

THANKSGIVING DAY

approaches rapidly and every woman wishes to be appropriately gowned and hatted upon this festive occasion.

MISS GERTRUDE KIRKWOOD

has an exceptionally fine line of trimmed and untrimmed hats and the ladies of Forest Grove and vicinity are invited to inspect them now, and secure their Thanksgiving millinery while the assortment is choice.

ARTHUR SHEARER

All Goods Guaranteed

A Beautiful Assortment of Holiday Articles
Awaiting Your Inspection and Approval

Forest Grove Meat Market

Fresh and Salted Meats. Home Made Pork Sausage "Just Like Dad Used to Make 'Down on the Farm."

Cash Paid for Hides and Pelts

Fresh Fish Every Thursday

PHONES IND. 801 BELL 241 MOORE & WILHELMSON

The Bankers & Merchants Mutual Fire Ass'n of Forest Grove, Oregon

Writes the Most Conservative Line of Commercial and Dwelling Insurance of Any Mutual Company in the State. It will Pay You to Protect Your Property with One of Our Policies

SHEARER'S THE MAIN STREET SHOP

Confectionery
Cigars & Tobaccos

Hot and Cold Drinks

SERVED

ANY

STYLE

FOR A FIRST CLASS SMOKE

Booth Jewelry Co.

The Big Store
Pacific Avenue Forest Grove, Ore.

UNIVERSITY ITEMS

P. B. Arant is again at Herrick Hall.

The young ladies "Gym" suits have arrived.

Miss Margaret Whealdon was ill the fore-part of the week.

Miss Loynes and Miss Lathrop were chapel visitors, Tuesday.

Miss Louise Miller was on the sick list, Wednesday of last week.

Miss Wilson celebrated her birthday at Herrick Hall, Wednesday evening.

Miss Ann Chalmers spent the week end in F. G. Miss Chalmers is teaching in Portland.

James McFarlane Jr., a student in the Academy last year, is attending the Behhke-Walker Business College.

John Taylor has been unable to report for foot ball the past week, owing to bruises received in the Whitworth game.

The Misses Wilson, Harbison, and Wiest were entertained at a chicken dinner, Tuesday night, at the D. T. Thomas home.

The class room in the Biological Laboratory was so cold Wednesday that Prof. Bean was forced to excuse his classes.

Mr. McDougal, Pacific's husky little end on the foot ball squad, was suffering with his eyes last week, and did not attend school, Tuesday.

Miss Elva Baker was a chapel visitor, Friday.

Dwinell Clapp was in the grand stand, Saturday.

Helen Chalmers attended the game Saturday.

Miss Haskell took dinner with Prof. and Mrs. Bean, Sunday.

Horace McCoy and sister were Pacific rooters at the Mt. Angel game.

Miss Lillian Anderson of Portland was the guest of Miss Spillman, last Saturday.

Miss Steel, Miss Hilstrum, and Mr. McDonald of Washington, registered in the Conservatory, Monday.

J. U. Hiltz, '09, was greeting friends at Pacific, Thursday. Hiltz is just recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever.

The young ladies of Herrick dress in white for dinner on Wednesday evening. The custom is a very commendable one.

Word received from Dr. Boggess states that he has reached his destination and has begun his work in Lucknow University.

Miss Farnham gave a talk, Thursday, to the pupils of the High School on the pictures shown in the Art exhibit in the K. of P. Hall, the previous week.

Mrs. Ferrin entertained Mrs. Lowell, Friday afternoon.

Herr Professor Ward took dinner with E. House, Sunday.

Messrs. DuMez, Anthony, and Harding went hunting, Saturday.

S. Bryant had his knee badly wrenched in the Mt. Angel game.

Mr. Campen has been forced to leave school on account of his eyes.

Miss Gordon spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Hosford were visiting their daughter, Cora, Sunday.

The Mt. Angel player who had his collar bone broken, Saturday, is recovering rapidly. He is under the care of Dr. Ward.

AROUND THE TOWN

All the Ladies go to Anderson's for their skirts.

T. H. Littlehales was a Hillsboro visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey were Rose city visitors Sunday.

Alec Benshou made a flying trip to Portland Monday.

Wm. Freeman visited with his sister, Mrs. Minor, Sunday.

Herb Smith, of Gales Creek, was in Forest Grove Saturday.

Walter Craig, of near Gaston, was a Forest Grove visitor Saturday.

Strictly fresh oysters. The famous "Sealship", at Schultz Market.

Ben Levi, of Portland, was a business visitor in the Grove Monday.

