

EVERY ARTICLE IN MY STORE GREATLY REDUCED

GEO. G. PATERSON'S

REMOVAL SALE

Furniture, Rugs, Carpets, Linoleums, Oil-cloth, Mattings, Paints, Oils, Wall Paper, Etc.

As my lease expires January 1, 1912, and I haven't secured a store building to move into, have decided to sell my $9,000 stock of Furniture, Pianos and in fact everything in my store at a big discount---in fact some articles below Cost---in order to make a quick turn. Every article will have the old selling tag on and the discount price marked in plain figures.

The first customers will have the cream of the sale. When stock is exhausted the sale is off.

Paints will be closed out as quick-ly as possible at Cost. If you intend to paint in the near future, it will pay you to take advantage of this. Have a good assortment of colors on hand.

Varnish My Entire Stock of Varnishes will be Sold at a Discount. I have a big stock on hand. Hurry, it is yours

I have a beautiful prize in my window for the one holding the correct number. A number will be given with each $1 purchase, which gives you a chance to win it

The little daughters of Ed Allen, of North Yamhill, are spending the holidays with their cousins, Charlotte and Harold Allen. Christmas eve proved a very merry time for the little folk, as Santa Claus made his call early in the evening which allowed them ample time to inspect their new things before going to bed.

Mrs. M. E. Hall spent Wednesday and Thursday with Mrs. M. Powers, east of Forest Grove. Mrs. Powers has been quite ill the past few weeks.

J. E. Honey, who was badly hurt last week by a loaded wagon passing over him while returning home from Gothenburg, was brought to Gand today and taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. H. McLeay, where he will receive good care and closer attention of the doctor.—Arnold Sentinel. Mr. Honey at one time operated a saw mill in the Banks vicinity.

Mrs. Herman Krahmer, who underwent an operation at the Forest Grove sanitarium last week, was removed to her home in Gaston the first of the week. She is fast improving and will be able to be out in a few days.

John D. Foote, once editor of this paper for a short time, writes one of his friends here that he has abandoned journalism and the law and has accepted a position in the First National Bank at Blue Field, W. Va.
