

District Convention of Rebekahs

Delegates from the Rebekah lodges of Forest Grove, Hillsboro, Banks, Sholes and Gaston gathered in the latter city Saturday to participate in the regular district convention. The mayor of Gaston bid the delegates welcome in a hearty manner, turning over the key of the city to Mrs. R. M. Taylor, president of the convention. An interesting program was heard and the Banks degree team exemplified the floor work of the order in a manner reflecting great credit and honor to their study and industry. Mrs. Case, of Hillsboro, was elected Chairman, Mrs. Ward, of Gaston, vice-chairman and Mrs. Kinton, of Banks, secretary.

Gave Pleasant Surprise.

The members of the Homesteaders met one evening recently at the home of Dr. J. S. Stewart and marched in a body to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dean, tendering them a most complete surprise. All were soon comfortably seated in the spacious rooms, and instrumental music and games were indulged in until a late hour, when, after tasty refreshments had been partaken of, the gathering dispersed to the different homes. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aydelott, Dr. and Mrs. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Porter and children Gladys and Teddy, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ryals, and daughter Lucile, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Morley, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dean and son Walter, John Matthews, Secretary W. K. Curtis, Carl Curtis, Miss Alta Williams and Mrs. Jessie Poge.

Reception for Mrs. Sarah Evans.

The Women's Club and the W. C. T. U. of Forest Grove have arranged a reception in honor of Mrs. Sarah Evans, State President of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, which will be held in Herrick Hall Saturday afternoon at 2:30. All members of both organizations are urged to be present and to bring a friend along. Mrs. Evans will deliver an address at the conclusion of the social hour.

Speed Bug Suffers Fine.

H. G. Hill, a member of the Premier Racing Crew, which is to appear at the local track this week, flew around through town Monday afternoon on his racing motorcycle at a mile a minute clip, was arrested by the chief of police, taken before the Recorder and assessed five dollars and costs. The fine was remitted pending good behavior in connection with the speed ordinance.

Norval Baptie, who learned to skate when playmate of J. S. Loynes' son, at Bathgate, N. D.

The fancy skater pictured above mastered the rudiments of the art in his home state of North Dakota a number of years ago and gave many exhibitions, after he had perfected himself in fancy skating, in a rink at Langdon, N. D., owned by J. S. Loynes and Nick Moore, of this city. In addition to his other feats, Baptie does some difficult stunts upon the ice, while perched upon 32 inch stilts. Mr. Loynes is personally acquainted with Norval Baptie, and the publication of his photograph in last week's issue of the Press called to mind many pleasant memories of other days. Jonathan Baptie, father of Norval, is at present a resident of Seattle.

Amateur Athletes Organize.

For the promotion of clean sport and the advancement of amateur athletics, a number of the young men of Beaverton have organized an association, with the following officers: Arch Chisholm, president; John Comley, vice-president; Victor Emmons, secretary; J. L. Hardy, treasurer; Lou Wolfe, sergeant-at-arms. The club starts off with a membership of twenty-five and has joined the Pacific Northwest association. They have a nicely equipped gymnasium, containing a large boxing arena and floor space occupied by punching bags, exercises, etc. Monthly entertainments will be held at which the best talent from the Multnomah, Columbus and Brooklyn amateur clubs will appear.

March Milk Supply Increases.

Hillsboro, Ore.—F. C. Orth, field manager for the Pacific Coast Condensed Milk Company, with factories here and at Forest Grove, says that the milk supply for March, this year, is much better than for the corresponding period in 1912. It is found that where people have bought small tracts of five and ten acres along the railway lines the milk supply in those sections has increased largely. Mr. Orth looks for the largest milk production in the history of the county for the present season.

Will Attend K. T. Conclave.

Every Knight Templar in Forest Grove expects to attend the special conclave of Oregon Commandery No. 1, to be held in Portland tonight, at the Masonic Temple. The orders of the Mediterranean Pass and Knights of Malta will be conferred in full ceremonial form upon two candidates. An attractive musical program of cathedral character has been arranged and an exhibition drill will be given. The conclave will close with a banquet.

Will Attend Church Parliament.

About thirty delegates from the Methodist Episcopal church of this city will attend a parliament of the Methodist Episcopal church to be held in Portland March 30, 31 and April 1. A number of eminent divines will be in attendance and attractive and interesting programs have been prepared for each day's session. Space forbids giving the programs in full, but it will well repay one to attend these meetings as the addresses which will be delivered are of undoubted worth and merit.

Movie Operator Plays Hero.

Monday morning the team which pulls the Gales Creek stage decided to get in out of the cold and started at a breakneck pace from the postoffice, headed for the barn. Carl Hoffman, one of the proprietors of the Star theatre, saw the break, and as the team raced down College way, sprang before them swinging an overcoat about his head. The flying garment bewildered the racers and they came to a sudden stop just as they reached Pacific avenue. No damage was done.

Starts for Office Early.

A resident of Newberg, through the medium of a local paper, announces his candidacy for governor, stating that he is urged to this action by his "own conscience." Judging from the announcement, the original "own conscience" candidate has a bigger club than Roosevelt ever wielded laid by for a few of his particular friends.

Tick Tack on the Window.

Have you heard it? Wondered what it was? Couldn't locate it, most peculiar noise, sounded like someone clipping glass with a hammer, eh! Next time you go to the postoffice stop long enough to examine the windows of Staehr's Bazaar, and if you look carefully you will find the tireless little insect that keeps up such a continuous tapping to attract your attention. Incidentally, you will find one of the most up-to-date lines of stationery, books, magazines, etc., at the Bazaar. Just step inside and look around.

"BUSTER" BROWN

Who Celebrated His Third
Birthday Last Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brown are justly proud of their three-year-old son, who observed his birthday Saturday with a celebration at which a number of his little friends were present. The youngsters gathered at the Brown home in the early afternoon and passed the time with the games that delight the little folk. A delightful lunch was served by Mrs. Brown and when the small guests finally departed they were tired but perfectly happy.
