Word was received at Forest Grove the last of the week that Andrew Carnegie will not increase his original offer of $20,000 for a Carnegie library at Pacific University. He offered $20,000 on the terms that the institution raise an additional $20,000. Friends of the University secured $30,000 and had hoped to get an additional $10,000 from Mr. Carnegie.

The University of Oregon requires 1200 cords of wood per annum, nine cords being used in a single winter's day.
