HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Exercise.
The best kind of exercise is the kind that makes you forget that you are exercising—in other words, play, says a physician. It's a good scheme to have some more or less strenuous game for a hobby—golf or bowling or tennis or archery—anything that appeals to you and affords exercise with interest. But this is not saying that systematic exercise is not a good thing too.

VEAL PIES.

RICH and nourishing are veal pies. For these pastries ends of the meat, which are inexpensive, may be used so they are useful when economy is to be practiced.

Cold veal may be utilized when baked pie is to be made. Fresh veal is required to give richness to the potpie.

When cooking the potpie do not take off the lid until the dumplings or dough is done, for it may then be heavy.

A Delicious Baked Pie.

Baked Veal Pie.—Take a pound and a half of stewing veal, wipe with a wet cloth, cut the meat into small pieces, put into saucepan, cover with boiling water, add two tablespoonfuls of cut onion and boil slowly one and a quarter hours. Add one tablespoonful of salt, one-quarter teaspoonful of white pepper and two cupfuls of diced raw potatoes. Boil twenty minutes and add one teaspoonful of finely chopped parsley and one tablespoonful of flour mixed with a little cold water. Boil two minutes.

Place between crust made as follows: Two cupfuls of flour sifted into a bowl with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one teaspoonful of salt. Rub in two teaspoonfuls of shortening very lightly and add just enough cold water to hold together. Divide and roll out.

Line a pan with the dough and put in the veal and potatoes, leaving a little of the gravy to put over the top. Roll out the other half of the dough, put over the veal and brush the crust with the gravy. Put in a hot oven and bake twenty minutes.

A Nice Potpie.

Veal Potpie With Potatoes.—Wash a knuckle or brisket of veal and put into a kettle with boiling water more than will cover it. Take off the scum as it rises. When the meat is nearly tender add two teaspoonfuls of salt and half a teaspoonful of pepper and a tablespoonful of butter. When the meat is almost cooked add five potatoes which have been peeled and cut into halves.

For the batter take three cupfuls of flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, a saltspoonful of salt and a cupful of sweet milk. Drop this batter, a spoonful at a time, into the kettle with the meat. Then do not take off the cover for half an hour or the batter will be flat. When done take out on a platter.

For the sauce wet two teaspoonfuls of flour with cold water. Rub until smooth and then stir into the gravy. Then put in another teaspoonful of butter and cook until it thickens. Pour over the potpie and serve.
