GUARDIAN'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of an order of sale duly made and entered of record by the County Court of Washington County, Oregon, on August 21, 1911, licensing me to sell at private sale, the real estate, hereinafter described, belonging to Walter J. McPherson, a minor, I will from and after Oct. 2, 1911, proceed to sell, at private sale, to the highest bidder for cash in hand at the time of sale, an undivided one third interest of, in and to the following described real property situated in the County of Washington and State of Oregon, to-wit: In Fruitvale Addition to City of Forest Grove particularly described as follows: That part of lot number ten of said Fruitvale Addition situated south of the roadway of the Oregon and California Railroad cutting through said lot, and east of the center line if extended of the forty foot roadway leading south between lots two and three of said tract, containing about ten acres, particularly described as follows: Beginning at the southeast corner of said lot ten, running thence north 12.57 chains to the right of way of said railroad; thence southwesterly following the south side of said right of way to the intersection of the center line of the forty foot roadway if extended, running between lots two and three of said tract; thence south following said center line of said roadway to the south line of said lot ten; thence east to the place of beginning.

Bids will be received by me at the law office of M. Bailey Bump, in Hillsboro, Oregon, and said sale will be subject to confirmation by the County Court of Washington County, Oregon.

Dated at Hillsboro, Oregon, this 28th day of August, 1911.

ELLA McPHERSON,
 Guardian of the person and estate of Walter J. McPherson, a minor.
 M. Bailey Bump,
 Attorney for Guardian. 5t

David's Hill

Mrs. Walter Goss and Miss Agnes Catlin of Portland spent Sunday at Prof. J. C. Hazzard's place.

Reuters finished picking their hops Wednesday. The crop was very good considering the weather.

Several of the prune driers on the Hill started up this week. The prunes are not quite ripe enough yet, but most of the growers were afraid to leave them longer. The rain has split a large part of them in most orchards.

Otto Parsons spent Sunday with J. A. Patersons.

The grapes have suffered somewhat from the rain. They have not ripened and in many places are rotting.

Miss Gertrude Reuter who has been spending a few weeks at her father's place on the Hill has returned to Portland to resume her studies at the Washington high school.

A number of people from the Hill attended John DeMoss's sale last Saturday and helped to make the bidding spirited.

J. H. Brokaw has begun work on his prune drier. He does not expect to have it ready for this years crop, but will dry his prunes at Paterson's.

Watts Items

The prune driers on the hill will start this week and the hop-pickers will have a new job.

J. H. DeMoss's sale last Saturday was well attended and everything sold fairly well.

Wesley Kennedy had the misfortune to break his left arm Monday, by falling from his pony and striking his arm. Dr. Hines set the bones.

Surveyors are finding the lines of the Watts' place this week and last. They are staying at Mr. Frost's.

We shall have help in our Sunday School for awhile—a gentleman and his wife from east of Forest Grove are going to help us out. They are very welcome.

Mrs. DeMoss and son ate dinner at T. B. Stevenson's, Sunday.

Tuesday evening there was a special school meeting to elect a director in the place of John DeMoss who resigned. Allan Dille was elected after a spirited race with Phillip Lesser.

Gales Creek Items

N. C. Lilly, our merchant, was quite sick several days last week.

Maude and Norman Lilly went to Forest Grove, Monday, where Maude will attend college and Norman will take a High School course.

Bruce McCann, who has been working near Gaston was home Saturday and Sunday, but is in Portland now.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lilly, of Glenwood, Sept. 15, a daughter.

Miss Emma Wilson is attending High School at Forest Grove this winter.

Misses Alice and May McCann were shopping in Forest Grove, Monday. Miss Alice went on to Portland to visit friends there.

Dille Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Linegar and Mr. and Mrs. Briggs went in Linegar's auto to Beaverton and visited over Sunday with W. Pegg's and family.

Matt Pehl was down from his hill farm Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hubbert left for Canada to spend a year with their son.

Mr. Patten, who had his foot crushed is able to be up a little. We hope for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. C. A. Brodersen received her gold watch in the Pacific Homestead contest and it is a beauty. She is now working for the piano.

Garden Knight is working for J. W. Hughes.

Mrs. Hubbert took her son, Raymond, to Portland to have his tonsils removed.

Mrs. La Reu, Mrs. Thornburg and Mrs. Scott called at the home of Mrs. Sailing, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Hughes visited her parents Sunday at Cornelius.

Miss Tsenberg and Mr. Japlin, of Portland, visited at the Blue Bell Dairy over Sunday.

The circus is over and we think they were all there.
