There Are Others

(Dedicated to the Seer of David's Hill)

I would say to the poet of tree and vine There are other sorrows, as well as thine, "Go West, young man," H. Greeley said

On wings of hope therefor I fled. From Iowa's most bitter weather Still farther west, I cared not whither, I journeyed on through Kansas land Till I struck the "Wild Horse Creek" of sand.

Here in this land called the "Country of God"

I built me a house of buffalo sod. I broke up some land, I planted some grain I then broke myself while waiting for rain.

The greatest stories I would hear How there was raised three crops a year.

Like a "tender foot" I planted my corn Then watched for the three crops in their turn.

The stalk, chinch bugs, and hoppers on top

That was what grew to make the three crops.

They told me then this land's design Was meant for cattle, sheep and swine. I dropped my wad "I had no dust." So I bought stock of those who'd trust. I turned my cattle out to roam.

The frisky blizzard took them home. I turned my eyes and fixed my hopes On hay-fed hogs tied out on ropes. Alas! The hot winds blew until— They were too dry to hold their swill. In this land of God's they got no shade So they went to the cooler clime of Hades.

Now in this land of corn and wine With worms and bugs on every vine I sit and thus soliloquize.

And think whether I am very wise To live in a land of such repute

Where everything is in dispute, Where hot winds come from torrid south

And cook our crops with fevered drouth. Then cold winds blow from frigid zone

And chill the marrow of our bones, Where people lie and steal and cheat

To try and move their county seat, With chums of drunks and black descent

And "Pukes," who'd steal the dead "coon's cent,"

And to exist, the Lord knows how, To burn what's dropped behind the cow,

This land of sand and railroad tax With feet wrapped up in gunnysacks,

Where children daily cry for bread To keep them warm they're sent to bed.

So I resolved; to cure this ill I'd trade my farm for David's Hill.

So to the Seer of the Willamette I'll swap my ranch. I will, Gosh d-----!

(Pronounce it so it rhymes with Milk-apsie.)

LOCAL NEWS

The Oregon Nursery Company, of Orenco, have had phenomenal success in the nursery business. The managers, who are thorough business men and fully acquainted with the nursery business, certainly have merited the liberal patronage they have received. The tree planters of Washington county are alive to the fact that to purchase stock of a well established home firm, where, if mistakes are made they will be corrected, is better than to purchase from representatives of foreign concerns of which they know nothing. Washington county citizens are fast being converted to the "purchase your goods at home and of home institutions" doctrine.

Last week the S. P. Co. contracted with J. E. Loomis for a plat of ground facing 125 ft on 1st Ave. and 100 ft on Main St. The consideration price was $3000. Deposit has been made and 30 days has been given for papers to be returned from San Francisco. Without doubt the S. P. will locate their depot on this plat of ground. This will make the two depots within a block of each other.

Chas. Levick, of Everett, Washington, has purchased the farm of C. A. Grubbs, on David's Hill, and removed with his wife and four children to their new home Tuesday of this week. Parr and Sexton unloaded their car and took the goods to the home. We extend to Mr. Levick and his family a welcome to our midst.

Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar, Chairman of Public Health Committee, and Mrs. Bessie Evans Pettinger, Chairman of the Educational Committee of the State Federation will participate in the program on Guest Day, Jan. 8, at the home of Mrs. Watt, meeting at 2:30 p. m. Each member may bring one guest.

E. S. Cook, of Corvallis is in the Grove this week visiting at the home of his cousin G. S. Allen. Mr. Cook has started a fine stock farm near Corvallis, and will make a specialty of full-blooded draft horses. He has named his place Sulphur Springs Stock Farm.

Hillsboro has levied a six-mill tax for general purposes and 1/2-mill for park improvement. Our county capital seems to be alive to her needs and in the near future will present enviable advantages to those who may look that way for a location.

ORENCO TREES ARE REALLY CHEAP

Some trees appear cheap, but are really expensive. Other trees appear expensive, but are really cheap. You cannot buy high-grade, productive land for the same price as poor land sells for.

You cannot buy Oak lumber for the same price as Fir lumber.

It is Quality in Trees that Counts.

We grow our own trees in our 1200-acre nursery. Our land was selected specifically for nursery purposes. It produces the very choicest type of trees possible to obtain anywhere, with stalwart tops, strong fibrous roots; in short, strictly first-class, sound, healthy, fully matured trees. There are none better grown, and they are Really Cheap; because they are such as will "Make Good."

If you need any N. Y. Pippin, Spitzenberg, Winesap, Rome Beauty, McIntosh Red, Jonathan or any other commercial or home variety, just drop us a line stating your requirements.

We also have some of the best peach trees in Early Crawford, Elberta, Foster, Fitzgerald, Gillingham and other good varieties we have ever grown.

If you want Peach Trees, you can't get better.

Don't Delay Ordering Too Long. Why Not Now?
