Boy Holds Perfect Record for School Attendance, for 27 Months

The county judge, county clerk and assessor make up the trio who will handle the equalization board which will meet in Hillsboro September 8, for hearing objections to the 1913 tax roll.

Hillsboro will soon have a big lot of permanent hard surface streets. The cement base is completed on Third and Jackson streets and is now ready for the top coating of bitucrete.

The new concrete Imbrie garage in process of construction on third street will be ready for occupancy in October, and will add another to the many substantial buildings of our town.

Hillsboro merchants were especially busy Saturday supplying prospective hop-pickers with the comforts and necessities for their camping outfits.

A little boy writes one of our local Editors as follows; "I will write you about an interesting article recently in the Argus, telling of a boy attending school 24 months with out being absent or tardy. The question was asked, 'Who can beat it?' I have attended school 27 months without missing a day or being tardy. Now don't you think that is beating it? I am from Hillsboro and I think Hillsboro is holding the record."—Harold Bruce Carlisle.

A fine bungalow is being erected on Fir street by county recorder, E. L. Perkins. The house will contain six rooms, bath and den. The structure will be finished in rustic and be modern in every way.

Saturday, Hugo Nord, who was arrested for forging a check, was brot before Justice of the Peace, W. D. Smith, and waived examination and was bound over to the Circuit Court. Ford is a man about 40 years old.

People are going to the hop yards by the dozen.

Pastor Exonerated

Rev. H. W. Kuhlman returned from Portland Sunday evening, and after the sermon by Rev. Hiram Gould of Forest Grove, who preached at the M. E. Church that evening he made a statement in regard to his late trouble in Portland. His statements were backed up by strong testimony by Rev. McDougal, Methodist district Superintendent of the city of Portland; Dr. Trimble, Pastor of Centenary M. E. Church; and Rev. Hugh, editor of the Christian Advocate; all of whom heard all the testimony in the case and state there was not one thing to show that Rev. Kuhlman had done anything wrong.—Tillamook Herald.

The Fly

As soon as the fly comes out of his shell he is full grown and starts out to make his living. If your home is not clean he knows it by the odor. They can discern an odor of filth for miles. As much as they like filth they dislike other odors. A pleasant smelling substance, the fragrance of flowers, geranium, lavender, or any perfumery, will drive them away.

Mrs. Davis and daughter Minnie of Portland are visiting a few weeks with Mr. E. J. Shotwell and family.

Mrs. Charles Miller and daughter Margaret returned to this city after a pleasant two weeks outing at Tillamook.

Clarence Rice and Jay Austin, who are working in Portland visited over Sunday in the Grove.

Miss Myrtle Jones of Portland visited her aunt Mrs. Colin Dymment in this city last week.
