Utterly Wretched
Nervous Prostration Long Endured Before Remedy Was Found.
 Miss Minerva Reminger, Upper Bern, Pa., writes: "For several years I had nervous prostration, and was utterly wretched. I lived on bread and beef tea because my stomach would not retain anything else. I took many remedies, but obtained no relief until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, when I began to gain at once. Am now cured."
 Pure, rich blood makes good, strong nerves, and this is why Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies and enriches the blood, cures so many nervous diseases. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

London the Greatest Market.
 London is the world's greatest market for tea and ivory, said Mr. J. G. Broadbank of the Port Authority at the Society of Arts, a few days ago. Each year 120,000 tons of tea and the product of 20,000 elephants reached London. Forty million sheep's fleeces pass through the dock annually. In one warehouse 100,000,000 cigars are stored, and in another 2,500,000 gallons of rum.

 How it Worked.
 "How did that assembled car of yours work, Slithers?" asked Blidd. "Oh, like a good many other assemblies—when we got out on the road with it there'd always be some kind of a deadlock, and we couldn't pass anything," said Slithers.—Harper's Weekly.

Needed Encouragement.
 The Young Doctor—"They tell me you are noted for encouraging your patients." The Successful Old Doctor—"Yes. Many of my wealthiest patients think they are sick when there is nothing the matter with them—and I always encourage them."

The Main Attraction.
 Popular approval wouldn't be so much sought after if it didn't carry a salary.—Atchison Globe.

Digestive Properties of Eggs.
 The latest news of how eggs go in the stomach is: Two freshest soft-boiled, one and three-quarters hours; two raws, two and one-quarter hours; hard-boiled, three hours; omelette, three hours. The figures speak for themselves, but do not tell the whole truth, for it looks as if soft-boiled are more easily digested than raws, whereas, raws are so bland and gentle as not to excite the flow of the gastric juices—not a single squirm of the stomach.—New York Press.

Degrees of Opinion.
 Let us not say to ourselves that the best truth always lies in moderation, in the decent average. . . . At the time of the Spanish Inquisition the opinion of good sense and of the just medium was certainly that people ought not to burn too large a number of heretics; extreme and unreasonable opinion demanded that they should burn none at all.—Maeterlinck.

Gate Between Two Rooms.
 It proved a blessing in one house. It is fastened in the doorway, between the nursery and "mother's room." There are times when the mother likes to watch the children without being right among them. Often sewing or writing may be done more easily with the gate between the mother and the little ones.—Ladies' Home Journal.

The Only Authorities.
 One preacher declares that childless wives ought to be shipped out of the country. Then who would write for the newspapers, telling mothers how to take care of their babies?—Toledo Blade.

Only Ordinary.
 Piffle—"They say he is a criminal lawyer." Pottle—"Yes; but I don't believe he is specially so."—The Pathfinder.

Ready With Suggestion.
 A superintendent of a city Sunday school endeavored to give the summer meetings added attractiveness. Upon a certain warm Sunday lemonade was served. At the close of the service the superintendent announced that slips of paper would be passed round and the pupils allowed to make suggestions as to methods of making the meetings still more attractive. One youngster wrote: "Put more sugar in the lemonade."

Didn't Concern Him.
 John Wesley had a reputation for cheerfulness. In his journal he writes: "I preached in Halifax to a civil, senseless congregation. Three or four gentlemen put me in mind of the honest man at London who was so gay and unconcerned while Doctor Sherlock was preaching concerning the Day of Judgment. One asked: 'Do you not hear what the doctor says?' He answered, 'Yes, but I am not of his parish!'"

Live in the Present.

 Keep Plants Free From Dust.
 Dust is an enemy to plant life. Plants breathe through their leaves; therefore it is necessary to keep them free from dust. At least once a week, and oftener if the room is very warm or dusty, the plants should be put in the bathtub on their side and gently sprinkled with a bath spray.

Degrees of Patience.
 Patience in cowards is tame and hopeless fear; but in brave minds a scorn of what they bear.—Sir R. Howard.

