

Don't Let Your Wife Fuss
any longer with a Worn out, poorly baking, fuel wasting range. Think of the Round Oak Chief Steel Range.

Bring her in to see it, and learn how complete and perfect a range can be made.

W. O. Wagner & Sons
Forest Grove, Oregon

Christmas mixed candies 4 lbs for 50c at the Fern Cove Confectionery. 7t1

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dennis, of Scoggins Valley visited at the Ryals home in this city.

Hartampf's Feed Mill has just installed a grain cleaner for cleaning seed grain. 3-tf

We want all children under eight years of age to be registered at King & Caples before December 20. 4-4t

Remember the special subscription price of $1. until Jan 1, 1914 expires the first of the year. Line up before the limit is reached.

Extra copies of the holiday edition of this paper, issued last week, are going rapidly. They can be had at 5 cents each at the Press office. The supply is limited.

An Edison phonograph with 80 two and four minute records and two record cases, value $80 for sale at $45. Danielson, Pacific avenue, Forest Grove. A fine Xmas gift. 6-2t

Professor Frerichs of McMinnville college, accompanied by Mrs. Frerichs, were over Sunday guests at the P. W. Dyke home in this city. Prof. Frerichs is instructor of Greek and German at McMinnville.

Mrs. J. E. Baldwin, who underwent an operation at the Portland Sanitarium, some two weeks ago, is reported improving. Mr. Baldwin, who visited the hospital Sunday, expects to soon have his wife back at home.

E. Gates, who comes to this city from Brookings, S. D. is so taken with the Grove that he has decided to make his permanent home in this section of Oregon. One of Mr. Gates' first acts was to subscribe for the "paper that does things."

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Braughton left last Friday for San Francisco, where they will remain for several months. Mr. Braughton is employed by the Warren Construction Company as superintendent and has had charge of the street paving in this city.

Alvin Brown, one of the oldest residents of Forest Grove, suffered a stroke of paralysis last week, and is confined to his home in a very serious condition. Mr. Brown has always been very active, and this is the first illness he has had in years.

Farmers' Week at the Oregon Agricultural College had 231 farmers and 36 women in attendance the first day. Tuesday night there were 498. The numbers increased during the week, bringing representatives from nearly every county.

A very enjoyable Missionary tea was held at the home of Mrs. G. G. Paterson last Friday afternoon. Mesdames Frank Meresse and Frank Todd served. The ladies indulged in reminiscences of home life and related interesting incidents of missionary work.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hoffman were Portland visitors Tuesday.

For strictly home made Christmas candy go to the Fern Cove Confectionery. 7t1

Mrs. Kirchhimer, of this city, suffered serious injury from a fall, last week.

Mrs. Wm. Vanderzanden, of Verboort is lying dangerously ill with pneumonia.

At the Star Saturday Majorie's Diamond Ring, an Edison comedy full of laughs from start to finish.

Anything and everything in books, cards and stationery for the holidays at the Book Store, Forest Grove. 7t1

Beaverton, at an election last Saturday, adopted a new city charter, and will now proceed to install a water system.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. N. Austin, yesterday and passed a very pleasant afternoon.

T. P. Baldwin, a veteran of the civil war, is lying dangerously ill with pneumonia at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. N. Robinson in this city.

FOR SALE—or rent. My 145 acres 3 miles Southeast of Dille. Will also sell stock and implements. Frank Van De Hey, phone 53 Patton Valley. 6tf

Mrs. Glenn Metzger, nee Katherine Shannon, will spend the holiday season with her mother in Hillsboro, and is expected to visit friends in this City. Mr. and Mrs. Metzger now reside in Seattle.

Mrs. N. W. Fuller, State Representative of the Homesteaders, a fraternal insurance society, is a guest of Mrs. W. W. Ryals. She will remain until after Christmas.

The P. U. Glee club left yesterday for a tour of Columbia river towns. A young woman's quartette, Goldie Peterson, Ruth Thomas, Blanche Harbison and Helen Richardson, is a new feature added this year.

L. N. Tompkins, of Hillsboro, while supervising the loading of a car of piling at Gales Spur, near Dille, last Sunday, fell from the car, striking the ground with considerable force and sustaining a number of bad bruises. He will be confined to his room for some days.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

At the Christian church next Sunday, the day will be observed with the Christmas idea. The pastor will speak along the lines of the Christmas idea both morning and evening. In the morning the theme will be, "No Room in the Inn." In the evening the subject will be, "The Child of Promise." In the morning service Mr. Darby will sing the song, entitled, "No Room in the Inn," and in the evening, Miss Winora Ogden will sing, "Gifts for the King." Bible school at the regular hour. The public invited. Regular Sunday school and Christmas exercises Tuesday evening, December 24.

HOME BAKING CO.

Finest of Bread and Pastry Baked Every Day.

We sell 6 loaves of Bread for 25 cents Free delivery to all parts of the city

Pacific Avenue, Forest Grove

Absolutely Safe and Reliable

The Bankers & Merchants Mutual Fire Association
Of Forest Grove, Oregon

Conducted on Economic and Business Principles. The Home Company That Has Made Good. Insure Your Business or Dwelling in The Bankers & Merchants

Main Street Garage

Auto Repairing, Vulcanizing and General Machine Work. Storage and Supplies. Phone Main 62X

W. A. CHALMERS,
Main Street, Forest Grove.

Merchants Savings & Trust Company

6th and Washington Sts., Portland, Oregon

Banking by mail.

4%

paid on Savings Accounts.

Open Saturday Evenings, 6 to 8 for the accomodation of those who cannot bank at other times.

Central Livery Barns

McNamer & Wirtz, Prop'rs

General Livery

And Tillamook Stage Lines

MR. HILL TO FOREST GROVE CITIZENS

Have You Observed that the NEWS-TIMES Fails to Give You Facts For Facts

WHY? Who Loses by City blunders? Does the public gain by having public matters obscured? My business proposition offers you service and saves you from DEFICITS aggregating FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS during next 15 years. BESIDES THIS we offer consumer savings of thousands, NOW and later.