

Bachelor Girls Meet.
Bachelor girls Club met at the home of Miss Jennie Reynolds, Tuesday evening, Oct. 14. After a short business session the girls who brought their fancy work busied themselves with needles while two of the girls who had no work read to the others. Dainty refreshments of cream chicken and hot biscuits, pickles and coffee were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Hazel Stockman. It is needless to say not many of the "Bachelor Girls" indulged in the eating of the pickles.

At a late hour the girls left for their homes feeling that Miss Reynolds was an ideal hostess.

What do You Think About the BIBLE in the Public Schools

The PRESS will give for the best article dealing with this question from any standpoint a nice Leather Bound Bible and a year's subscription to the PRESS.

All articles must reach us by Monday evening, October 27th, and the announcement and winning article will appear in the issue of October 30th.

Articles should be short, 500 words, but no restrictions will be made.

Arguments both in favor and against the use of the Bible in the schools will have equal consideration.

Also articles proposing a satisfactory system of teaching the Bible.

Or on the question as to whether the Bible will supply the needed moral training in our schools.

All Articles must be in by October 27.

This contest is open to all—Men and Women, High School Students, College Students, Teachers, or any one else.

All articles of especial merit will probably be published. We offer the prize merely to stimulate this discussion.

If you have any views on this subject let your fellow citizens share them with you.
