MR. RANCHER.

Do you know where your land corners are, or the exact number of acres you have? You need to know because the price of land is so high now, that every foot adds on or takes off just so much value. It is worth considering. Let me tell you. H. B. GLAISYER, Surveyor, Over Hoffman & Allen's, Phone 806, Main St.

A. B. Caples, of King & Caples, was transacting business in Portland, Monday.

O. C. Scofield and family, of Banks, were transacting business in Forest Grove, Saturday.

C. A. Littler, of the Forest Grove pharmacy, visited over Sunday with his parents in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Ayers, of Gales Creek, were visiting in the Grove Monday. Mr. Ayers has a general store in the neighboring town.

C. L. Leroy, who is located on the Gales place north of town, has purchased two lots in the Hall's addition to Forest Grove, and will immediately commence the construction of a neat residence.

Paul Lilly and wife, of this city, left Tuesday for Wisconsin, where they will spend the winter with the parents of Mrs. Lilly. Mrs. Dan Pierce and Mrs. Jas. Churchill, sisters of Mr. Lilly, accompanied them as far as Portland.

Frank Kane was presented with a box of cigars by the proprietor of the Fern Confectionery, last week, for making the closest guess as to the number of spoons contained in a large glass jar on exhibition within the store. Mr. Kane guessed 1640, and the jar actually contained 1652.

L. D. Huffaker has moved into his new residence in the north part of town.

E. W. Webb, instructor at the Bethany district school, spent Saturday and Sunday with his family in this city.

Sidney Taylor and Richard Wilson, who are attending the Behnke-Walker Business college in Portland, spent Sunday with the home-folk at Firholm.

Mrs. C. O. Roe, who recently underwent a somewhat serious operation, is now sitting up, and will soon be once more mingling with her numerous friends.

A physician was called at the home of R. D. Holsher on David's Hill, last Saturday, to attend their week old child who was suffering with a slight attack of croup.

The force of the Press office acknowledge receipt of a bottle of the famous "Kennedy Grape Juice" and a box of their luscious grapes. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy were in the Grove Tuesday.

Mrs. N. A. Derting visited the first of the week with her brother, J. H. Shearer, in this city. Mrs. Derting resides at Goldendale, Washington, where her husband is a contracting carpenter.

A case of small-pox which developed in this city some few days ago is confined to one patient, and assurance is given by the local and state boards of health that there is no danger of an epidemic.

Hoffman & Allen were delivered a carload of trees and shrubs from the Oregon nursery at Orenco, Monday, which is valued at $3,000. This is the largest shipment of this nature ever received in the Grove.

John M. Scott, general passenger agent, and H. A. Hinshaw, General Freight Agent, of the Southern Pacific lines in Oregon, were looking over the Grove Tuesday. Both Gentlemen paid the Press office a pleasant call.

J. A. Brown, formerly in the livery business in Forest Grove, now farming near Lebanon, was an over Sunday visitor with friends in this city. Mr. Brown has an excellent tract of land and is perfectly satisfied with his new environments.

Boniface Ives, of the Forest Grove Hotel, returned Sunday from attending the Spokane Apple show. Mr. Ives brought with him a number of mementos of the trip and expressed himself as decidedly satisfied with the exhibition and his visit in the Inland city.

By a score of 12 to 7, the boys of the Central school defeated the eleven from the Lincoln building in a hotly contested battle Friday afternoon. Both elevens played with all their vim and grit and the outcome was ever in doubt until the latter part of the last half, when Central forged to the front and victory.

The installation of two street lights at the junction of the Oregon Electric and Southern Pacific tracks with Main street is certainly appreciated by the residents of the Grove. These crossings were considered very dangerous before the lights were placed, and the action of the city officials in safeguarding the public is to be commended.

Thursday night last, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Emerson, on C. street, the boys and girls of the Forest Grove High School were entertained by Miss Una Emerson. Music, recitations and various games made the evening pass all too quickly. Refreshments were served and greatly enjoyed. All who participated expressed themselves as having had a most enjoyable time.
