PREMIUM LIST IS NOW READY

List Covers Every Natural Product of the County

COUNTY IS LOOKING FOR FINE FAIR IN OCTOBER

Present Need is for Every One to Do His Duty, and Save Exhibits

The County Fair premium lists are out and show cash premiums covering practically all the county's natural resources. In the agricultural department there are cash premiums amounting to $232.50; this includes all classes of grains, grasses, forage plants, etc., as well as a class of farm exhibits including all kinds of articles grown or produced by household skill or on the farm, owned or rented by the exhibitor; $65 is devoted to premiums in the horticultural department on all classes of fruit shown in the fresh and evaporated state; horses will bring about $220; cattle $195; sheep and goats $85; hogs $95; poultry $110; domestic art, cooking, canning, etc., about $90; for the Eugenic department there are over $60 worth of suitably engraved silver cups, while the juvenile department, which the management have all along felt should be one of the best features of the Fair, will command over $100 in cash.

Juvenile Department Attracts. So much interest is being taken in the juvenile department over the county that the board of directors felt justified, at their last meeting held this week, in offering an additional set of prizes for booth exhibits in this department. In addition to the cash prizes, several business firms of the county have expressed a desire to offer articles as special premiums in the different departments and as a result a nice list of specials is being made up.

The board of directors have appointed a committee to arrange a racing program for the fair. Arrangements have been completed with the Eureka Merry-go-round company of North Plains for the operation of their steam swing. Mr. C. O. Roe, who has charge of the concessions is arranging with different parties for the conduct of suitable restaurant accommodations and other conveniences and amusement features. Both the Oregon Electric and Southern Pacific R. R. have agreed to give special rates and to help in advertising the Fair. Everything now points to success and if our people will take hold in the proper spirit and each help what he or she can by saving and preparing for exhibition whatever they may have there is no question but that Washington county can make one of the most creditable showings of any county in the State, and one that will go far toward helping to attract to us a large share of desirable immigration.

Hillsboro Expects Good Fair L. L. Crawford, one of the directors of the Washington County Fair Association, was down from Hillsboro, yesterday. He says there are all indications of a fine exhibit at Forest Grove this fall, says the Argus.

It begins to look like the coming fair at Forest Grove will be a good one. The gentlemen on the directorate stand for worthy effort, and the institution should be encouraged by every producer.

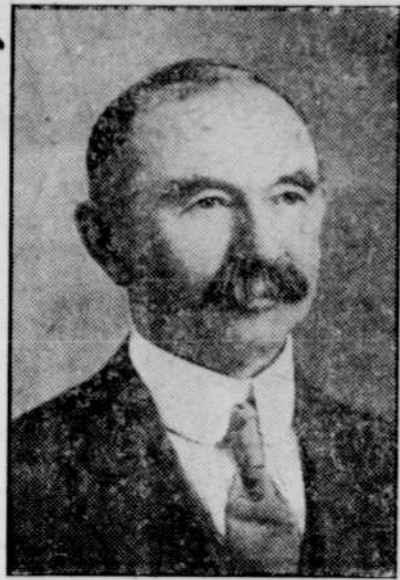

CHILDREN TO LEAVE.

Portland Kiddies Have Had Fine Time Here

Forest Grove people will say goodbye to the Portland children tomorrow afternoon at 3:45. Many friendships among the children undoubtedly have been formed that will last for years. The hosts regret to return their charges who have so greatly enjoyed the outing and have been so well behaved during the entire stay.

Two of the children expect to return again before long for another visit. One little girl is listed for adoption, but as yet has found no fairy godmother. This very worthy movement has met with unexpected success from many Oregon county towns, and Forest Grove, which was one of the first to respond, will be glad to welcome the little friends again next summer.

P. E. & E. "the Willamette Valley Line"

William Bell, of Newburg, who, by proposing as a nickname for the P. E. & E. "The Willamette Valley Line," won over 2,764 contestants and has received the $50.00 prize offered by president Strahorn. The contest has attracted much attention all over the country.

