Tony Carstens, a prosperous farmer of the Banks section, was a business visitor in the Grove Tuesday and made this office a pleasant call.

Don't get glasses from the inexperienced street fakir. See Dr. Booth who has had 18 years experience and guarantees his work. tf

A. G. Hoffman and wife, accompanied by their little daughter, Aliene, were in attendance at the Hillsboro conference Sunday, and took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Emetick.

To Poultry Raisers—Highest cash prices paid for chickens, eggs and butter by the Schultz market, Forest Grove. tf

Rev. E. E. Violet, an evangelist of Birmingham, Alabama, will occupy the Christian church pulpit the first Sunday in November. Rev. Violet is said to be a speaker of much force and eloquence.

The big seventy-five foot flag poles were raised at both the Central and Lincoln schools last week, and now old glory floats to the breeze from each one and inspires patriotism in the breasts of young America.

Mrs. Corella Bunce, who formerly lived in the Thatcher section, where she made her home for several years, will be joined in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Murry Dean, of Clatskanie, the happy event to occur October fifth.

What do you think of the type-sticking ability of C. V. B. Russell, the Main street shoe dealer, as shown in his ad. this week? C. V. B. had not touched a type since 1865, but he came down to the PRESS office and "put up" his clever little write up in about an hour. Going some, eh?

Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Abraham have gone to Eastern Oregon points for the benefit of Mrs. Abraham's health, the object being to find a higher altitude. They may go to Denver, Colorado, during their trip, and the length of their stay will depend on the improvement of Mrs. Abraham.

Eden Mowe of Cornelius and George Jackson of this city will leave soon for Eugene to enter the State university. George will study music and evangelistic singing, and Eden will take the ministerial course. Eden is troubled with an affection of the ear, and will undergo an operation after reaching Eugene.
