Prudent men look up their motives, letting familiars have a key to their hearts as to their gardens.—Shenstone.

Nineteen hundred and twelve will have fifty-three Sundays. It is said that one hundred and nine years will elapse before the same thing will occur again.

In his speech in an eastern city Senator Clapp declared that Senator LaFollett is the greatest constructive statesman of the age. Heretofore Roosevelt has enjoyed that distinction in the minds and hearts of the people, but it seems a new idol has arisen to displace the old.

Favor 10 Mill Road Tax.

That the proposition of levying a 10 mill tax for building good roads is gaining in favor is shown by the following:

Buxton, Nov. 21, 1911. To County Officers—

At a recent meeting of Green Mountain Grange No. 295 a resolution was passed commending the action of the county court regarding building roads in Washington county: Whereas, they propose to levy a ten mill road and bridge tax, money to be expended in district where it was raised. Signed, Benton Phillips

G. Master.
Mrs. McParland, Sec.

The Bazaar people are selling Xmas gifts every day now. People realize that they have a better selection to pick from now than later in the season, and they know that the store, during the month of December, is always so overcrowded that it is hard to get a good look at the beautiful things on display there.

Mrs. E. E. Williams entertained the F. G. B. C. at her home last Thursday evening. Father Buck was a guest. Mrs. Thornburg and W. B. Haines won first prize. Mrs. McEldowney and Father Buck won the consolation prize. Dainty refreshments were served, and all enjoyed a delightful evening.

Why pay ten dollars for a map which merely shows Washington County, when you can get one on a larger scale showing everything from the Willamette River west to the west boundary of the county, size 50x67 inches for $7.50, or a pocket size 24x33 in. for $2. Get it of your bookseller or address T. S. Wilkes & Son, Hillsboro, Oregon.

What could you give your folks for Xmas they would enjoy any better than an Edison phonograph? They are the same price the world over, so you can buy them at the Bazaar as cheap as in Chicago. You can get them for a small payment down and $4 to $5 per month. K. N. Staehr has just got in some of the latest styles of the Edison machines, and they are a wonder to everybody who has heard them.

Rev. C. F. Swander will preach at the Christian Church Sunday morning. Rev. Swander is the Cor. Secretary of Oregon Missions and has a great message with regard to his work. It is hoped that every member will hear him. In the evening the pastor continues his special evening sermons. Subject for next Sunday evening, "If Christ Should Come to Forest Grove. Splendid interest is being manifested. You are welcome.

To make room for Xmas goods that are coming in every day and nearly crowding us out of the building, we will sell our entire stock of sewing machines at greatly reduced prices. We will sell the latest improved Singer and New Home machines from $36.25 to $41.50. The same machines are sold by agents from $60 to $75. We have other makes of fine machines of the latest types, with automatic lift, that we sell from $20 to $27.50. All machines are fully guaranteed and are supplied with a full set of the latest improved attachments. $5.00 down and $4.00 per month get any of them, if taken at once.
