PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

Basketball practice is the order of the day.

Nearly all of our teachers attended the meeting at Cornelius Saturday, and report a fine time.

Some of our boys are trying their wind preparatory to entering some running stunts next spring.

The High School first basketball team will play the town team at Banks next Friday evening. A good game is predicted.

The State Teachers' Association will be held in the East Side Jefferson High School building December 21, 22 and 23. A good program has been arranged.

The second basketball team won a victory at Banks last Friday evening. The game was well attended and enthusiasm ran high, while the play was good, and exciting from start to finish.

The Manuel Training work is moving nicely and many articles of value are being turned out by the boys.

The various classes in sewing are doing their best to get their pieces of work finished before the Christmas holidays.

The first exhibit of sewing will be held in the sewing room of the Central Building from 1 to 3 p. m., Tuesday, December 20. All friends and parents are cordially invited to attend and see the beginning work of the classes.

Buy your Xmas gifts at Shearer's Jewelry Store. An excellent assortment to select from. 5-3t

The Christmas vacation begins Wednesday, December 21, and continues until January 2. The reason for allowing three days next week is on account of the State Teachers' Meeting at Portland which all teachers are required to attend.

Lincoln School Notes

All are looking forward to a Merry Christmas.

The first, second and third grades will join in rendering a short Christmas program.

At the last meeting of the Literary the question: "Resolved, that machinery has generally been beneficial to mankind," was debated. The negatives won.

The pictures won by the pupils for the least number of tardy marks during the month, went to the two primary rooms.

The ladies of the alter society of Cornelius, have presented the church with a beautiful set of figures representing the birth of Christ. Though small, the figures are well made and when displayed in the little stable, representing the place where Christ was born, they will add very materially to the solemnity of the beautiful feast of Christmas.

Father LeMiller closed the Forty Hours' Adoration at his church in Verboort on Sunday evening with benediction and sermon. There were two solemn high masses during the devotion and Father Buck preached the opening and closing sermons. It was largely attended from adjoining parishes and visiting clergy from various parts of the diocese were in attendance and assisted.