SCRIBES VISIT FOREST GROVE

P. E. & E. Party of Portland Newspaper Men Given Auto Ride

Last Friday a party of fifteen newspaper men from Portland and railroad officials of the P. E. & E. were entertained by the people of Forest Grove by a 25 mile auto ride through the rich and productive sections surrounding this city. The ride produced an excellent impression upon the scribes which lasted throughout the entire tour of the Willamette Valley. Editor Currey of the Press joined the party here and completed the remainder of the trip. On the entire trip the party toured about 350 miles by autos and the same distance by rail. A much better understanding of the needs of the Willamette Valley was obtained by all. Forest Grove was listed as needing a lumber mill. A movement was taken up to erect a monument to the honor of Harvey Scott who was the first graduate of Pacific University, and for years editor of the Oregonian, the stone to be placed on the campus of Pacific University in Forest Grove.

The personnel of the P. E. & E. newspaper party which visited Forest Grove was: The Oregonian, Shad O. Krantz, reporter; The Telegram, W. P. Strandberg, railroad reporter; The Journal, J. L. Wallin, railroad reporter; Oregon Posten (Swedish), F. W. Lonegren, editor and publisher; The Spectator, John Dugall, editorial writer; Chamber of Commerce Bulletin, Moses Mossosian, editorial staff; Pacific Scandanavian, H. J. Langeo, editor and Publisher; Italian Tribune, A. B. Bigiami; Catholic Sentinel, P. E. Sullivan, editor and publisher; Peoples' Press, C. W. Ryan; Portland Press Club, A. A. Rosenthal, manager; Portland, Eugene and Eastern Railway Company, Mark Woodruff, publicity agent; and Judge C. W. Gantenbein, of Portland.

The train was in personal charge of the "Wild Irishman," Geo. D. O'Conner, superintendent, with headquarters at Corvallis, and the equipment consists of Mr. O'Conner's private car, "6500" and a Pullman sleeper.

FOREST GROVE HIGH SCHOOL WILL OPEN IN NEW BUILDING

MODERN BUILDING WILL HOUSE HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS --COURSES STRENGTHENED--TEACHERS ARE CHOSEN--NEW BOOKS IN EFFECT

Public schools of Forest Grove will commence September 22. This date which is somewhat later than usual, was chosen by the board of education to accommodate the contractors, Snook and Traver of Salem, on the new high school building and students who might be in the hopfield. The contractors have given excellent satisfaction in the erection of the building and have given Forest Grove one of the best school buildings of the state.

The new high school building will be ready for occupancy by the beginning of school. It is of brick and concrete construction, and will cost $35,000. It is well equipped with laboratories, manual training and domestic science rooms, locker rooms, shower baths, automatic heating and ventilating system, and all modern conveniences, including the furniture which will be of latest design. The assembly room will be fitted with automatic steel desks, and class rooms with tablet arm chairs and steel commercial desks.

Teachers selected for the coming year are: H. E. Inlow, superintendent of schools.

High school: Anna Taylor, Mathematics and English; Hazel Loynes, History and German; Ellis G. Rhode, Science and Athletics; Marvin E. Turner, Manuel Training, Latin and Commerce; Gertrude J. Cotton, Domestic Science. Central building: J. C. Ryan, Principal and eighth grade; Jennie Rasmussen, seventh grade; Wanda Todd, sixth grade; Frances Parker, fifth grade; third and fourth grades to be supplied; Jessie Greer, first and second grades.

Lincoln building: Elsie Lathrop, Principal and sixth grade; Miss G. A. Harnden, fifth grade; Floy Norton, third and fourth grades; Florence Lusted, first and second grades.

Besides the high school the following grades will be in the Clark building: First and second grades to be supplied; Mrs. M. Rosenberg, third and fourth grades.

New books have been adopted throughout the state and a new course of study for the schools will be issued. Information concerning books to be used, course of study, etc., will be given later.

Forest Grove schools stand high among the schools of the state and this standard will be maintained. The high school course will be strengthened, particularly the departments of manual training and domestic science.

The other winner is William A. Neill of Vancouver, Washington. These young men were selected out of 61 candidates, hailing from all parts of the Pacific Northwest. They will have tuition and other fees paid throughout their four year courses at Pennsylvania. Hull will study law.

RECALL SUCCESS IN CLACKAMAS

Judge Beatie and Commissioner Blair Recalled by Voters

Oregon City, Or.—County Judge Beatie and County Commissioner Blair have been recalled by the voters of Clackamas county.

H. F. Anderson has been elected to succeed Judge R. B. Beatie, and J. W. Smith will succeed Commissioner M. Blair.

The fight has been a peculiarly bitter one.

The charges were directed especially against bridge expenditures. The recall was the result of dissatisfaction over the way in which the County Court let contracts. It was charged in the petitions that Judge Beatie and Commissioner Blair did not advertise for bids on county work and that their procedure under the old system was a waste of the taxpayers' money.

