Pacific Avenue at Third Street.

Last Sunday evening the union services on the campus at which Lindley A. Wells, represented the Out-to-Win prohibition campaign for 1914 was well attended. Mr. Wells delivered a very impressive and impelling speech for the cause of prohibition and the Out-to-Win campaign.

Prof. F. C. Taylor, as president of the Washington County Sunday School Association, attended a joint session of the two Sabbath schools at Farmington, as well as those of Kenton, Scholls and Mountain Home; Mr. W. S. Hollis, of Portland being the other invited speaker. The session was held from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. with a picnic dinner in the grove sandwiched in from 11:30 to 1. It was an enthusiastic and helpful meeting and a district was organized there from part of the large territory assigned to the district about Hillsboro; with Rev. Thos. Hazelton, of Scholls, as the president; and Zenas Olson, of Farmington, as secretary. Another meeting was arranged for the second Sunday in September at Mountain Home.

CONSERVATISM.

One day through the primeval wood
A calf walked home, as good calves should,
But made a trail all bent askew,
A crooked path, as all calves do.
The trail was taken up next day
By a lone dog that passed that way,
And then a wise bellwether sheep
Pursued the trail o'er vale and steep
And drew the flock behind him, too,
As good bellwethers always do.
And from that day, o'er hill and glade,
Through those old woods, a path was made,
And many men wound in and out
And dodged and turned and bent about
And uttered words of righteous wrath
Because 'twas such a crooked path.
But still they followed—do not laugh—
The first migrations of that calf
And through the winding roadway stalked
Because he waddled when he walked.
So men prefer to go it blind
Along the calf paths of the mind
And work away from sun to sun
To do what other men have done.
