

WEST DEFEATS BOWERMAN

Republicans Get Both Representatives In Congress.

Prohibition is Defeated and Home Rule Carries Small—Woman's Suffrage Is Swamped.

The winners in Oregon:
 Congressman, First district—W. C. Hawley, Marion county, Rep.
 Congressman, Second district—A. W. Lafferty, Multnomah county, Rep.
 Governor—Oswald West, Clatsop county, Dem.
 Secretary of state—F. W. Benson, Douglas county, Rep.
 State treasurer—Thomas B. Kay, Marion county, Rep.
 Justices of Supreme court, four-year term—Henry J. Bean, Umatilla county, Rep.; Thomas A. McBride, Clackamas county, Rep., Dem., non-political judiciary.
 Justices of Supreme court, six-year year term—George H. Burnett, Marion county, Rep.; Frank A. Moore, Columbia county, Rep., Dem., non-political judiciary.
 Attorney general—A. M. Crawford, Douglas county, Rep.
 Superintendent of public instruction—L. R. Alderman, Lane county, Rep.
 State printer—Willis S. Duniway, Multnomah county, Rep.
 Commissioner of labor and inspector of factories and workshops—O. P. Hoff, Multnomah county, Rep.
 Railroad commissioner—Frank J. Miller, Linn county, Rep.
 State engineer—John H. Lewis, Marion county, Rep.

With more than half the vote in the state counted, Oswald West leads Jay Bowerman in the contest for governor by more than 1,800, and apparently the estimate made at first indications that West had been elected by a plurality of 3,000 to 4,000 will be borne out by the final count.

The expectations aroused by the early count as to West's plurality in Multnomah county have not been fulfilled. Later returns partly closed the gap between the two, but Bowerman apparently has no hope of carrying the county. West will have about 1,000 plurality in Multnomah. The figures given include 129 of the 182 precincts of the county, where the count has been completed, and fair percentages of the vote cast in all other counties but Columbia, Curry, Josephine, Klamath, Lake, Sherman and Wheeler.

With returns in covering fully 80 per cent of the vote cast on the home rule liquor amendment to the constitution, the measure has a majority in the state of 3,335. The remaining returns will cut this majority down considerably and the amendment, if carried, will have a small majority, possibly not more than 1,000.

The state at large, outside of Multnomah county, has given a substantial vote against the amendment, but Multnomah's majority for it of 5,000 seems to have turned back the tide.

Elections under the local option law were held in 15 counties in Oregon at the time of the general election and the reports received therefrom indicate that five, and possibly six, counties now dry have gone over to the "wet" column.

The "dry" counties known to have voted "wet" are Morrow, Klamath, Umatilla, Malheur and Polk, and reports indicate that Tillamook, now a "dry" county, has also voted to restore the sale of liquor.

It is known that Douglas county has again voted against the saloons and Linn remains dry by a majority of more than 500. Clackamas, now "wet," has refused to change its policy. Josephine county, now "dry," has given a majority of only 12 against the sale of liquor, but it is reported a contest will be entered in the effort to throw out the vote in one dry precinct on account of alleged irregularities.

Coos, now "wet," it is reported, has voted to oust the liquor dealers, but the report could not be confirmed.

Lake county remains "wet" by a majority of about 60.
 Of the 32 initiative and referendum measures submitted to the voters in the recent election, seven are known to have been approved, practically all doubt has been removed as to the approval of the eighth—the presidential primary bill—while a ninth measure, the county tax amendment, is still in doubt.

The following measures have been adopted:

An act authorizing the establishment of a branch insane asylum in Eastern Oregon.

A bill providing for the permanent support and maintenance of the Oregon state normal school at Monmouth.

The home rule amendment.

An employers' liability law.

A bill prohibiting the taking of fish from the Rogue river except by angling.

The good roads amendment.

An amendment changing judicial

OLD STEAMER, WRECKED.

Historic Portland Beating to Pieces on Alaskan Coast.

