DOCTOR DELONG DESERTS HIS WIFE

Now Being Sought by Authorities for Bigamy—Left Thanksgiving Day.

Dr. DeLong, electrical practitioner, who came to the Grove early last spring, and went under the name of Hicks, is wanted by wife No. 2. DeLong worked for J. N. Hoffman and M. S. Allen in their hopyard during the summer. He picked up what practice he could get in the Thatcher neighborhood.

He married Mrs. DeLong at Missoula, Mont., a short time before they came here and they lived in and near this city up until last Thursday, when he told his wife that he would go to McMinnville. He had practiced in that city at one time and pretended that he was going there to find rooms and would then send for her. Instead of going to McMinnville he took the car for Portland and from there telephoned Groceryman Nicholson that he was going to Washington and would write his wife instructions to join him. The letter came and following instructions she went to Kennewick, and found that DeLong had been there but had left without leaving any explanations or address. Mrs. DeLong went from there to North Yakima where DeLong had lived and practiced.

Here to her surprise she heard that DeLong had a wife living in Spokane. This she learned from the mother of wife No. 1. Mrs. DeLong No. 2 returned to the Grove yesterday and will appear before the Prosecuting Attorney today and file charges of bigamy against DeLong.

When DeLong left the city he had about $300 on his person.

Mrs. DeLong No. 2 is heart-broken and is practically without any means and will return to her former home in Nebraska soon.

The Social Commission Meeting of Forest Grove, Ore.

DEATHS

PARKER

Marion H. Parker, aged 65 years, died at his home in Forest Grove November 29. Funeral services were held at the residence Dec. 2, conducted by Rev. Thomas, interment in Banks cemetery.

Mr. Parker is survived by a widow and four daughters. He was a veteran of the civil war and the casket was draped with the flag. His relatives and friends formed one of the largest congregations at a funeral in this part of the country. The ladies of Banks sang several selections which were much appreciated by the family.

Johnnie Lee Cook; son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cook, of this city, died at the home of his parents Dec. 3rd, aged 21 years. Funeral services were held in the Forest Grove Undertaking parlors Monday, Dec. 4, at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Gould. Interment made in Forest View cemetery.

Co-operative Trust Company of Portland

At a recent meeting the Board of Directors have declared a three per cent quarterly dividend during the year of 1912, whereas the first dividend is payable Feb. 1 on all the issued stock up to that date.

The Co-operative Trust Company, at the present time, is earning better than thirty per cent per annum on the par value of the stock. Should you make your investment at this particular time, when the stock is being offered on the same basis which the other stockholders and officers made their investment, you can readily appreciate the increase on the investment, beside yielding a handsome rate of income. Such an opportunity to obtain a generous portion of the splendid earnings of this concern is an exceptional one for investors.

The industry of building homes is an enormous one. Each year over four hundred city acres are built upon with homes. Approximately $100,000,000 is expended annually on the Pacific Coast for homes. Consider that there was expended in the City of Portland last year $1,000,000 per month for homes. There are a number of instances where people have invested as small amounts as $200 in building companies, and are receiving annually a dividend of $2,500 a year. These fortunes are being made by the few who have had the opportunity to become interested in them.

If you accept this opportunity you will become a member of a dividend paying company, owning one of the most popular subdivisions in the City of Portland, known as Oregon Heights, and an enterprise that bears one of the most prominent and respectable names in the homebuilding business in Portland. For particulars address Co-operative Trust Co., 404 Yeon Bldg., Portland, Ore.

Celebrated His 50th Birthday

M. S. Allen passed his 50th birthday Saturday and in honor of the occasion a number of friends and relatives were invited. A most excellent dinner was served and the host and hostess acted as toastmasters. The ladies present gave their experiences in managing their husbands. The gentlemen told how they managed their wives. The editor and his wife were present and after listening to the many talks as to the ease with which wives and husbands managed each other we unwillingly fell into the trap with prevarication so as to avoid future punishment. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. W. Q. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Litter and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hoffman. The evening was pleasantly spent and all wished the host as many more happy years.

OUR NEW PRESS

WE have every reason to feel grateful to our many friends who have made it possible for us to purchase our new Campbell Printing Press. The machine was installed last week and proved its good work. The Press office, with its present machinery and equipment, equals any country office. We hope in the future to be able to merit the confidence reposed in us.

Permits for Child Labor

Permits can be given to children who are 15 years of age and thro the 6th grade; to children who are over 14 and have a graduation diploma from the grammar grades in the Oregon schools; for work after school and on Saturday to children over 14, but they must be instructed to bring school report to the office each month that we may know that the child has attended school the entire month and has not stayed out of school to work.

No permit can be given to a child under the age of 15 except as above; under 16 unless thro the 6th grade; for work after 6 o'clock to any child under 16; to any child under 16 for telephone, telegraph or public messenger service.

All cases of children under 15 out of school refer to truant officer.

All cases of children out of school and working belong to Child Labor Commission. Notify employer and parent that permit must be secured or the child must return to school. Call up the school where child should attend and ask to be notified if the child does or does not return to school.

Apply to Prof. O. M. Gardner for permits.

Letters of Appreciation

To the Editor of the Press.

Dear Sir:—

I wish to express my appreciation for the prize in which I received on the contest and will say that I think your ads are very systematically arranged. I will guess on your next contest, which I hope will soon come. I read your paper and cannot help but see your ads.

Very truly,

G. H. JACKSON.

Editor of the Forest Grove Press.

Dear Sir:—

I wish to express my appreciation of your plan of getting people to read the advertisements in your paper and in connection therewith say that as I was one of the successful contestants for guessing the best advertisement I also appreciate the premium received. We pay for advertisements to have them read and we think your plan a novel and successful one.

Yours truly,

C. L. WAGNER.

When we are doing our best to get the news and boil them down so as to say as much as possible in a few words that we may not crowd out some good item and then get jabbed and scolded for overlooking the going to Portland of Mary or Jane, John or Sam, (who don't go quite often enough to let the type stand) we do feel somewhat humiliated (?) but we get balm for our wounds when our reader friends call on us with compliments for our newspaper and articles that have hit the spot.

"What are they moving this church for?" "Well stranger, I'm mayor and I'm for enforcement of the law. We've got an ordinance what says no saloon shall be nearer than a block from a church, so I give 'em three days to move the church."

"Papa, aren't you afraid of a cross dog?" "Certainly not." "Well, ain't you afraid of thunder?" "Not at all my child." "Well then, papa, you are not afraid of nothing or anybody, only mamma."

Next week we will again offer you an opportunity to select your choice of the ads that appear in this paper. Remember we give $5 to have our readers read the ads. See announcement on first page.
