Tillamook Train Wrecked

The special train put on for hauling the Sunday traffic on the Tillamook beach was ditched Sunday morning near Tillamook city. The train left the track and came to a stop after a run of nearly 200 feet. The fireman jumped and sustained but slight bruises. The engineer remaining at his post, was badly bruised. No fatality resulting from the mishap, although the train was packed with passengers. Many Sunday excursionists got tired and hungry before reaching their homes Sunday night.

PEOPLE'S STORE

Corner 3rd and Main St.

This week we introduce a new feature in our advertisement. No such right down genuine bargains as this advertisement tells about have ever been offered in Hillsboro.

When this store makes an announcement, its friends and patrons who know good goods and recognize low prices respond at once, because the values are always there

This is the greatest bargain offering we have ever made, but you must come to the store and pick them out if you want a share of the good things. We are not going to give a detail or a price. Take our word for it, they are worth coming for.

Are you curious enough to see whether we mean business or not?
