The Girl Who Lives Alone

whether she attends college or goes to business, needs the Perfection Oil Heater. It will heat a cold, cheerless boarding house or dormitory room and make it livable. It is always a ready help in the many things women do for themselves in their rooms. With the damper top opened it will heat water for tea or cocoa; it will dry the small articles that a woman prefers to wash herself in her own room. It will quickly heat an iron or curling tongs; quickly dry wet shoes or skirts—an ever ready help for the woman who lives alone, dependent on her own resources. The

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless is invaluable in its capacity of quickly giving heat. It will burn nine hours with one filling. It is safe, smokeless and odorless; has a cool handle and a damper top.

An indicator shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain. It has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so the wick can be quickly cleaned.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be unscrewed in an instant for re-wicking. Finished in japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

Curiously Expressed.

Curious ways of expressing ideas in English may be expected from foreigners, as, for instance, when the Frenchman, who made a call in the country and was about to be introduced to the family, said: "Ah, ze ladies! Zen I would before, if you please, vish to purify mine 'ands and to sweep mine hair."

Cigar boxes for Pepper.

Connecticut is an enterprising state. Its chief products in the good old days before the pure food laws were wooden nutmegs and basswood hams. Now she boasts a philanthropist who was recently arrested for grinding up cigar boxes and selling the result as pepper.

SEASONABLE TITLE IN SOUTH

Southern Gentleman Dubbed "General Humidity" Because of His Extreme Unpleasantness.

On the wide veranda of an old southern hotel sat the titled gentlemen with their weekly papers and cooling mint juleps.

"Jeff," whispered the Chicago man who had just arrived, "can you tell me the different titles of those gentlemen?"

The old colored hostler grinned.

"Yess, boss. Ah kin tell po' ebbey one ob dem. Dat big stout gen'man wid de empty julep glass am General Tom, sah. De uddeh gen'man wid de broad grin am General Chesteh, sah. De lean gen'man dat am talkin' about de wash am General Clay, sah."

The Chicago man was interested.

"Ah, indeed! And who is that crabbed-looking individual sitting in the corner?"

"Him? Lands, boss, he am so disagreeable en so unpleasant en he makes yo' so wahn we does call him General Humidity."

A Book Lover.

The old parson was endeavoring to do a little missionary work behind the big stone walls.

"What brought you here, my son?" he queried of an inmate.

"I am here, sir, because of my fondness for books," answered No. 2323.

"Indeed!" exclaimed the good man in surprise. "What kind of books, may I ask?"

"Pocketbooks," briefly answered the other.

Sameness of Opinion.

"I suppose," said the young man with the soiled collar and baggy trousers, as he sat down beside a stranger on one of the park benches, "you wouldn't take me for a member of a millionaire's family, would you?"

"No," answered the stranger, after sizing him up, "frankly speaking, I wouldn't."

"Neither would the millionaire," rejoined the young man, sadly, "I asked him last night."

Tough Luck.

"I suppose," said the kind lady, as she handed the husky hobo a generous wedge of apple pie, "that your lot is full of hardships?"

"Dat's de proper word fer it, ma'am," replied the h. h. "In de winter 'wen de farmers ain't doin' nothin' but eatin' apples an' drinkin' hard cider it's too cold fer me t' be trampin' around; an' in de summer peoples' alers offerin' me work."

IT NEEDED EXERCISE.

Mr. Billyuns—My automobile looks like it had been subjected to mighty bad treatment. Did you have it out while I was away?

His Chauffeur—Yis, sor. I—er—er—exercised it a little, sor, ivry day, sor.

Went Wrong.

Black, angry clouds o'erspread the sky; KilJordan's lawn was very dry; He sprinkled it with might and main—Yet all the same, it didn't rain.

Want Something Better.

"I always find," said Deacon Hardacre, "that the Lord will provide, somehow."

"Yes, but the people of this country are gettin' so they ain't willin' to be provided for merely somehow," replied the infidel of the neighborhood.

SPLINTERS.

Big income—ship entering the harbor.

Too many people judge the world by their own breadth.

A man can be run down in the street as well as in health.

You want to be sure of your footing before you climb too high.

The increase in the price of leather has made shoes pinch more than ever.

Benness—A woman is always changing her mind. Jenners—Not when she decides that she wants a new gown.

It is a poor friend that will pat you on the back and kick your feet out from under you at the same time.

Boyce—I wonder what makes a dog howl when music plays. Joyce—I don't know, unless the music awakens the fleas.

It Would Seem So.

The subjoined item appeared in a French newspaper: "There was found in the river this morning the body of a soldier cut to pieces and sewed up in a sack. The circumstances seem to preclude any suspicion of suicide."