R. R. CREIGHTON INJURED

This week Dr. Walker received word from R. R. Creighton that while cutting logs near Tillamook recently, Creighton suffered a broken leg from a falling tree. He is now in the hospital and rapidly recovering.

NEW PARCEL POST RATES IN EFFECT

Little Increase in Local Office-- Change Not Generally Known

Postmaster Hines gives out the information that the new parcel post rates are not making a very material increase in the local post business. Several 20 pound packages have been received, but the people as yet have not become acquainted with the new regulations.

The weight limit for parcel post packages, under the new regulations, which went into effect last week, is increased from 11 to 20 pounds. The Charge for a 20 pound package up to a distance of 150 miles, is 24 cents. For an 11 pound package under the old rates it was 46 cents, so that the new rate is less than half of the old.

The new rates, however, are valid only in three zones, the city zone, the first zone for a distance of 50 miles and the second zone for a distance of 150 miles.

Fresh meats and other commodities of a like perishable nature are admitted under the new regulations for mailing within the first three zones.

The new pound rate for the first 150 miles is 5 cents, a reduction of a cent a pound.

CONCRETE BASE IS COMPLETED

Linden-Kitbe People Expect to Complete Paving in Two Weeks

Yesterday the foundation crew of the Linden Kibbe construction company completed their work in Forest Grove and moved to Hillsboro. The surface outfit is expected to arrive here the last of the week and will complete its work in about ten days. Barring unlooked for accidents the company will have finished its seasons' work in Forest Grove in less than two weeks.

The Linden Kibbe Company so far have given perfect satisfaction in their work in this city. Some one said the only objection to the concrete base was that it was mixed by hand and not by machine, which in face of the fact that the big mixer has laid about 1000 yards daily would indicate no fault at all.

New Garage Going Up

No time has been lost, so far, in the erection of the new garage building just south of the LaCourse building on Main street. John Herman who will be the owner of the building expects to have it completed in less than thirty days and will occupy it as soon after as possible.

Max Crandall has announced that the Washington County Board of Equalization will hold its annual meeting on Monday, Sept. 8th, at the courthouse.

NEW P.U. HEAD HAS ARRIVED

Dr. and Mrs. Bushnell Captivated by City.

WILL IMMEDIATELY IDENTIFY THEMSELVES WITH INSTITUTION

Dr. Bushnell Optimistic Over Outlook for Pacific University

Dr. C. J. Bushnell, the new president of Pacific University arrived in Forest Grove this week and is preparing to take immediate charge of the institution. Mr. and Mrs. Bushnell are very much pleased with Forest Grove and express themselves as looking forward to a very pleasant home here.

Dr. Bushnell is optimistic over the outlook for the University, saying that with the present able faculty, and considerable endowment, both of which is to be added to whenever possible, added to which is the fact of the almost ideal location, and inspiring campus, on which are such fine substantial buildings the future of Pacific University certainly ought to be very bright indeed. He says that he finds public sentiment in strong support of the institution.

Freshman Class Over 40

Prof. Proctor announces that the indications for a fall freshman class of over 40 are very good. The members of the faculty will soon be returning to the preparation of their winter's work and everything will be in readiness to open the 60th year of the school on Sept. 17th.

John Alvin Hurt.

John Alvin, driver for W. W. Ryals, Wednesday evening received some minor injuries, when a load of wood on which her was riding upset and fell on him.

SERVIAN SHOOTS FRIEND ACCIDENTLY

Arrested at Hillsboro Though Both Claimed it Accident.

Hillsboro—Officers last Thursday brought in Joseph Sardi, a Servian laborer, employed on Judge Tanner's place near Gaston, and lodged him in jail charged with shooting James Simonelli, an Italian. The injured man received a charge of fine birdshot in the chest and arms, and possibly the lungs are penetrated. He was removed to a Portland hospital. The defendant will be detained by the authorities pending an investigation of the affair.

Both parties claim that the shooting was accidental; that they were the best of friends, and that the wounded man had come out from Portland to visit Sardi. The shooting occurred when Sardi returned from training a young dog. He says the animal played around him and the gun was fired while trying to push the dog away. The wounded man is about 42 years old and Sardi is aged 29 years.

Ten Day Meeting.

A ten day camp meeting of the United Brethren will be held at Cornelius, beginning today. Everybody invited by R. Miller, Pastor.
