day with the home folk in the Grove.

The Oregon Electric train which leaves Portland at 4:25 p. m. has been changed from a limited to a local between Garden Home and Forest Grove.

A reproduction of a label printed for D. A. Kennedy by the press appears elsewhere in this issue. The original is printed in violet and gold and has been pronounced by experts a beautiful specimen of typographical art.

Lester Crossley, of this city, who is employed by the Southern Pacific railroad as night hostler at McMinnville, had his hand badly burned by escaping steam, last night. He is under the care of a physician, and may be disabled for some time.

About the twenty-fifth of this month, school enumerator Robert Wirtz and assistants will commence taking a census of school children in this district. It is important that a complete and careful count be obtained and the co-operation of all parents is earnestly requested.

POWDER MAN KILLED BY BLAST NEAR ORENCO LAST SATURDAY

HILLSBORO, OR.,—A Coroner's jury Tuesday returned a verdict of accidental death in the case of Alexander Crawford, who was killed by a blast near Orenco last Saturday evening. Crawford was a powder man on the right-of-way work for the Oregon Electric out of Orenco. A pathetic feature was the finding of a note in the dead man's clothes from the 5-year-old son, which read: Dear daddy; "I am going to have a mask halloween night, I want you to come home."

CHRISTIAN CHURCH SERVICES SUNDAY.

"The Unturned Cake" will be the subject for the sermon at the Christian church next Sunday morning. In the evening the theme will be "The Fear of men." The interest and attendance at the Bible school last Sunday was splendid. There is always a welcome for the stranger and the visitor.

J. E. Gleason, of Goldendale, Washington, is looking after his property interests in that city.

Mrs. A. G. Hoffman and daughter, Aileen, visited Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. A. K. Higgs, of Portland.

Sheriff-elect J. E. Reeves was greeting friends in Forest Grove the forepart of the week.
It is said that Mr. Reeves found but one voter who failed to assure him that he had had his support at the polls.

The members of the Forest Grove Fire department held their regular meeting on Wednesday evening, which accounts for the sounding of the alarm. Preliminary action looking to the holding of the annual reception and dance of the department was taken.

Mrs. T. J. O. Thatcher, Mrs.
E. E. Williams and Miss Farnham, of the Forest Grove Woman's club, are in attendance at the Annual Convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs which opened in Portland yesterday, as delegates from the local organization. Alternates Mrs. B. F. White and Miss Margaret Hinman, with a large number of club members, are also attending the convention.

OFFERING AN APOLOGY FOR AN UNINTENTIONAL ERROR LAST WEEK

In the hurry and bustle of getting the PRESS before the public upon schedule time last week an unintentional error was allowed to slip through, which, although small in character, never-the-less might be construed in an undesirable manner. We refer to the double column head covering the report of the receiving of election returns in this city, which should have read as follows: "MOST COMPLETE
ELECTIONS RETURNS EVER
RECEIVED IN WASHINGTON COUNTY, FURNISHED BY
THE FOREST GROVE PRESS
AND LIVE WIRE BUSINESS MEN." This was thrown up by a traveler who had been engaged for the day, and it is presumed, so set in order to secure uniformity of appearance. To those who assisted in this characteristic bit of enterprise of the PRESS, and feel that due credit has not been given, we hereby tender our apology.
