News Snapshots Of the Week

Nearly half a million people saw the funeral cortege of the late Mayor William J. Gaynor of New York city. Former President Taft was one of the pallbearers. The Athletics won enough games to give them the pennant of the American league, and the date for the first world's series game was set for Oct. 7. First pictures were taken of the Gatun locks on the Panama canal showing the water let in. Garros, the famous French air man, who holds the altitude record, flew across the Mediterranean sea from France to Tunis, a distance of 560 miles, being the longest overseas flight ever made. Sir Edward Carson reviewed the Ulster volunteer army of 100,000, which is prepared to fight if home rule passes. American ambassador to Turkey, Henry Morgenthau, was a witness in the Governor Sulzer impeachment trial. Dr. William T. Grenfell, a Labrador missionary, was selected as best man for the Wilson wedding.

AT THE CHURCHES

Dr. R. E. Dunlap is expected in this week by auto to take charge of his work here. He will probably be in the pulpit of the M. E. church Sunday morning and evening.

The October number of Rev. J. R. Buck's new monthly magazine has been thoroughly circulated thru the city and it certainly deserves the many compliments it is receiving. A new feature to be added next month will be the "question box." If any person desires knowledge on any special and pertinent Catholic subject, if they will address the question to Rev. J. R. Buck he will take pleasure in answering it in the November issue of St. Anthony's Journal.

Mrs. L. C. Misz, Mrs. Rose Olmsted and Mrs. Margaret Mallory entertained the Ladies Working Society of the Congregational church Wednesday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served.

Farewell Reception

A large number of members and friends gathered in the church parlors of the Methodist church last Friday evening, the occasion being a farewell reception for Rev. and Mrs. Gould, who left here yesterday morning for their new pastorate in Woodburn.

The parlors were prettily decorated and assisting in the receiving line were friends and members of the Maximum Sunday School class.

Later in the evening a short program was given consisting of musical numbers by the Misses Elder and Lathrop and Mr. Isaacs and short talks by different ones of the church all expressing appreciation of the good work done by Rev. and Mrs. Gould. One particularly interesting feature of the program was a cleverly written original poem by Mrs. Showers showing the growth of the church here and giving its history.

Fred Gardner then in behalf of the church, presented to Rev. and Mrs. Gould a purse of money as a token of appreciation and friendship of its members.

Mr. Gould in response spoke of his pleasant stay here, of the importance of this church in the Salem district and of the new pastor Dr. Dunlap who comes here very highly recommended. After refreshments were served all left wishing Rev. and Mrs. Gould as much success in their new field as they have had here during their long stay in Forest Grove.

Saturday evening 7:30 P. M. all the young people of the town are invited to attend the Christian Endeavor social in the college gymnasium.

Sunday morning at the Congregational "Live, What is Yours?" will be the theme of the pastor Rev. D. T. Thomas. In the evening at 7:30 the Flying Squadron of the Port and C. E. Union will have charge of the service. All young people especially invited.
