Sooner or later most of us get what we deserve.

Uncle Sam knows now how the old fashioned young man felt who was "given the mitten."

Heated conversations may make an office warm, but never comfortable.

Sometimes when you put your shoulder to the wheel you have to shove the whole load.

Harmony should be on the job at home as well as at concerts and political conventions.

The war cloud has moved from western Europe. Always there is a war cloud somewhere on the continent.

When the average man gets what he really deserves he begins to howl to the effect that he is being persecuted.

A minister once said: "My brother, your trouble is you live in Grumblers' Alley; why not move up in Hallelujah Row?"

Why will a man wait for his cent from the newsboy and turn around and give a groveling waiter a dime for passing a glass of water.

The man who can't has this advantage over the man who can:
someone else does the "canning for him."

"If you have faith, preach it; if you have joy, share it; if you have sorrow, bear it. Find the bright side of things and help others to get sight of it also.
This is the only and surest way to be cheeful and happy.

If the common earth worm is cut in two the new parts immediately become worms and there are two instead of one. It is the same way with a lot of men, misfortune only doubles their strength and vigor and calamity brings out the best there is in them.

Few of the people of the town know what an incentive it is to both teachers and pupils for the citizens of the town to take an interest in the work of the public schools. The people who have children in the different grades should visit school occasionally and show that they are interested in the work of their young hopefuls. The school teacher does not have a bed of roses by any means, and a little interest and encouragement will do a lot to make their life easier.

If worry kills and work worries, what's the use of working?

Being a vice-president is almost as unimportant as being a bridegroom at a church wedding.

Words are sometimes the result of thought, but too often they are not.

Virtue is its own reward alright, but the trouble many times is that men can't live on virtue alone.

England is quoted at taking the defeat of reciprocity as a victory over the United States.
History doesn't record any other victories of England over this country, and the most recent one is a far-fetched one to say the least.

There is a habit and a delusion among many people to go to near by towns to shop, believing that they can buy cheaper there. We think that these good people may be buncoed by their own thought.
Please reckon your railroad fare and your time, if the latter is worth anything. If the merchants here try to soak you or have not what you want, you are then justified in going elsewhere.
But first get prices here and look over the lines of our local merchants. It will be found that they can sell you goods as cheap as you can buy elsewhere and pay the freight, and their lines are up to date.

Stingers

When people fight over religion it's a sure sign that they've got none.

Love thy neighbor as thyself, but pick thy neighbor and be sure she is not a widow.

The summer has been hot, and by the way what time of year was it that Colonel Noah pulled his flood.

A Socialist's idea of heaven is a place where nobody else wants to talk and everybody is willing to sit around and listen.

Scientists are excited over the effects of odors on digestion. The odor of a rum-soaked, red likkerstuffed politician always affects our appetite.

Give to your friends the flowers they earn while they are alive, and can appreciate them, and profit by them, and don't wait to walk out to the silent city and hang your bouquets on cold marble above the stilled heart of a new tenant.

Did you ever see a drunk man?
How like an idiot he looks. He staggers like an old rooster, sick with the cholera. He poisons the air with his fetid breath. He emits profanity. He uses the language of hell in bad grammar.

Socialists keep hammering away in their little papers about the rapid growth of Socialism.
"Growth" is the proper word to describe it. And it is a worse growth than a tumor, a bunion or a seedy wart. And the best regulated system in the world will sometimes breed these pestiferous "growths."
Don't bellyache so much, Mr. Socialist. The world existed many years before you were born and it will be jogging along fairly well a good many years after your fool isms are dead and damned.
The grimmest satire on humanity of which any genius could conceive is a dude hitched to a cigarette. And yet that dude was once a boy.
The only action of value is the action of intellect. There can be