The sidewalk on the south side of the campus is being raised and repaired.

John Byron and Miss Sears, of Thatcher, attended church in this city Sunday.

"Superior" stoves and ranges have no superior. Sold by Hinman, the Hardware man.

Miss Florence Hicks, of Portland, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. L. Large, of this city.

Oscar Love, a hop grower of Thatcher, brought a load of hops to the S. P. depot Saturday.

Miss Addie Taylor has returned from a visit with friends and relatives in Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Clara Dennis can now be reached by Ind. phone 184 by those who desire her services. 2-1f

Watches, clocks and jewelry repaired in the right way at right prices. Arthur Shearer, Main Street.

John Cerrico, Principal of the Public School at Sherwood, was visiting friends in the Grove Saturday.

Miss Ava Carlyle, who is teaching in Scoggins Valley, spent the week end with her parents in this city.

C. R. Macey was in from Thatcher Friday. Mr. Macey is one of Washington County's prosperous tillers of the soil.

Mrs. M. H. Powers and daughter Miss Sallie Powers, from East of town, visited at the home of Mrs. M. E. Hall Tuesday.

O. A. Corl left yesterday morning for Portland where he will be employed by Hess and O'Brien, a large automobile repair firm.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. William David, Jr., who reside North of town on the Thatcher road, a girl, Friday evening. Congratulations.

Hubert Bernards, of McMinnville, was a caller in Forest Grove Saturday. He seemed much pleased over the results of the election.

$50 cash buys a paid up certificate of scholarship in the International Correspondence Schools of Scranton, Pa., good for any $75 course. Inquire PRESS office. 1f

Sisters Ignatia and Agnes, teachers of Centerville and Verboort, were in attendance at the Teachers' Association which met in Forest Grove Saturday.

Messrs. John and George Brockman, lumber and timbermen of Portland, took dinner with H. L. Deckert and family Saturday. These gentlemen have recently bought a tract of land near Gaston, which they contemplate planting to English walnuts.

You and your children are safe if you wear Dr. Lowe's glasses—eye safe and price safe. Dozens of Forest Grove references. Consult him Nov. 25, Hillsboro 26.

H. McGreer and family, who have been occupying Dr. Pollock's house on the corner of 4th street and Pacific avenue, have moved into their new cottage in the Stokes addition.

Local Artisans to the number of twenty attended the Portland Convention Saturday and all report a rousing meeting. One thousand candidates were initiated into the order, the obligation being delivered by Chief Justice Moore of the United States Supreme Bench.

Mark Bump and sister, Miss Pitman, were Rose city visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell, of Oakland, Calif., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hartley Tuesday and Wednesday.

H. L. Tibbetts, Traffic Manager of the Eire Dispatch, left Sunday evening for Spokane after a visit at the home of Judge Langley.

NOTICE TO FUEL BUYERS. I will have another car of Mendota coal in a few days, and will only fill orders out of this car for $7.50 per ton delivered.

Walter Roswurm

Through an oversight, the number of signers to the statement of appreciation of the recent Art Exhibit was omitted from the editorial columns. Over eighty have expressed their approval so far.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

Forest Grove School Report for month of October.

Days taught	20
Days absent	311
Times late	78
Pupils neither absent nor late	257
Average number belonging	450
Average daily attendance	435
Per cent of attendance	95½
Visits by parents	24
Total enrollment	495

WEEKLY NEWS OF WATTS

Albert and Robert Busch enrolled at school Monday. 42 pupils are now enrolled.

Mr. and Mrs. Bangs returned to Eugene, Or. after a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bisbee.

C. Day and R. Holscher have been making daily trips to town to have Dr. Tucker dress their injured hands.

Those who attended the Sunday School rally at the Evangelical church Sunday at Hillsboro were; Mr. and Mrs. Buxton and sons, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. DeMoss and children, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Blackman, the Misses Emma Busch, Ruth Frost, and Laura Knighten, and Sydney Taylor and Richard Wilson. All report a very good meeting.

The Literary meeting Friday night was very good. There were songs by Emma Busch, J. Howland, Instrumental music by Gladys Vermilyea. Recitations by N. A. Frost, A. S. Dilley. Resolved that capital punishment should be abolished, was debated upon by A. Dilley and G. Trageser in the affirmative and A. Vermilyea and G. Pechin on the negative, the Judges deciding in favor of the affirmative. The Pleasant Valley Glee Club made its initial bow to the public and we hope to hear more of them in the future.

Subscribe for the PRESS, now