

All Around Town

Monday evening local people who tried to see the red fire from the top of Mt. Hood were disappointed, due to they thought a dense cloud between Forest Grove and the peak. Later it was learned however that the supposed cloud was a heavy snow storm, which prevented the Y. M. C. A. boys from igniting any fire at all.

Miss Winona Ogden has resigned her position with A. G. Hoffman & Co., where she has been on the clerical staff for several years. We shall listen for wedding bells.

The plans for the new bank building will be finished some time this week. The architect is making a few minor changes on the original and the final plans will be in the hands of the contractors in a few days.

The McMinnville local of the B P O E will hold a picnic Sunday July 27th at Carlton. Several local members are planning to attend.

Carl Hoffman has sold his share in the Star Theater to his partner Fred Watrous. Mr. Hoffman is not yet certain as to what will be his next occupation.

Oliver Dille of Portland was in Forest Grove last week to attend his uncle's funeral.

Seven ladies of Portland were canvassing the town in the interest of "S H" green trading stamps.

Mr. King of King & Caples' Store suffered the loss of his store in the Sheaidan fire.

Claud Davis has bought out Mrs. Williams' interest in the store of Williams & Moore.

Dr. Hines, while out in his car Sunday afternoon frightened a team hitched to a buggy near the Watts school house, they running away, ruining the rig and somewhat disabling one horse.

Jacobs & Bade Co. have the contract for constructing the new water system from Sain Creek, in Scoggin's Valley, to Hillsboro.

Born, last Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. John DeMoss of Watts, a nine pound boy.

F. H. Gilham with his crew of the Chicago Portrait Company salesman are stopping at the Forest Grove hotel this week on their regular summer trip through the country.

Miss Jessie V. Reynolds who has been in the employ of the Bragg Mercantile Company of Hood River, Oregon, a large dry goods firm, for the past three-and-one half years, has accepted a position at Hoffman & Co. Miss Reynolds comes to the firm highly recommended and they are indeed fortunate in securing her. Miss Reynolds has had seven years experience in the dry goods business there and three and one-half years at Rapid City South Dakota.

This week Leon T. Sills of the Oregon Land Co., purchased 32 acres of land of G. W. Bunker, the land is located at Thatcher. Mr. Sills will immediately improve it with the intentions of subdividing it in the future.

The Plaining Mill Co has just completed a pretty bungalow for Mr. Thos Philip.

Carl Hoffman formerly of the Star Theater left Tuesday on a business trip through California.

The Austin Bros. have gone into the building and contracting business with headquarters in the Wilcox building.

Fire Burns Shack.

Dallas:—Sunday morning at 3 a. m. fire destroyed the building at the corner of Main and Mill. The property was owned by Mrs. Smith, who now announces her intentions to immediately construct a modern brick in the place of the old wooden building.

Archie Bryant, of Gaston, formerly in the photograph gallery business in this city, is going to join our business circles again, in the photography work, with his office over the real estate office of Cady & Littlehales near the postoffice. Mr. Bryant says there is no place like Forest Grove.

Mr. Gilmore opens a meat market in the old bank building today Mr. Gilmore has been connected with stores in this city in the capacity of clerk for a long time.

W. L. Cady, one of the prominent real estate dealers of our city was transacting business in the Rose City, Wednesday.

Mr. Bernard, of the Book Store who has been making an extended tour of Chicago, New York Canada and other prominent cities is expected home soon.

hymn "O it is Wonderful."

In the social column of the Press last week about the party at Mrs. Millers it was stated by mistake that Mrs. T. J. O. Thatcher, Mrs. Ned Heath and Miss May Selly served when it should have been that they were the guests of honor.

Mrs. C. E. Walker entertained the following Portland ladies at dinner Wednesday:— Mrs. Carrol B. Low, and mother, Miss Evelyn Ladd and Miss Margaret Mearhem.

Mrs. Charles Buchanan entertains the Bridge at luncheon at one o'clock this afternoon at her country home.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Shaw, our obliging Wells Fargo people, spent Sunday with the former's mother in Portland.

Monday afternoon, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Jones, of Cornelius, was the scene of a very happy wedding, when Lewis Chester Howell and Miss Gracie M. Griswold were united in marriage.

Mrs. Harold Oberg, of Portland, sang "O Promise Me," as the bridal party entered the parlor. Elder M. H. St. John, pastor of the Central Seventh Day Adventist church of Portland, officiating in a very pleasing and impressive manner.

The decorations consisted of a profusion of sweet peas, and evergreens over a back ground of white crepe paper dotted with red roses. The Jones twins acted as little pages seated on low stools on either side of the arch.

The bride was richly attired in sky blue silk trimmed in white satin ribbon and carrying a bouquet of roses. The groom was dressed in the conventional black.

Refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream and a variety of cake.

Besides intimate friends from Cornelius, Gaston and Forest Grove, there were present A. O. Griswold, of Hillsboro, father of the bride, Miss Lois Griswold, of Dallas, a sister, Elder M. H. St. John, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Oberg and the Misses Smith and Young, of Portland.