Cordova, Alaska—Lying at the mouth of the Katalla river, with an unobstructed sweep of the ocean beating in upon her, the steamer Portland, Captain Frank Moore, of the Alaska Coast company line, seems doomed to be added to the already long list of vessels that have been wrecked along the treacherous Alaska coast. Creeping through the inky darkness, made worse by a blinding snow storm, the vessel struck an uncharted rock rock off Martin island at 6 o'clock in the morning.

The heavy jar when the vessel ground upon the rock brought the passengers to the deck in their night clothes, but the excellent discipline of the officers and crew soon restored order. The pumps were set to work, but the inrush of the water was too great, and Captain Moore headed the vessel for the Katalla river, where she was beached at high tide with a calm sea. The passengers were landed in the ship's boats without harm.

Launches from Katalla were soon alongside and took off the mail, express and baggage.

Captain Moore thought he could make temporary repairs at low tide. Attention is now being directed to save freight on barges. The main boiler is out of commission and the hold of the vessel is filled with water.

The steamer Alameda, now off Cape St. Elias, has been ordered to the scene of the wreck to lend assistance if possible, but heavy swells are beginning to come in and it is believed the vessel will pound to pieces.

AMERICAN SHOTS MEXICAN

Also Wounds Gendarme in Defending His Home Against Mob.

Guadalajara, Mex.—Carlos B. Carothers, a real estate dealer, shot and killed Jesus Loza, a 14 year old Mexican, and wounded Prudencio Chaxe, a gendarme, in defending his home against an attack by Mexicans. Carothers surrendered to the authorities and was placed in the state penitentiary at midnight. Following a preliminary examination he was placed incommunicado.

Although the entire police force, foot and mounted, and the Tenth regiment of cavalry were called out, rioting, which began at 8 o'clock at night, was suppressed only after three hours of vigorous efforts and after additional damage to property had been done. The affair was a continuation of the previous night's violence by students and workmen.

Carothers, who declared at the police station that he was a Mexican, born at Saltillo, state of Coahuila, but whose parents were Louisianans, was guarding his home in the western part of the city, the windows and doors of which had been broken in the first night's rioting, when the mob approached.

NINE KILLED; MANY INJURED IN TROLLEY CAR SMASHUP

Kalamazoo, Mich.—Nine persons were killed here when a fast Michigan Central express train hit a Main street car. Nearly a dozen were injured, some fatally. The known dead: Motorman Ward Abbott, Harry Holtz, Miss Bertha Hensler, James Breeze, William Shafer, Hazel Hart.

Three bodies were removed from the pilot of the engine so badly mangled that recognition was impossible.

Conductor Van Horn had gone up the track to flag his car ahead. Standing near the crossing was a string of box cars, which obscured the view of the main track, and he motioned his car ahead.

He had stepped aside to let the car pass when the train came around the bend at a terrific rate. The crash came just as Van Horn stepped from between the train and his car. He escaped injury, but has been removed to his home in a state of nervous collapse.

At the hospital are two unidentified girls, whose injuries may prove fatal. They are badly cut and physicians say they are injured internally.

Police Chief is Slain.

Anadarko, Okla.—Police Chief W. C. Temple was called to his door by an unidentified Mexican and fatally shot. He died in 15 minutes. The shooting came about an hour after six shots were fired at a patrolman on Main street here by some person who was not found.

The Mexican, who came to Anadarko recently, appeared to be well educated. About 300 men from Anadarko are scattered over the county searching for him and if he is found it is feared that a lynching will result.

Mail-Order House Pays.

Chicago—A $10,000,000 "melon" was decided on by the directors of Sears, Roebuck Co., the stock of which firm is listed on the New York and Chicago exchanges. The directors voted to recommend a stock dividend of 33 1-3 per cent on the common stock ($30,000,000) to holders of record April

SENATE WILL BE REPUBLICAN

Democrats Gain 56 in House and Lose Only Six.

Montana Goes Democratic—Beveridge Loses Seat in Senate—Twenty-Seven Governors Chosen.

New York—The political upheaval of Tuesday was followed by a general survey of the field, which disclosed in greater detail and precision just what had been accomplished. Latest calculations on the national house of representatives, based on complete but unofficial returns, show that the Democrats will have a majority of 60.

