L. E. Hess and C. G. Mack, of Prairie City, John Day county, arrived in the Grove the latter part of last week with a drove of horses, which they are offering for sale. Mr. Hess and Mr. Mack are much taken with this section of the Willamette valley, and in all probability will locate permanently.

Recent accessions to the library: A set of 18 volumes of James Whitcomb Riley's poems, also a new novel, "A Cry in the Wilderness," by Mary E. Waller, the author of "The Woodcarver of Lympus." The public Library would be very thankful for the World's Work for Dec. 1911 to fill out a broken file.

The Board of School Directors of Forest Grove met Monday evening for the transaction of routine business. Bills were allowed approximating $45 and orders placed for some badly needed supplies. The members of the board are much chagrined over the failure of the voters to support the County High School Fund measure at the recent election.

 Why be bothered with two pairs of glasses? Call at the Laughlin Hotel, Thursday, Nov. 21 and have Dr. Lowe show you the new Tonic glasses with which you can see all distances. No unsightly lines or seams in the glass to catch dirt and strain the eyes. They make you feel young without making you look old. Free demonstrations, scores of Forest Grove references.
