

A Good Hair-Food

Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, is a genuine hair-food. It feeds, nourishes, builds up, strengthens, invigorates. The hair grows more rapidly, keeps soft and smooth, and all dandruff disappears. Aid nature a little. Give your hair a good hair-food.

You need not hesitate about using this new Hair Vigor from any fear of its changing the color of your hair. The new Ayer's Hair Vigor prevents premature grayness, but does not change the color of the hair even to the slightest degree.

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

First Aid.

She's such a help to her clever husband. Everybody knows that he is a genius, but few are next to the fact that little wife aids him in his every activity. We got a look-in at this state of affairs at the surprise party we gave him the other night.

When the food had been discussed he was called on for a speech, of course. He arose from his seat beside his wife—he hemmed and hawed, and then he said:

"Ladies and gentlemen—I am totally unprepared, of course, and—er—being as I said totally unprepared, you must—er excuse me for being—er—unprepared. I—er—ah—I was hardly prepared for this—er" And then his wife interrupted:

"Why, darling," she said, "you knew it perfectly this morning. The next sentence begins, 'Knowing as I do.' Now can you go from there?" What helps they are, these anxious wives.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Deuced Bad Form.

The first night Walter Kelly, known to vaudeville as the "Virginia Judge," walked up the Strand he complained to his English companion that the most famous street in London was dark at 9 o'clock.

"Why," he said, "at this hour Broadway is as bright as day. There is one sign alone, 'The Chariot Race,' in which there are 50,000 electric lights."

"But I say, old top, said his English friend, 'wouldn't that be rather conspicuous?' — Cincinnati Times-Star.

BEACHY A POPULAR BIRD MAN

The first cross-country race between aviators in this country was won by Lincoln Beachy, who flew from New York to Philadelphia, winning a prize of $5,000. He also won several prizes at the recent international meet in Chicago, and excited plaudits from the thousands of spectators by his many daring "circus stunts" in the air. Beachy not long ago attracted attention by his daring flights at Niagara Falls. Driving a Curtiss biplane, he flew over the Falls, down under the suspension bridge and over the death-dealing rapids. Frequently his machine was so close to the water that he was drenched with spray. Beachy is 21 years of age, and is one of the Curtiss flyers. He is an ambitious aviator, understands his machine perfectly and never fails to perform brilliantly.

In the great cross-country race which he won, there were three competitors who started on the long journey. Beachy made a brilliant flight, making one landing at Trenton, where His actual flying time between the two cities was 2 hours 22 2-5 minutes. Most of the way he flew at the rate of a mile a minute.

MADE SPECTACULAR CAMPAIGN

James K. Vardaman, who has been chosen at the primaries for the Mississippi seat in the United States senate, was formerly governor of the state. He was elected governor in 1903 and was defeated for senator by John Sharp Williams in 1907 and by Senator Percy in 1910.

Mr. Vardaman used spectacular methods in his recent unique senate campaign. One hundred and sixty oxen, harnessed in eighty spans, drew a chariot upon which Mr. Vardaman rode through the streets of Meridian in a most spectacular parade during his tour of Mississippi in the interest of his candidacy. There were five brass bands, and a guard of 100 prominent citizens rode horseback. Then came the Vardaman "car." The great string of animals, all white, carried white streamers bearing the legend: "Vote for the white chief!" and "Uphold the white South."

On the back of each ox was a man, shrouded in white. At each animal's head walked a white-clad torch-bearer. A sort of throne was erected in the ox wagon and upon this sat Vardaman. The candidate was in immaculate white linen and had a big white hat. His long hair fell free down his shoulders and was set off by the linen.

PUGILIST AND CLASS LEADER

A. J. Drexel Biddle is probably one of the most unique personalities in the world. In him are united three distinct characteristics that are in every way opposite to one another. He is Philadelphia's millionaire society man, star pugilist and successful Bible class leader. He is a young man full of energy and spirit and so far he has made his career a unique one. He is known almost as well in Europe as in this country and since coming into his wealth has made himself known as a worker for the cause of philanthropy.

Mr. Biddle began life as a newspaper reporter. At the age of 19 he was an athletic young fellow, with a perfect passion for boxing. He would box with any one and at any time. This is the man who has for years been giving his time to philanthropic work in Philadelphia. He is a member of the fashionable Church of the Holy Trinity, in Rittenhouse Square. In the parish house of the church, which is equipped with a commodious gymnasium, Mr. Biddle has found ideas of what up-to-date Christianity ample room for the furtherance of his should be.

FRICK OUT OF U. P. BOARD

The retirement of Henry Clay Frick from the directorate of the Union Pacific Railroad company, was recently announced. His friends assert he felt it was not in keeping with the spirit of the times for a director in one railroad to have an influential voice in the affairs of an active competitor. He has very large holdings in the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe.

Henry Clay Frick's career and material success is closely interwoven with the history of the steel and iron industry. He was one of Andrew Carnegie's lieutenants, and was deep in the confidence of that ironmaster. They had a serious disagreement, however, when Mr. Carnegie took over the $1,000,000 forfeit money which Frick deposited as a "binder" to buy the Carnegie properties but which project failed. Later Carnegie sold his interests to the United States Steel corporation for at least three times the price he named to Frick and associates.

Union Pacific and Atchison are so-called competing roads at many points and Mr. Frick had interests in both

Music is the nearest at hand, the most orderly, the most delicate and the most perfect of all bodily pleasures; it is also the only one which is equally helpful to all the ages of man; helpful from the nurse's song to her infant—to the music, unheard of others, which often, if not most frequently, haunts the deathbed of pure and innocent spirits.—Ruskin.

Sign of Superiority.
"Some of the primitive instincts linger in the highest civilization," said the statesman. "Yes," replied the ethnologist; "many of our communities cannot get away from the idea savages all have that a man who manages to get possession of a high silk hat is thereby qualified to be a leader."

AFTER 7 YEARS SUFFERING

I Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Waurika, Okla.—"I had female troubles for seven years, was all run down and so nervous I could not do anything. The doctor treated me for different things but did me no good. I got so bad that I could not sleep day or night. While in this condition I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and began its use and in a short time I had gained my average weight and am now strong and well."
—Mrs. SALLIE STEVENS, R. F. D., No. 3, Box 31, Waurika, Okla.

Another Grateful Woman.
Huntington, Mass.—"I was in a nervous, run down condition and for three years could find no help. I owe my present good health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier which I believe saved my life."
—Mrs. MARI JANETTE BATES, Box 134, Huntington, Mass.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, and nervous prostration.
