Council Fixes Date For City Election

Monday night, at a special session of the city dads, January 19 was set as the date for the election of city officers; and the following election board was appointed: Judges, J. C. Clark, Charles Spaley and D. B. Bump; Clerks, Ed. Boos and Marion Markham.

At this election a Mayor is to be named, three Councilmen to serve two years and one to serve one year. A City Recorder and a Treasurer will also be selected.

Former Grove Belle Married

Word has reached this city of the marriage of Miss Mae Ballard to Mr. Chas. Pyron, at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ballard, in Independence. The bride is well known in Forest Grove and has many friends among the younger folk of the city. Mr. Ballard was in business here for a number of years. The couple will make their home in Carrolton, Wash.

Mothers' Meeting Success

The Mothers' Department of the W. C. T. U. held an interesting meeting at the Adventist Church, Thursday afternoon. It was conducted by Mrs. Vollmer, Superintendent of Mothers' meetings for the local union and the program presented was of unusual excellence.

Mrs. Bishop conducted the devotional exercises. Mrs. Gould read a poem which was suitable and well given. This was followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. Ferguson, who sang very sweetly George McDonald's "Where did you come from, baby dear?"

The address of the afternoon was given by Prof. Mary F. Farnham and her topic was "Reading in the Home." There was much of interest and profit in her address that every parent could profit by and that women present were deeply interested was shown by the discussion of the topic which followed. The discussion was ably led by Mrs. Carlisle, who was followed by others present.

Some differences of opinion was discussed regarding books which children should read, but this only added to the interest of the meeting, and furnished food for thought to those present.

Mrs. Vollmer announced that the meeting next month will have for its topic "Obedience" and the principal address will be given by Mrs. Livingstone.
