

Additional Local Items of General Interest

C. H. Pratt was a visitor to the Rose city Monday.

Judge Hollis attended the State Fair at Salem last week.

S. B. Starret returned Saturday from a visit with friends in Morrow county.

L. L. Hollinger, of Cornelius, was attending to business matters in the Grove Tuesday.

Sam Lawrence, an attorney of Portland, visited over Sunday with his mother in this city.

Mrs. James Reeher, of Wilson River, came to the Grove Monday and left Tuesday for points in Washington, where she will visit with relatives and friends.

Wm. Wilson and wife, of Gales Creek, were visitors to the State Fair at Salem last week.

Mrs. L. M. Sparks, son Charlie, and father, A. J. Breazeale, visited the Rose city Saturday.

Will Black, who has been working the past summer in Marion county, returned to the Grove Saturday.

County Judge Goodin was up from the county seat shaking hands with his friends in the Grove Saturday.

Fred Davison and Louie Trumble went to Portland Monday to see Buffalo Bill and his aggregation of wild animals and indians.

Hon. B. F. Purdy, a prominent land-holder near Gaston, and his son Bruce, were attending to business matters and shaking hands with friends in the Grove Saturday.

County Judge Goodin was in the Grove the fore-part of the week.

Lester St. Clair, of Portland, visited with his boy friends in the Grove this week.

"Superior" stoves and ranges have no superior. Sold by Hinman, the Hardware man. tf

Clifford Brown and H. J. Goff were among those from the Grove in attendance at the State Fair.

D. D. Sage, a rancher in the Oak Hill section, was attending to business matters in the Grove Monday.

Chris Jensen, a prominent farmer of the Thatcher section, was a business visitor in the Grove Saturday.

J. J. Wirtz and wife and Joe Loomis and wife were in attendance at the State Fair at Salem, last week.

J. N. Varley, who formerly conducted the Farmer's feed shed on Pacific avenue, was in the Grove from Buxton Monday.

Always a positive feed to the Parker "Lucky Curve" Fountain Pen. Go to Shearer, the Main St. Jeweler, and get one on 10 days trial. tf

Miss Maud Lilly of Gales Creek who attended the public schools in this city last year, has returned to the Grove and registered for the fall term.

Miss Kirkwood is now ready for fall trade with an extra fine assortment of the latest creations in millinery. Plenty of help and prepared to handle all orders. tf

George and Peter Vanderzanden, two prosperous farmers of the banks section, and the latter Justice of the Peace of his precinct, were business visitors in the Grove Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary McKenzie entertained a number of young Ladies Saturday afternoon at tea, entering into the "whirls" of the ladies Working Society. A very pleasant afternoon was spent.

Mrs. Kear, of Sumpter, visited last week with Mrs. S. A. Sanford, Librarian at the Free Reading room. Mrs. Kear will leave soon for New York City to visit her brother, who lives near the domicile of Mrs. Sanford's daughter.

Hal Seymour, of Lincoln, Nebraska, has been visiting his brother, Ed. Seymour, of the Oregon Land and Trading Company, and Ed. took him to the State Fair last week to show him what Oregon can produce in the way of live stock, grain, vegetables, and other farm produce.

Grant Hughes returned home Friday after a vacation trip of several days, during which he visited the Live Stock Show at Portland, the State Fair at Salem, and Seaside. Mrs. Hughes is visiting with her sister Mrs. Cheney, at Seaside, and will return the latter part of the week.

Harry Cresap and wife of St. Joseph, Missouri, dropped into town last week, and the former introduced himself to J. F. Fletcher as a grandson of a sister of Mr. Fletcher, whom J. F. has not seen for over fifty years. Mr. and Mrs. Cresap are greatly enamored of our climate and fruit.

Mrs. Amans Artley, of Philadelphia, who came to Oregon some weeks ago to visit girlhood friends, among them being Mrs. Marion Hall of this city, and who had intended to stay only a few weeks, writes Mrs. Hall from Portland that she is so enamored of the Oregon climate that she intends to remain a year.

Will Raymond, who has a home stead in the Timber section, was a business visitor in the Grove Monday.

Horses sent for and delivered to any part of the City. Ind. Phone No. 322 Byron Markham. tf

They are very busy at Anderson's, but they will sell you that School Suit, Dreas Suit or work suit any time.

Dr. Semones. Homeopathic Pysician and Oculist. Does no surgery. Office at residence. 217 First st. Ind. Phone 311. tf

Mr. and Mrs. R. Rood, of Edwards county, Illinois, spent Sunday in Forest Grove as guests of James Hocking and other friends. Mr. Rood and Mr. Hocking were boyhood chums.

$50 cash buys a paid up certificate of scholarship in the International Correspondence Schools of Scranton, Pa., good for any $75 course. Inquire PRESS office. tf

Edward Wirtz of this city was one of the Forest Grove people who attended the State Fair at Salem, and he pronounces it as the best State Fair that he has ever attended.