The outcome of the United States senate is now definitely settled. The Republicans are assured of 17 new senators, which, with 34 hold-over senators, gives them a total of 51. The Democrats are assured of 16 new senators, which, with 25 hold-overs, give them a total of 41.

Returns late from Montana are to the effect that the Democrats have elected at least 53 members of the next state legislature, which means that a Democrat will be elected to succeed United States Senator Carter. Fifty-two votes are necessary to control on joint ballot. The senate will be Republican by a vote of 11 to 17, while the house will be Democratic by 42 to 32, according to practically complete returns.

These determined totals, however, leave a Republican majority in the senate as follows: Total membership, 92; necessary to majority, 47; Republicans, 51; Democrats, 41.

The table of losses and gains in the house shows that Democrats won 56 seats previously held by Republicans, while only six Republicans took places away from Democrats.

The 63d congress will be composed as follows:

Democrats—Alabama 9, Arkansas 7, Colorado 3, Florida 3, Georgia, 11, Illinois 6, Indiana 11, Iowa 1, Kentucky 8, Louisiana 6, Maryland 3, Massachusetts 4, Minnesota 1, Mississippi 8, Missouri 10, Nebraska 3, Nevada 1, New Jersey 3, New York 12, North Carolina 7, Ohio 8, Oklahoma, 2, Pennsylvania 5, South Carolina 7, Tennessee 8, Texas 15, Virginia 9, Wisconsin 1; total 172.

Republicans—California 8, Connecticut 5, Delaware 1, Idaho 1, Illinois 19, Indiana 2, Iowa 10, Kansas 8, Kentucky 3, Maine 4, Maryland 3, Massachusetts 9, Michigan 12, Minnesota 8, Missouri 6, Montana 1, Nebraska, 3, New Hampshire 2, New Jersey 7, New York 25, North Carolina 3, North Dakota 2, Ohio 13, Oklahoma 3, Oregon 2, Pennsylvania 27, Rhode Island 2, South Dakota 2, Tennessee 1, Utah 1, Vermont 2, Virginia 1, Washington 3, West Virginia 5, Wisconsin 10, Wyoming 1; total 215.

A summary of the contest for governorships in 27 states shows that 13 Republicans and 13 Democrats won, Idaho being in doubt. The successful candidates with their pluralities follow:

Pennsylvania, Tener, 33,000; New Hampshire, Bass, 70,000; Rhode Island, Pothier, 900; Iowa, Carroll, 10,000; Kansas, Stubbs, 10,000; Michigan, Osborn, 40,000; Minnesota, Eberhart, 50,000; Nebraska, Aldrich, 5,000; South Dakota, Vessey, 12,000; Wisconsin, McGovern; California, Johnson, 25,000; Nevada, Oddie; Tennessee, Hooper, 12,000.

Democrats—New York, Dix, 66,000; New Jersey, Wilson, 30,000; Connecticut, Baldwin, 3,500; Massachusetts, Foss, 33,000; Ohio, Harmon, 60,000; Oklahoma, Cruce; Colorado, Shafroth; Oregon, West; Wyoming, Carey; Alabama, O'Neill, 50,000; South Carolina, Blease, 60,000; Texas, Colquitt; North Dakota, Burke, 3,000.

New York—Commenting on the result of the elections, the New York papers generally regard it as a rebuke to Theodore Roosevelt and a death blow to his ambition and his new nationalism.

Mayor Gaynor is Satisfied.

New York—Mayor Gaynor said that he was satisfied with the results of the election. "I do not view the result in a partisan spirit or with a mere feeling of elation," said the mayor. "I see in it a readjustment of those voters throughout the country who are too intelligent to remain mere thick-and-thin partisans. The intelligence of the country is asserting itself, and business men and property owners will again divide themselves normally between the parties, as formerly, and as they do in other countries."

15 Bureaus Win in Ohio.

Cleveland, O.—Final unofficial figures on the Ohio election show that the Democrats have elected 15 out of 21 congressmen. The Cleveland News figures Judson Harmon, Democrat, has been re-elected governor by a plu-
