The Cornelius public schools will open September 19, with the following teachers, E. W. Thomas, principal; Miss Anna Newman, Miss Nettie Thomas and Miss Lea Good, assistants.

A laborer working on the United railways' line, two miles southeast of Banks, at Porter Brothers' camp, was struck on the head yesterday by the shovel and received a severe scalp wound. Dr. W. B. Munford took several stitches in the man's scalp, and thinks he will make a rapid recovery.

Bessie, the six-year-old daughter of George White, a teamster of Cornelius, was thrown from a wagon as it rounded a street corner at that place, Tuesday afternoon, and the wheels passed over her head, fracturing her skull. The little one died the same evening at 9:30 o'clock. Funeral services were held today at the Adventist church, with burial in Cornelius cemetery.

Mrs. Kinzer entertained a number of friends Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. John Wilson Macrum, who is visiting here from Spokane. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent at Five hundred, Mrs. W. B. Haines winning first prize and Mrs. Wilbur McEldowney the consolation. About twenty-five ladies were present, guests from out of town were Mrs. Clyde Aitchason and Mrs. Lytle, of Portland. Delicious luncheon was served and the affair was one of the most enjoyable of the season.

A former resident of this city now making her home in Newburg, writes the PRESS an interesting letter concerning the thriving little Quaker City. The forty-thousand dollar High school is fast approaching completion. A thirty-thousand dollar addition is being constructed, and a two story cold storage plant is well under way. Ground has been broken for a new bank building, and many new dwellings are being built. Newburg needs a library similar to ours, the one they have being up a long flight of stairs, and only open three hours per day. A fire occurred in the Methodist church there September 11 but the building was saved with small loss. Rev. Hiram Gould, pastor of the local Methodist church, was formerly pastor at Newburg.

Notice to Public

As there are several cases of whooping cough in town, the school board has requested that I call attention to the regulations of the State Board of Health regarding the disease. These are, that no one with whooping cough shall attend any school or public gathering. Children in families where whooping cough is present should also be kept home. A child who has been exposed to whooping cough may develop the disease at any time within two weeks of the last exposure.

J. S. Bishop, City Health Officer.

Later—John brought the watermelon.

Always a positive feed to the Parker "Lucky Curve" Fountain Pen. Go to Shearer, the Main St. Jeweler, and get one on 10 days trial. tf

$50 cash buys a paid up certificate of scholarship in the International Correspondence Schools of Scranton, Pa., good for any $75 course. Inquire PRESS office. tf

The citizens of Forest Grove and adjacent territory are cordially invited to attend the opening exercises of Pacific University next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

John Germain, the main street barber, announces it as his intention to leave soon for Florida. Joe has traveled in every state in the Union, and the Wanderlust is again upon him.

Mr. Clark, driving a span of mules on the Forbis ranch near Dilley, Tuesday morning, experienced a runaway with the long-eared animals, wherein he was spilled off a load of prunes and received an injury to his back.

Herman Cook, who formerly lived in this city, but who has been working in the logging camps in Washington for the past several months, visited friends in the Grove the fore-part of the week, leaving here for Wallace, Idaho.

Walter Devlin, who has been working in salmon canneries in Alaska for the past six months, returned to his home in this city, Monday. He reports that he lived on canned goods during his stay in the far North, and he is glad to get back to mother's cooking. The ship he was on coming out to civilization, was ice-bound for eight days.

Judge George H. Burnett, of Salem, who will be a candidate for nomination on the Republican ticket for Supreme Judge at the coming primary election, was in the Grove, Tuesday, shaking hands with his many friends. Judge Burnett while circuit Judge has won the confidence of the people because of his knowledge of law and wise decisions, and his election to the Supreme bench will very likely be the natural result.
