THURSDAY, MAY 15, 1913.

Display advertisements for publication in the PRESS must be in this office not later than Tuesday evening to insure appearance in current issue.

Entered at the post office at Forest Grove, Ore., as mail matter of the second class.

The man who throws stones is the man whom you should watch when he is in actual eruption.

A man's efforts through life may be likened unto the cracking of a nut. All is labor until the kernel is secured.

In calling for county warrants at the clerk's office it is not uncommon to be asked if this is your part of the compensation for the Forest Grove Cleanup.

Yes, Forest Grove is a beautiful town, no mistake about that, and our citizens are going to shine up her old cases if it keeps the grand jury in session the rest of the year to do it.

Man's trials are a good test of his goodness and ability. The man whose path has never been crossed, who has had uninterrupted sailing, has not been permitted the opportunity of proving his real worth.

There are folks who never stop to consider whether the other fellow deserves it or not, take no thought as to where the Press comes in! Let us say right here that so long as there is room at the trough, we are in with both feet or there is something doing.

There are many fathers and mothers in the Grove and for that matter, in other localities, who would ward off a severe heart ache in time to come if only they would insist on knowing where their boys and girls are during the late hours, and with whom they associate.

It certainly is not necessary to call the attention of our city council to the need of an ordinance that prohibits dogs from running on the streets. Our grocerymen often meet with this nuisance when displaying vegetables on the walks, and not uncommon is the pedestrian both young and old of both sexes to meet with unsightly nuisances from the canine tribe.

We are not going to knock any body; that is not the attitude of the Press. In saying this we are reminded of a story told something like this: "Three persons were playing at cards, some one persistently cheating; one player had but one eye; one of the players placed his gun on the table with the threat that he would not accuse any individual of cheating, but some one was cheating, and if it occurred again he would shoot out the other eye."

The various denominations of the church have and are accomplishing much good. Sad it would be for any community to be without church and its influence, but we often hear it said and oftentimes true that the church is used as a refuge for the worst of hypocrites. This is even true of lodges. Brave and true is the man or woman who has the courage to take in hand the man or woman who has so proven themselves to be unworthy, and with kindly advice and attention, make them all they profess. Too often from lack of such courage the church or lodge falls into disrepute from acts on the part of some of its members.

The acts of the voters of Cornelius, our sister town at its late election in voting for dry conditions, has aroused the indignation of the German Speaking Society of Cornelius, who passed a resolution last week expressing their deepest regrets in being deprived of their personal liberties by denying them their refreshments while trading in the city. They further resolve that during the continuation of dry conditions they will direct their trade to places where they may quench their thirst. They ask that an effort be made to restore former conditions. The resolution and petition is signed, Gerhard Goetze as president and Wm. Schendel, secretary.

Ladies' Club Entertain.

Monday night the Woman's club met with Miss M. F. Farnham at Herrick hall. The rooms were decorated with lilac and ferns. The first on the program was a piano trio by Misses Mickle, House and Thomas, and responded to encore. Mrs. McElDowny gave a vocal selection. Misses Peterson, Thomas and House sang a trio; Mrs. McNeil, vocal solo; Ned Livingston cornet solo; Goldie Peterson, vocal solo. The last number was a chorus by Mesdames McNeil, Glasier, Ferrin, Richardson and Misses Peterson, House, McElDowny and Thomas, all responded to encore. Refreshments were served in the dining room and halls. This being guest evening, each member was allowed one guest, and the large rooms were well filled. The women wish to thank all the young people who so kindly helped with the evening of entertainment and the serving of refreshments.

President Southwick, of the Emerson School of Oratory, of Boston, Mass., will give a reading on "The Rivals," Tuesday, June 3, at Marsh Hall, under the auspices of the Women's club, the proceeds to go towards keeping the reading room open on Sunday. The women ask the help and co-operation of the citizens of the town in this worthy cause.