Mrs. Charles Hines entertained the Bridge Club Thursday afternoon and the usual enjoyable time was had. The first prize was won by Mrs. Philip Kinzer, while the consolation was awarded to Mrs. Wilbur McEldowney. Lunch was served.

Frank Knox, who went to a sanatorium last winter at Colorado Springs, Colorado, has returned to his home on the north-east edge of town. Mr. Knox is greatly improved in health, and is enthusiastic over the climate of Colorado.

Miles Overhalt, the clever poet laureate of the Oregon Journal, states in verse of the Monday edition of that publication that the Fourth street line of the S. P. railway company is to be electrified. It must be so, as a poet always knows.

Dr. C. L. Large reports a daughter born to the wife of William Ryals in this city, the 16th. inst. Parties wishing the attendance of Dr. Large in this class of cases, will greatly oblige him, if convenient by engaging his services two or three months prior to the expected event.

Dr. O. C. Hiatt, who was a pioneer dentist in this city, visited old friends in the Grove, Tuesday. The doctor is now located at Raymond, Washington, and says his town now has a population of thirty-five hundred, whereas four years ago only forty people lived there.

Tuesday evening the local Artisans held initiatory ceremonies, a large proportion of the membership being present. Several candidates were received and light lunch served at the close of the session. "Just the proper thing" is the verdict of every new member received by the organization.

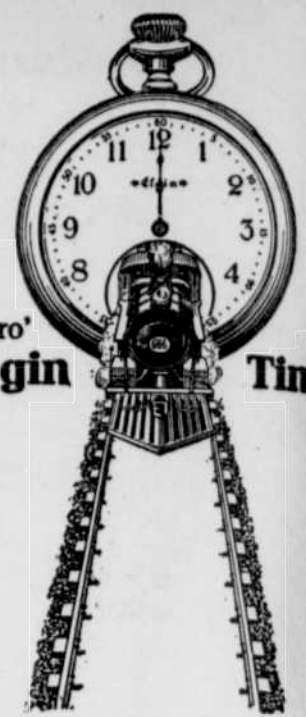

WEEKLY NEWS OF WATTS

Dr. Geiger was called to attend Edna McCaleb, who was quite sick last week.

Oliver and Maurice Buxton, of this district, enrolled at the Lincoln school Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Rice, of Haynes, spent a few hours Sunday with their niece, Mrs. Eva Adams.

Emma Busch and brothers returned home Saturday from the Ketchan hop yard, where they were picking.

Means
Right on Time

Elgin Watches are Unsurpassed in Accuracy & Quality Features

Sold by
Arthur Shearer
The Main St. Jeweler

That Porch
Furniture

you require for the hot days of July and August should be purchased now.

A complete line of hammocks porch swings, rattan chairs, etc. are here for your inspection.

We have a nice assortment of these essentials to coolness and you will find them most inviting.

Our experience tells us that we may safely trust the people to pick out the good points of anything in this line.

ROE & COMPANY

The PRESS wants correspondents.

If you can write for publication, get in touch with this office. We have an offer which will positively prove interesting. Drop a postal or call in person.

ALWAYS PLEASED

That's the verdict of those who patronize

OUR GROCERY

Our Stock is Complete
Our Clerks Are Courteous
Our Prices Are Low

Let Us Please You, Too

H. T. Giltner

Ind. Phone 701 Main Street
Pac. States 26 Forest Grove

HIGH COST OF LIVING
THATS THE NOISE NOW

Ted Roosevelt, with all his big speeches, has not devised any means of giving relief.

But the Forest Grove Shoe Store will give you some relief in the way of shoe wear with an excellent large line of factory made shoes to order.

We are ready and will give you the lowest prices for solid shoes ever offered, quality considered.

A Special Line of School Shoes

Our 9 o'clock School Shoes are the sensation of the day—and well they might be, for they are beauties.

5 to 8 $1.50, 8½ to 11 $1.90, 12 to 2 $2.00 to $2.25

Boys High Cuts, $1.75 to $4.50
As Good as Made

Bergman's Portland Made Shoes
A. A. Cutter Heavy Shoes

W. L. Douglass 3.00, 3.20 and 4.00 "Best Made on Earth"

So says Mr. Douglass, "and he is no liar, either"

Dr. Reed's Cushion Soled Shoes for Tender Feet

are another of the good shoes we carry

Thats all there is to it. We want your trade, you want our shoes. We will do the best we can to fit and please you if you will CALL.

Terms cash and good treatment assured at

Forest Grove Shoe Store

C. V. B. Russell

OUTDOORS or INDOORS
there's nothing like a
Columbia Graphophone

You Can Have One by Paying only
$1.00 a Week

Stop in, Examine Them, Listen to Their Beautiful, Clear Tone and You Will Not be Happy Until You Have One of Your Own. Easiest of Terms.

Forest Grove Pharmacy

Both Phones

Up-to-Date Druggists