A. C. Alexander of this city was supposed to be the Prohibition candidate for county clerk, but his name failed to appear on the ballot.

Voters Take Notice

A. C. Alexander, of Forest Grove, was regularly nominated for county clerk, his acceptance was sworn to by a Notary Public, and two men declare they filed the same with County Clerk Bailey. Mr. Bailey says it was not filed, therefore A. C. Alexander's name has been omitted from the county ballot, thereby placing said Alexander at a great disadvantage before the public. If you believe in a clean efficient service in this office kindly write his name thus:

X—A. C. ALEXANDER
 J. F. Kerr,
 Prohibition Secretary.
 —Paid Adv.
