

SCHOOL NOTES

The High School is well started in the second semester and the building is more crowded than ever. It is difficult to arrange a schedule to fit the classes and to find room to accommodate the pupils.

Mrs. J. H. Bond has been added to the High school faculty as teacher in botany.

A re-adjustment of the teaching staff in the Lincoln building has been made. Mrs. Gertrude Cotton takes up the Domestic Science work, filling the vacancy created by the resignation of Miss Clara West.

Those who passed the state examinations and entered the High school are: Edith Craft, Ethel Forbes, Robert Illedge and Clarence Rice. Others entering the High school are: Margaret and Charles Hancock, James Norton, John Doane and Lewis Tumbleton.

The High school Freshman held a class party last Friday evening in K. of P. hall, and in spite of the fact that the Sophomores locked up several members of the class and endeavored to secure the "eats", the evening passed off very pleasantly, all enjoying a good time and an excellent luncheon. Although the Freshmen may seem verdant and unsophisticated, they are not to be outdone by the higher classes of the High school.

Pacific Defeated in Debate.

The last in the series of debates between Pacific University and the University of Idaho, held last Friday evening, was decided in favor of Idaho, the question being, "Resolved, That Labor Unions Should Be Incorporated". The judges who presided in this city were Pres. Crooks of Albany, Richard W. Montague, of Portland and Prof. Jasper J. Stahl, of Reed college. Bishop and Grathwell upheld the affirmative for Pacific at home, and were opposed by Parker Lucas and Harry McAdams, of Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McNutt, of Cornelius, visited Sunday with their son, R. W. McNutt, Jr., in this city.

Don't overlook the clearance sale at Patersons. January reductions all over the salesroom. Everything in furniture 9tf

NEWS of the CHURCHES

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

At the Christian church next Sunday the pastor will speak both morning and evening. The morning theme will be, "Your Own Or Another's, which?" In the evening the theme is, "The Safe Side," a very important subject that all should hear. Bible school at ten o'clock. Special features every Sunday. Good interest. Classes for all.

The Christian church of this place took a forward step in their work Sunday when they raised sufficient money to support their own special evangelist in the state of Oregon. They become what is known as a living link in the state society. Rev. W. T. Adams, now in a meeting at Dufur, Ore., will be the special representative of the congregation in the field.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

At the morning and evening services Sunday addresses will be given by speakers from abroad. In connection with a series of Missionary Institutes which have been planned for all the large cities of the country, Rev. D. Brewer Eddy and Rev. Chas. Storrs, Jr., both of Boston, together with several other good speakers, will be in Forest Grove Wednesday, Feb. 5, and conduct meetings in the afternoon and evening. A special meeting for ladies will be held at 2:30 p. m., followed by one for young people. A banquet will be tendered the visitors at 6:30. Everyone is most cordially invited to attend the meetings.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Lenten Season will commence on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 5th, and continues until Easter Sunday. Preparations are being made to observe it very strictly by the Catholic people of St. Anthony's Parish, and every member is expected to do some penitential work in memory of the forty days Christ fasted in the desert. The imposition of ashes with the words, "Memento homo, quia pulvis es; et in pulverem reverteris." (Remember man that thou art dust; and unto dust thou shalt return.) will take place immediately preceding mass at 9:00 o'clock in the chapel, and every Wednesday and Sunday evening during lent there will be a sermon bearing on the doctrines and duties of the Catholics, to which everyone is most welcome. These services will include the Stations of the Cross, a devotion bearing directly on the life and bitter death of our Lord. The last week before Easter Sunday is given over wholly to the serious contemplation of the events immediately preceding the crucifixion.

Anyone entering heartily into these devotions and the spirit of the Lenten Season cannot help but be benefitted spiritually by the retreat, and the pastor, Rev. Father Buck, invites most cordially everyone who cares to do so, to attend the services and make the retreat with his people.

Precious stones, gold and silver ornaments, cut glass, watches, clocks and many other articles kept by first class jewelers can be had at Shearer & Son, in Forest Grove. 9-tf

Cracksmen Visit Hillsboro.

Hillsboro, Ore. — An unsuccessful attempt was made Sunday night to rob the safe in the Southern Pacific depot. A window was opened with a crowbar taken from the section house, both combination dials of the safe knocked off and a charge of stumping powder inserted, but the explosion did not open the door. Women's clothing was taken from suitcases in the baggage room, soaked in water and placed about the safe to deaden the noise. The only booty secured was $2.60 in change left in the cash drawer. The ticket case was not molested. It is believed to be the work of amateurs.

The eighth grade have organized themselves into a class and have chosen for their motto "Rowing, not Drifting."

Mr. and Mrs. John Byers and little daughter were Forest Grove visitors Friday.

Jury Convicts Edward Naylor.

Hillsboro, Ore. — After four hours of deliberation, a Circuit Court jury Saturday afternoon found Edward Naylor guilty of unlawful relations with Miss Martha Traver, who has been keeping house for the defendant at Forest Grove for over two years, and has been his nurse and companion since Naylor was shot several months ago, by Frank Lenocker, of Yamhill. Naylor is wealthy and is a son of the late T. G. Naylor, of Forest Grove. His brother, George Naylor, also wealthy, will soon have a trial on a like charge. The Lenocker incident created a ripple of excitement at Forest Grove, at the time he shot Naylor. Neither men had met prior to the shooting, and after Lenocker had shot Naylor, he turned the gun on himself, and committed suicide. Naylor said Lenocker was trying to rob him, and ordered him to throw up his hands. Naylor has asked ten days to file application for a new trial.

Shearer & Son are prepared to do all kinds of watch repairing promptly and accurately. The best of workmanship. 9tf

Patronize Home Industries.

Ask your grocer for them.
Ask your tailor for them.
Ask your furniture dealer for them.
Ask your contractor to use Oregon material.
Furnish your public buildings with Oregon made fixtures.
Build up your state and industries by your patronage.
Encourage new industries by letting the investors know Oregon people will patronize them.
Forest Grove needs a larger pay roll.
