S. S. Class Banquet

The Maximum S. S. Class of the M. E. Church banqueted its members last Friday evening most royally at the church parlors. And they that did eat were about twenty young men besides an equal number of young ladies and a few invited guests. Tables were laid for fifty, but only about forty members registered at the door.

The early part of the evening was spent in a social way—a bounteous repast following. This all came to a grand climax with a number of toasts when the festivities were over.

Vernon Gould, president of the class, acted as toast master and the following responded:

H. Turner.... "Maximum Class"
A. A. Kirkwood... "Our Duties"
Elsie Lathrop..... "Our Motto"
Lillian Elder..... "Friendships"
Martha Martin, "Honorary Members." Mr. Mercer, "How the Class Appears to a New Member." Prof. Gardner, "Work Worth While." Rev. Gould, "More Things are Wrought by Prayer than this World Knows of."

Meeting of Cow Testing Ass'n

The annual meeting of the Washington County Cow Testing Association will be held in the Courthouse at Hillsboro, Saturday, Nov. 18, at 11 a. m. There will be both morning and afternoon sessions. There is much important business to be transacted and every member as well as others interested in the development of the dairy business should arrange to be present. In addition to the regular business the officers are preparing an interesting program. Further particulars will be given next week.

Programs of the Fourth Annual Meeting of the Oregon Society of Mutual Insurance Companies are being distributed. The meeting will be held at Forest Grove November 15th and 16th, beginning at 10 a. m. A good program has been arranged and it is hoped that a good attendance will be given.

JUST FOR FUN

ONLY A LITTLE THING—BUT
A burglar, who was caught in the act of stealing a baby, with other household valuables, was severely lectured by the judge. "Why in the world," he asked of the prisoner, "did you try to take that innocent child away from his parents?"

"Sure," was the reply, "I didn't think anybody would mind little thing like that."
