

GALES CREEK. GLEANINGS

(Crowded out last week)

Messrs Dix and Bennett are conducting revival meetings in this locality.

Miss Maude Lilly left Friday for a visit in Portland.

Miss Alice McCann, of Forest Grove, visited her home in this section, Sunday.

Miss Leda March, of Portland, is visiting friends at Gales Creek.

WEEKLY WORD OF WATTS

J. W. Campbell, father of Mrs. D. A. Kennedy, left Wednesday for Colville, Wash. to spend the winter with his son, W. W. Campbell.

Miss Pearl Stevenson visited Mrs. Woods Tuesday.

Continued rain is making it difficult for the grape-growers to harvest their crop.

Mrs. Demoss was calling at Mrs. Holshiers' Tuesday to see the little son who arrived last week.

Mr. Higby and family drove up on the Hill Sunday in spite of the rain. Mr. Higby says he will continue to come as long as the grapes last.

Every-one was busy Tuesday trying to vote between showers.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH SERVICES SUNDAY.

This Sunday, at the Christian church, the pastor will occupy the pulpit at both morning and evening services. "Encouragement" will be the theme at the morning service. This is a most important subject and will be discussed from several very interesting standpoints. Every member is urged to be present at the evening service.

"The Confederate," a companion sermon to the one delivered last Sunday evening, will be the theme. Good interest is manifest in the services at this church and all are cordially invited to attend and participate. The Bible school is progressing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ireland were called to Albany last Friday by the illness of Mr. Ireland's mother, but arrived almost too late, as Mrs. Ireland died the following day. She had been a patient sufferer for some time.

Don't neglect the children's musical education. It is a sin for parents to neglect this part of a child's education. Have you a piano in your home to start the little ones out on, who, if they had half a chance, would turn the gloom into sunshine for you and others? I sell good reliable pianos and sell them on terms to suit you whether for cash, or the smallest payment you can afford. —Geo. G. PATERSON, Forest Grove, Ore.

Mrs. C. A. Dennis, Graduate Specialist. Shampoo 25c., Manicure 25c., Face Massage 25c. Scalp treatments a specialty. Charges reasonable. Phone 0184. Residence and office 332, Pacific Avenue.

Much of the county correspondence, which was crowded out this week on account of election matter, will appear next week.

Do not pay 15c and 25c for sheet music. Steahr's Bazaar, next to Post Office, sell the famous "Century Edition" of sheet music for 10c per copy.

LITTLE FOLK HUNT FOR GHASTLY GHOST

A most unique and delightful Halloe'en celebration was held last Thursday night at Green Gables, the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hoffman, when their little daughter, Aileen, was hostess to a number of her young friends. The rooms were tastefully and appropriately decorated, and during the course of the evening a most delightful hot supper was served in the commodious basement, which had been especially arranged for the occasion. Those present were the Misses Thelma, Mildred and Camilla Mills and Ruth Burlingham and Masters Gordon Burlingham, John Watrous, Chester Wilson and Earl Blitz. While the young folk engaged in the many pastimes of Halloe'en, their parents were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman. A very pleasant evening was spent by all.

J. D. Rode has opened up a commission store in his building on Pacific Ave. and Second St.

and will buy, sell, store and handle on commission all produce, such as grain, hay, flour, feed, seeds, vegetables, fruits, beef, veal and pork, also good second hand house furniture and machinery, implements, vehicles, hardware and other articles too numerous to mention. Now if you have anything in this line you wish to dispose of, bring it in and it will be placed before the people, who may be glad to purchase. There is an abundance of room, two floors, 50x100 feet. This is a business that has long been needed in Forest Grove, as it is not necessary to make a big sacrifice between seller and buyer. Amen.

The only way to success; what little we know and what a lot we do not know. Why our hens do not lay when eggs are 40 cents per dozen. Owing to the change of feed in the spring when they get plenty of oily insects they lay the most, so why not feed them oily feeds such as millet, rape, kale, sorgum and meat scraps, in connection with another receipt you can obtain at the commission store.