Mrs. Howell is a native of New York and has traveled extensively in the United States, having at one time crossed the continent from New York to San Francisco alone, when only a small child.

Mr. Howell is a native of California and has resided on the coast principally.

They were both students of the Laurelwood academy, where they became acquainted, Mr. Howell studying for the ministry. They will make their home in Cornelius until school begins, when they will return to the Academy and continue this studies.

A farewell reception was tendered Mrs. Stamp and her two daughters of East Pacific Avenue Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. James Baldwin. Supper and light refreshments were served during the evening. The young people amused themselves with games of Charades and a general social time was enjoyed by all. The families of Dr. Volmer, W. L. Cady, J. S. Hall and Mr. LeRoy, also Mrs. Munchis and the Misses Burnsworth were present.

Little Ruth Stamp, the young daughter will be remembered as the child who some time ago recovered from the shock of a five weeks' period of unconsciousness, due to a fall from a high haymow. Many friends will be glad to know Miss Ruth has entirely regained her health.

The family left Friday afternoon for Long Beach, Washington.

AMONG OUR ADVERTISERS HINTS AND HELPS FOR SHOPPERS

These columns are open to merchants and others who desire a brief and effective medium for reaching the public. Here, each week, our readers will find many helpful suggestions, and will learn the latest business and professional news.

Call the Peoples Market for all Good Eats in fresh and cured meats, fish and fruits. First door west of King & Caples Mdse. Co. Phone Main 692.

Did you notice the big reduction in Men's and Women's Ox-fords at A. G. Hoffman & Co's.

GINSENG AND GOLD SEAL raising surest way to make Big Money on Little Capital. One acre of Ginseng yields about 5,000. Sells at $6 a pound. We buy all you raise. Write today for free booklet. Leo Richter, Auburn, Wash.

Men's work shirts all colors and prices at The Peoples Store Hillsboro. 35tf

The talk of the city. Almost three thousand up-to-date Ladies' and Gents' Shoes just received at The Peoples Store Hillsboro. 35tf

New shipment of ladies and gents silk hosiery, just received at The Peoples Store Hillsboro. 35tf

VanKoughnet and Reder, the druggists, have just received some very fine box stationery. 37tf

The largest assortment of men's straw hats ever showed in Hillsboro, from $1 to $3 Peoples Store Hillsboro. 35tf

Call the Peoples Market for all Good Eats in fresh and cured meats, fish and fruits. First door west of King & Caples Mdse. Co. Phone Main 692.

JOB WORK, done properly and on time at the PRESS office. Satisfaction guaranteed and prices right.

A very classy box of stationery can be had for 35c at VanKoughnet & Reder's drug store. 37tf

The Peoples Store is receiving new up to date goods daily. Dont forget to see the many bargains at the Peoples Store Hillsboro. 35tf

Board and room at the Walker place, 3d Ave., North, between A and B Street Phone Main 367. 34tf

SOCIETY stationery of correct style and neat appearance may be obtained from the PRESS job department.

STAR THEATER

COME OUT TONIGHT

And see this splendid program of Photo Plays

1st. A detective story featuring Mr. Maurice Costello of the Vitagraph company in the

MYSTERY OF THE STOLEN CHILD

2nd. BRONCHO BILLY'S REASON with G. M. Anderson as Broncho Billy

3rd. A SHOWER OF SLIPPERS

An Edison comedy in which village gossips, and the Bachelor Parson, have a riot of fun.

Regular Prices - - 5 and 10 Cents

RACES! RACES!

AT

Forest Grove Training Park EVERY SUNDAY AFTERNOON

STARTING JUNE 29

6 - SNAPPY EVENTS - 6 EACH AFTERNOON

Oregon Electric Cars Stop at Track

RACES BEGIN AT 3:00 O'CLOCK

Admission 50 cents

Grandstand Free

Mrs. Florence Ranes, well known to Forest Grove people, was married in Portland last Thursday July 17 to Mr. S. S. Turner. They will make thier home in Portland.

Beach-Mills

Wednesday July 16, Martha Beach and Arthur Ernest Mills were married at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. S. L. Carlyle of Forest Grove. Rev. Hiram Gold officiated.

The young people are located at Kalema, Washington which will be thier future come.

The regular monthly meeting of the Maximims of the M. E. Sunday School took the form of a lawn social Friday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Wagner.

The beautiful grounds were lighted by Chinese lanterns, also by the full moon. While the hot day that had preceded made an evening in the open most refreshing.

After a number of games and the holding of the regular business meeting of the class delightful refreshments were served.

The missionary society of the Congregational church held thier annual picnic yesterday afternoon on Pacific University campus. The ladies enjoyed a delightful afternoon meeting, and the men folks were treated to a royal luncheon at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. F. H. Betty, Secretary of the American Missionary Association, of New York, was present, and gave a very interesting talk on the work carried on in Porto Rico, also among the colored people of the South. The Misses Elyday Loynes, Ruth and Grace Haines sang beautifully the