George Wise, Jr., who has spent the summer in the harvest fields near Walla Walla, returned home a few days ago.

Rev. Adams, our pastor, preached a very interesting Thanksgiving sermon last Sunday. His text was "Thank God for Land, Life and Love."

The Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Sain, last Wednesday, Nov. 20. It was well attended and a very interesting and helpful meeting held.

Mrs. F. A. Hoodenpyl who recently underwent an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, is expected to be able to come home next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Matterson are preparing to leave the farm.
They expect to spend the winter in Eugene with their son Arthur and later on settle in Forest Grove. The farm has been rented by the youngest son, Roy.

Eight or ten years ago everybody went to Portland to buy their Xmas gifts because no one in Forest Grove carried any goods of that kind to speak of.
A few misshapen dolls and some half broken shopworn toys could be found in the grocery and drug stores but not enough to go around until K. N. Steahr got into the Bazaar. Since then the Xmas shopping in Portland has been reduced more and more every year as almost every article in the toy line that is in Portland can be found at Steahr's Bazaar and at a much lower price. 41f

THATCHER ITEMS.

Will Haney is painting his new house.

A. J. Killen was a Grove visitor Monday, on business.

E. G. Downs and family, of Thatcher, attended church at the Grove, Sunday morning.

A choir, composed of the young people of the neighborhood, was organized in Thatcher this week.

In the future, the Thatcher Sunday School will meet at 2 p. m. sharp. All are requested to be on time.

Everett Jefferyes, who started attending school this week, took possession of the only remaining vacant desk in the school house.

Sunday afternoon, Rev. Thomas, of Forest Grove, spoke on 'Home Missions' and in the evening Rev. Upton gave an interesting discourse from the text
'He Prayeth.'

This has been a most surprising week in Thatcher, from a social standpoint. Monday evening a number of friends gathered at the Loynes' home to assist Harris Loynes celebrate his fifteenth birthday. The time was pleasantly passed with music and games, and the occasion was made especially sweet by some very nice home made taffy. Everyone present enjoyed themselves immensely.

Tuesday evening Mrs. E. G.
Downs was pleasantly surprised

THE CHRISTIAN CHUCH.

Regular services at the Christian church next Sunday morning and evening. Morning theme "The King's Ferry Boats." In the evening the subject is, "The Enemies of Christ Subdued. The time is now past when Rev. Hilton or his family could take the disease to which they were partially exposed, so that no one need to fear them.
The Thanksgiving services will be held in this Church Thursday evening, with special program.
All are welcome to all the Services.

MR. RANCHER.

Do you know where your land corners are, or the exact number of acres you have? You need to know because the price of land is so high now, that every foot adds on or takes off just so much value. It is worth considering. Let me tell you.

felicitations upon her birthday.
There were over twenty present and a general good time ensued.
An especially enjoyable feature of the evening was the warm moonlit atmosphere, which made it possible to indulge in various games upon the spacious lawn.
Music and singing also occupied a good part of the evening.
Mr. Downs made taffy, and was assisted in the pulling by all of the gathering. Wednesday, another party, consisting of friends and relatives from Forest Grove, surprised Mrs.
Downs by arriving shortly before noon with well filled baskets. Several beautiful presents were tendered the hostess together with best wishes for many more such birthdays. Those present were Rev. and Mrs. Upton, Mrs. Ed. Dixon, Miss Ethel Dixon, and Miss Ethel Wells who came out from Portland.

A Proclamation.

By proclamation of the President of the United States, this day has been designated as one of Thanksgiving, to be observed throughout the entire country. In compliance with the edict of the National Executive, we desire to express our thanks for the hearty support of our many customers and friends. You, too, will be thankful if you have received your proportion of the Beautiful Silverware which is being distributed as premiums by this store. If you have not received it in time for the decoration of the Thanksgiving table, then be sure and look forward to the Christmas and New Year's spread, and secure your share of the handsome articles as quickly as possible.