Love's Spirit Stirring.
 "Judge," said the old colored citizen, "how much for a license ter git married?" "Want it for yourself?" "Yes, sah; you see I gittin' mighty old now." "That's evident. Then why do you wish to get married?" "Well, judge, ter tell de truth, somebody gimme a long coat, a linen collar an a walkin' cane, en I knows a 'oman what says she kin make a livin' fer me, en I feels dese like a honeymoon!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Her View of It.
 The childish daughter of the house had been sent into the parlor to entertain the unexpected guest. The woman inquired, by way of making conversation, where was the child's brother. "He's gone to the school of ministers to be pastorized," she was respectfully informed.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Never Drink Water.
 In Lower California a large number of the smaller desert mammals never drink water, according to American scientists who have recently visited the peninsula. They live and thrive on dry seeds and scraps of vegetation in places where the heat and aridity are excessive without ever touching their lips to water, and it has even been found impossible to teach some of them to take water in captivity.

The Point of the Story.
 A mother was greatly worried by her small daughter's habit of running away. Thinking to impress the child with the danger of getting lost, she told her a vivid story of some children who ran away to go nutting. Night found them far from home and lost in the woods. With much art the mother told of a storm in the night and of the terrible distress of the parents and friends who hunted for the children until morning. She also told about the good breakfast prepared for the children, which they missed because they did not reach home till 10 o'clock.
 The little girl listened intently to every word, and the mother hoped that the story was making an impression. When she finished the child was silent for a few moments, as if expecting something more. Then she asked, eagerly: "Did they get any nuts?"—Metropolitan Magazine.

Too Piebald.
 Russian caviare is now touted as a cure for cholera. One will notice that the doctors were too proud to discover corned beef and cabbage, or something within the reach of all.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"Look-Out Mountain."
 "Better pull down the window curtains," said the guest at the mountain hotel to his wife; "remember the mountain peaks."—Boston Transcript.

Foolish.
 "That heless is going to marry a struggling young man." "If she is a sure-enough heless what's he struggling for?"—Houston Post.

THE HEART
 If the blood is poor and filled with the poisons from diseased kidneys or inactive liver, the heart is not starved but poisoned as well. There are many conditions due to impure blood—such as dropsy, fainting spells, nervous debility or the many scrofulous conditions, ulcers, "fever-sores," white swellings, etc. All can be overcome and cured by
Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery
 This supplies pure blood—by aiding digestion, increasing assimilation and imparting tone to the whole circulatory system. Its aortic tonic and a great deal more, having an alternative action on the liver and kidneys, it helps to eliminate the poisons from the blood.
 To enrich the blood and increase the red blood corpuscles, thereby feeding the nerves on rich red blood and doing away with nervous irritability, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and do not permit a dishonest dealer to insult your intelligence with the "just as good kind." The "Discovery" has 40 years of cures behind it and contains no alcohol or narcotics. Ingredients plainly printed on wrapper.
 Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of wrapping and mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the French cloth-bound book. Address: Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PASTORAL OF THE BIG CITY
 As Sun Sinks, Policemen Seek Cafe's Back Room and Footpad Prepares for Duty.
 The sun was sinuously sinking behind a few thousand buildings, varying in height from the one-story edifice on the western water front to the 20-story warehouse adjacent. It may seem odd to say that the sun was sinking sinuously, but it had to sink in that way to give a proper performance and dye the corners of each and every building with its rosy stain. Up in the edge of the sky you could see dusk getting ready to do business. The evening chimes rang out from 118 trolley cars in the immediate vicinity, and the softly musical resonance of the far away elevated filtered through the circumambient air. It had to filter to get through, as a couple of thousand chimneys were on the job.
 The lone policeman on the beat folded his tent like an Arab and as silent stole into the nearest cafe. Here were other policemen. One would have said half the metropolitan force was in the back room, but this was not true. Only one-fifth of the force was there. Without the evening shadows began to fall and the trusty foot pad adjusted his rubber heels and heaved a sigh, feeling sorrowful, he knew not why, yet prepared to do his duty.
 The sun had now entirely disappeared into New Jersey—which is suffering enough for one night.
 We decline to prolong this pastoral—Judge.
