quite sick for the past several weeks, is reported improving.

Harry Debord has returned from eastern Oregon, where he has been for the past several years.

Henry Jerrett and wife took dinner with Mrs. Jerrett's parents on Gales Creek, Thanksgiving.

Dilley school district has 207 children of educational age, according to census just completed by Clerk B. A. Hoskins.

Mrs. Coulter and son Jay, from Amity, were visiting friends in Dilley over Thanksgiving, returning home Monday morning.

WEEKLY WORD OF WATTS

Miss Clara Lesser spent Sunday with the home folk.

Miss Helen Lesser visited the district school last Monday.

Gertrude Rueter passed the Thanksgiving vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Stevenson were in Portland Saturday on business.

Mrs. DeMoss and Edna ate dinner last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson.

A. B. Keagy, of Aberdeen, Washington, is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. T. B. Stevenson.

A. S. Dilley was up on David's Hill Tuesday, and purchased some stock from Messrs Holscher and Stevenson.

Between repairing the telephone line and harvesting his potato crop, Dick Holscher was a busy man, last week.

John DeMoss went to Eagle Creek, Oregon, Wednesday of last week, to spend Thanksgiving with his parents. His little son accompanied him.

D. A. Kennedy and family were among the guests who partook of turkey and all the good things which go with "him" at Mrs. Dorothy Seymour's in the Grove on Thanksgiving Day.

Unless weather conditions change shortly, many potatoes will have to be left in the ground throughout the winter. This year's crop of potatoes is extra fine, but gophers have helped themselves so liberally that numerous fields have been lessened by several sacks.

If your umbrella leaks have Danielson recover it. 3-1f

GATHERED AT GASTON

After a long illness, Ike Larson is once more able to be out.

Ed. Fisher, of Forest Grove, was a Gaston visitor Friday last.

Mrs. N. J. Walker and Mrs.
H. Wetterborg attended a meeting of the Eastern Star in Forest Grove Monday evening.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Congregational church of Gaston was represented in Forest Grove, Wednesday, by Grace Harding, Constance Wilcox, Sylvia Floyd, Mrs. G. A. Bryant, Alec Stuart, Joseph McBurney and Mathew Bates.

Dr. Baker was arrested last Saturday and taken to Hillsboro on a charge of bootlegging. A number of men in and around Gaston have been subpoenaed and appeared before the Grand Jury. A four-horse team was required to haul away the confiscated "booze."

The women of Gaston consider the right to vote more of a duty imposed than a privilege enjoyed. At the city election Tuesday the contest lay between the wet and dry elements. Thanks to the women the dries won out, electing A. M. Porter mayor and the following councilmen: Burriss, Bert White, H.
Kraemer, Spence, and J. H.
Wescott. Chas. Wescott was elected in place of Ike Larson, resigned. Fred Robertson secured the recordership and Mrs.
Olive Hawke was elected treasurer. W. Haney secured the marshalship.

We want all children under eight years of age to be registered at King & Caples before December 20. 4-4t

giving at Newton with his brother.

F. W. Cady and family spent Thanksgiving with friends in the Rose city.

Louis Hodler, who has a dairy farm east of town is making extensive improvements.

Defects in the new charter will delay the election of town officers for some time.

Cattle thieves visited Huber last Tuesday and escaped with three heifers and a bull. No trace of the raiders has been found.

The Beaverton and St. Johns' High School basketball teams will try conclusions in this city Saturday night. A fast game is expected.
