business in the Grove Friday.

Watches, clocks and jewelry repaired in the right way at right prices. Arthur Shearer, Main St.

Jim Williams, who has spent the summer at Klamath Falls, returned Sunday to his home on David's Hill.

The highest praise any can bestow upon any pair of glasses is to say—they are just as good as Dr. Lowe's.

Will Densmore, of Portland, formerly conducting a store in this city, spent Sunday with his friends in the Grove.

Miss Esther Conwell, formerly of this city, now making her home in Portland, spent the week end with friends in the Grove.

Will Kertson, formerly a dry-goods clerk in this city, now making his home in Portland, was calling on Grove friends the past week.

When you buy your new wagon jack, get the "Union." Simplest, stongest and most useful. Once used always used. J. B. Matthews, Agent.

The Misses Addie and Lydia Taylor, who recently moved to this city from Antelope, Oregon, are spending a two weeks vacation in the hop fields at Dallas, Oregon.

Mrs. Amanda Artley of Philadelphia, visited the past week with Mrs. Marion Hall, of this city. The ladies were school-mates when young girls and had not met for forty-one years.

Miss Anna Newman of this city, who is one of the Cornelius public school teachers, visited the past week with her mother, who is spending the summer with her on George at McMinnville.

W. F. Schultz has been spending several days the past week in the Nehalem mountains, endeavoring to find eight head of beef cattle that got away from him in a round-up, some weeks ago.

F. W. Schultz and son, Louis, of Albany, visited with their relatives, the W. F. Schultz family, in this city the past week. F. W. and W. F. went deer hunting in the section above Gales Creek, but were advised to return by Fire Warden Carl Iler, on account of the forest fires.

George Carlton, who formerly lived in this city, and who was so seriously burned in a fire that destroyed a house on the High School block three years ago, was in the Grove the past week greeting old friends. For many months after being burned, Mr. Carlton's life was despaired of, but he is now in good health.

REMEMBER—Dr. Booth guarantees all glasses for 1 year.

Professor Ben Kori was a business visitor in the Rose City Monday.

Mrs. Ruel Bisbee, of the Watt's district, was shopping in the Grove Friday.

W. M. Vanderzanden, of Cornelius, was a business visitor in the Grove Saturday.

LOST—Small oval breastpin with three pearls at top. Return to PRESS office and claim reward.

L. L. Hollinger, former councilman of this city, attended to business matters in the Grove last week.

Rev. E. V. Stivers went to Portland Monday to consult a specialist in regard to a trouble of the right ear.

That gasolene stove you need can be purchased at Hinman's, two and three burners, with or without ovens.

Thomas Luster, who has owned a claim in the Glenwood section for many years, was a Grove visitor Monday.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. School girl would be considered. Phone Ind 234. Mrs. E. E. Williams.

Mrs. H. B. Luce, of this city, left Wednesday morning for an extended visit with relatives in Ohio, which is her native state.

Remember the Main Street barbers, Germain & Stream. Mr. Germain has no superior in the barber business. Long experience.

Frank Wright, who made his home for many years in this city, now living in Patton's valley, was greeting old friends in the Grove Friday.

To Poultry Raisers—Highest cash prices paid for chickens, eggs and butter by the Schultz market, Forest Grove.

Miss Tiny Le Miller, of Portland, is visiting her brother, Father Le Miller, at Verboort. She spent several days the past week with friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lee, living in the east part of town, entertained at dinner Sunday, John Stock and wife, Paul and Rudy Schultz, Tom Middleton, John Doane and Hogue Sexton.

Sam Weist and wife, of Stella, Washington, visited the past week at the homes of the latter's sisters, Mesdames L. M. Sparks and Charles Lofland, living on the northeast edge of town.

R. F. Kirkwood and wife, of Portland, accompanied by Miss Perle Miller, of the cloak department of Olds and King, were visitors at the home of the former's mother in this city Sunday and Monday.

R. W. Phelps, who formerly conducted the feed store on North Main Street, has bought an interest in the Forest Grove marble works, of Gee and Jones, and will act as the traveling representative of the firm.

Miss Eva Bellinger of Dallas, is visiting at the home of her schoolmate, Miss May Heltzel, at Banks. Miss Bellinger is a native daughter of Forest Grove, and left here when a small child. She is now stenographer for a law and abstracting firm at Dallas.

Grant Hughes and wife went to Portland Tuesday, and from there to Salem, where they will spend the rest of the week at the State Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Farmer, of Portland, visited the past week with the latter's sister, Mrs. Ula G. Hanna, in this city. They will leave the last of this week for Indiana for an extended visit with Mr. Farmer's relatives.

Mrs. Amanda Markham and daughter, Mrs. Rosie Benjamin, of Washington, visited with relatives in this city and at Hillside, where they formerly lived, the past week. Amanda going home Saturday leaving her daughter to return soon.

Mrs. Marion Maury, of Lewiston, Montana, who was well known in the Grove as Miss Alice Reynolds, visited with her mother in Cornelius, and friends in this city the past week.

The Dilley schools will open September 19, with the following teaching staff: Principal, William Scott; grammar grade, Miss Helen Weed; intermediate grade, Miss Ruth Fitch; primary department, Miss Agnes Hilary.

Sam Moulton, who formerly conducted a barber shop in this city, going from here to Portland and thence to Tillamook, has returned to the Grove from the latter place, and will probably remain here for some time to come.

Booth Jewelry Co.

The Big Store
Pacific Avenue Forest Grove, Ore.

PACIFIC HOME INSURANCE COMPANY

MUTUAL FIRE

PRINCIPAL OFFICE, FOREST GROVE, OREGON

Will Save You More Than 25 Per Cent

If you want up-to-date, reliable and trustworthy plumbing fixtures installed, or repairs made, get in touch with the practical plumber

H. L. DECKERT

Shop 431 Independent Phones Residence 4825
Pacific Avenue Forest Grove, Oregon

THIS IS THE MAN YOU NEED

If the hoofs of your horse need to be shod. I have the metal, the knowledge, the skill and the willingness to put your horses right when they need a firm footing.

I also do General Blacksmithing, anything and everything.

Joe Lenneville

Pacific University

Offers thorough instruction in college and preparatory courses.

Its Laboratories are well equipped for science teaching.

Conservatory gives superior instruction in Music.

Typewriting, Stenography and Commercial Branches are taught by competent instructors.

Clean athletics and various student activities are encouraged.

The new gymnasium, fitted with all modern appliances, including a fine Running Track and Swimming Pool, is added to the equipment for the coming year.

Send for Catalogue