There is no such thing as "LUCK" in baking cakes and pastry if you use a Baking Powder that is dependable. Suppose you are called away from your work of mixing at a critical moment, it doesn't matter if you use

Crescent Baking Powder because it is made superior to emergency, and ten or twenty minutes interruption won't make a failure of your cake.

No one would think it "funny" to see a stock broker or investor show a somewhat feverish interest in financial news and stock quotations. Yet these have no more potential importance to him than the store ads have for the woman who does the spending of the money for the home.

HORSERADISH SAUCE.
If horseradish roots are obtainable it is best to make your own horseradish sauce. That which is sold in the shops may be made largely with white turnips. Some inferior brands of ready made horseradish sauce are so made.

If a recipe says the sauce must be cooked stir in the grated horseradish last. It weakens it to cook horseradish.

Favorite Condiments.
Boiled Horseradish Sauce.—Melt a third of a cup of butter in a saucepan and stir a half cupful of flour in it. When this is hot pour in a pint of boiling milk and stir until it forms a smooth sauce. Let it boil for twenty minutes. Season with a pinch of cayenne, a half teaspoonful of salt and strain. Add two stalks of grated horseradish. If a boiled sauce is made stir in the horseradish last.

Horseradish Sauce With Oil.—Take two tablespoonfuls of grated horseradish, a tablespoonful each of vinegar, salad oil and ground mustard. Add a quarter of a tablespoonful of salt and beat these together, then serve.

Horseradish Sauce With Cream.—Scald a pint of sweet cream. Add to it four tablespoonfuls of grated horseradish and a half teaspoonful of salt. Mix and it is ready to serve. This sauce may so quickly be made that it is useful to prepare in an emergency.

For Fish or Meat.
Horseradish Sauce For Fish.—Take a cupful of stock and scald half a cupful of freshly grated horseradish in it. Beat three eggs and stir these into a cupful of cream and cook this with the horseradish and stock. When the spoon becomes coated add half a teaspoonful of salt and take from the fire.

Horseradish Sauce For Beef.—Take a half cupful of fine stale breadcrumbs, an onion stuck with half a dozen cloves, two tablespoonfuls of butter, a half teaspoonful of salt and a quarter of a teaspoonful of pepper. Take a double boiler and cook everything but the butter in it for an hour, then take out the onion and cloves and add the butter, stirring it around until it is well mixed. Just before taking from the fire beat in a half cupful of freshly grated horseradish. This is nice for either boiled or roast beef.

Narrow Escape for Attorney.
J. N. Hoffman, the well-known attorney of this city, while trimming trees on his property in the south part of town, narrowly escaped instant death Friday morning. Mr. Hoffman was swinging a heavy axe, when the implement caught on a clothes line, rebounded, and struck him on the head, rendering him unconscious for several minutes. Just a few minutes before the accident occurred, he had been using a double bitted axe.

Maccabees Entertain Friends.
Tuesday evening a jolly crowd of Maccabees and their friends gathered in Odd Fellow's hall to listen to an interesting program of music, song and story. Luncheon, prepared by Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lenneville, who are unexcelled in the art of arranging a "spread," was served during the latter part of the evening. All enjoyed the occasion very much and voted the Maccabees right royal entertainers.

High School Team Victorious.
The Wilsonville Athletic Association basketball team suffered decisive defeat at the hands of the local High school boys last Friday evening. The game was played on the floor of the college gym and demonstrated that the locals have been working hard since their recent defeat at the hands of the same club, at Wilsonville.
