HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Benefits of Sunshine.
Don't be afraid of sunshine and fresh air. They offer you bloom and color. And deep breathing is surely the handmaid of the fresh air nurse. Deep breathing gives a fine figure as well as a clear complexion.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

School Children's Meals.
Regularity should be the keynote in the taking of food, and ample time must be allowed for the child to eat its meals. It is especially during the early years of school life that the nutrition is apt to suffer, for the child is then under a new kind of excitement. There is worry over lessons, a desire to hurry off to school, and meals become to the child a secondary consideration. Care should be taken to avoid incompatible mixtures. Also, as Dr. Clock suggests, it is important that the child be fed regularly and not between meals.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacAlear, and son Lowell of Hillsboro visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Good, Sunday.

Lindley A. Wells, Field Supt., of the Oregon "Out to Win" Prohibition campaign will speak in the Congregational church Sunday, June 29. Mr. Wells is an eloquent and forceful speaker and the public is invited to hear him.

Saturday evening the merry-go-round, located on the Laundry block on First Avenue will run for the last time. The proprietors are gentlemen whom it is a pleasure to meet, and they have furnished amusement to hundreds of children the past week.

Alfred Freerksen was in from his ranch in the Thatcher section, Saturday, and went on down to Portland to attend the electrical parade.

Lieutenant William Henry Harrison Myers, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Minnye, went to Portland, Wednesday, to attend the reunion of Oregon's pioneers. Lieutenant Myers is not only one of the earliest settlers of the great country "where rolls the Oregon," but he also took a very prominent part in subduing the Indians during early days.

Services in Tent on Main Street.

Religious services are being held each night in a tent on Main street, corner 1st avenue south, by a number of men and women from Portland. These people are preaching the gospel without asking any aid of Forest Grove people, as they work at trades and professions during the day time and preach at night.

CUPID GETS HARD JOLT IN HILLSBORO

County Clerk Luce Refuses to Grant License to Polk County Man.

Cupid, the little love god, is meeting with all kinds of trouble since the new law, requiring men who wish to be married in this state to present a certificate of health duly signed by a licensed physician, to the county clerk, before a bliss certificate be issued him.

Last Saturday a Polk county man appeared at the desk of County Clerk Luce, in Hillsboro, and requested that he be granted a license to wed. But Luce turned him down on the ground that he did not know whether the physician who made out the certificate is entitled to practice or not. He said that where a man came from an outside county armed with a physician's certificate, he should also have a sworn statement from the county clerk that the medical examiner is entitled to practice in Oregon. Clerk Luce alleges that if this ruling is not followed, it would invite fraud that might be wide spread.

The new law requiring men to present a certificate of health before they may be granted a license to marry in Oregon, is causing many couples to take little jaunts into Washington, where they have the knot tied. Vancouver is a popular Gretna Green for lovelorn couples, and the ministers over in the military town are taking in many a bright gold piece that should remain in Oregon. Never a rose without its thorn. Selah.
